

BANK PURCHASES ELEGANT FIXTURES

DIRECTORS OF COLUMBUS INSURANCE AND BANKING COMPANY BUY FURNITURE AND FIXTURES.

The A. H. Andrews Company Gets Principal Contract, Amounting to Six Thousand Dollars, for the New Building.

At a meeting of the directors of the Columbus Insurance and Banking Company which was held last Thursday, contracts were awarded for the furniture and fixtures for the handsome new six-story banking building that is being erected on Main street. The principal contract was awarded to the A. H. Andrews Company, of Cincinnati, which is to furnish the counters, desks and other furniture and fixtures for the banking room, for which the concern is to be paid six thousand dollars. The furniture and fixtures which the Andrews Company is to furnish include the marble wainscoting that is to extend around the walls of the banking room, the counters, railings, desks, chairs, tables, and practically all of the furnishings and decorations of this department. The main counter, which will be of mahogany, will rest on a marble base, and the front will be decorated with tiling of the highest grade. The counter will be surrounded by a railing of solid brass, and the windows of the cashier, the teller and the other officials will be of ground glass, with mahogany frames.

The contract for the fire escape was awarded to Mr. D. S. McClanahan for $350, and the contract for the vault front and safety boxes was awarded to the Mosler Safe Company of Hamilton, Ohio, for $900, while the contract for the electric wiring was awarded to D. H. Hunt of Birmingham, who is to receive $650 for the work.

The contract for the elevator was awarded to the Otis Elevator Company, of Chicago. The elevator, including casements, doors and all fixtures, will cost $3,000, and will be of the latest and most improved pattern, being the same style that is used in all the modern business buildings in the North and East.

The construction of the building is well under way. The foundation was completed last Thursday, and work on the side walls has begun. A hoisting engine will be required to lift the heavy stones which are to be used in the front wall, and this engine will arrive and be put in operation during the coming week.

Adams-Bryan.

Mr. Lewis S. Adams of Richmond, Texas, and Miss Maggie M. Bryan of Birmingham, Ala., were quietly married on Thursday morning at eleven o'clock at the residence of Mr. J. P. Stansel, Rev. W. A. Hewitt officiating. Miss Bryan is a very intimate friend of Mr. Stansel's family, and had been visiting them for the past week. She is a very attractive young lady, and has numerous friends in this city who congratulate Mr. Adams on having won her hand. The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony for Brooksville, and after spending a few days there with relatives will leave for Texas, where Mr. Adams has considerable business interests. Mr. R. H. Bryan of Cliftonville and Miss Mattie Bryan of Deersbrook were in the city to attend the wedding.

The announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Patti Lucile Cox, of Carrollton, Ala., to Mr. Oliver Green Kelly, of Selma, Ala., will be of sincere interest to many friends of the bride in this city, where she is pleasantly remembered as a very charming visitor on many occasions. Miss Cox is an attractive and fascinating young lady, whose many charms have won for her countless friends and admirers. Mr. Kelly is a prominent and well liked young business man of Selma. The wedding will be celebrated on Wednesday morning, June 19th, at the home of the bride's parents in Carrollton, Ala.

The Cotton Market.

The government report on the condition of the cotton crop, which was issued last Tuesday, was decidedly bullish, and prices continue to rise, having passed the 13 cent mark in New York. A close of business yesterday afternoon New York spots were quoted at 13.25, October futures in New York at 12, New Orleans spots at 13.25, and October futures in New Orleans at 12.45. In the local market middling was quoted at 12 1/2 cents.

Local Lodge Lore

The members of New Hope Lodge No. 124, I. O. O. F., are seriously considering the advisability of consolidating their lodge with Union Lodge No. 35, of this city. The reasons assigned for their favor of this action are most excellent, and the lodge met last Friday to consider the matter. The membership of this lodge is scattered over a wide area of territory; it is difficult for them to attend the meetings or do degree work; they can attend the meetings of Union lodge with less inconvenience than meetings of their home lodge, and now that their very efficient secretary, the late L. W. Payne, is dead and other leading spirits have moved away, it is hoped to consolidate the lodge with the main lodge here. While this will mean the loss of a lodge in the total number of lodges, yet it will not mean the loss of any member, for the twenty odd members will still continue their affiliation with the order. This is one of the important matters to come before Union lodge at the meeting on tomorrow night.

At a special meeting of Queen City Camp No. 23, Woodmen of the World, which was held on last Wednesday night, the protection degree was conferred upon Messrs. W. M. Atkins, W. A. Beard, W. L. Brooks, J. H. Beard, J. W. Cheves and W. T. Baggett. The camp elected several new members, who will be initiated at the next regular meeting. Mr. Schwab, clerk of the camp, calls the attention of those who contemplate becoming members to the fact that the special dispensation providing for an initiation fee of $3.50 expires on June 12, and all who desire to take advantage of the low rate must make application on or before that date. After June 12th the regular initiation fee of $7.50 will prevail.

At a regular meeting of Tombigbee Lodge No. 12, Knights of Pythias, which was held last Tuesday night, the by-laws were amended so as to provide for weekly instead of semi-monthly meetings, the lodge growing so rapidly that weekly meetings have become necessary and hereafter there will be a meeting every Tuesday night instead of on alternate Tuesday nights, as has been the custom in the past. At the meeting Tuesday night the rank of page was conferred on Messrs. C. L. Henry, Lawrence Gardner, I. V. Dotherow, Beverly Matthews and Walter Perry, and Mr. G. T. Duke was elected to membership. Grand Vice Chancellor W. A. Sessions of Jackson was present at the meeting.

At a special meeting of the local lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, which was held last Tuesday night, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a picnic to be held at an early date. This committee consists of Mrs. O. B. Shearer, Mrs. J. B. Thames, Miss A. B. Stanley and Messrs. W. L. Hampton, Joe Lacata and Horace Stansel, and will submit its report at a meeting which is to be held Tuesday night. The lodge is growing very rapidly. There are now between seventy and eighty names on the membership roll, and it is hoped and believed that the number can be increased to one hundred in the next two months.

Luxapallia Tribe No. 1, Improved Order of Redmen, is growing very rapidly. At the regular meeting last Wednesday night several candidates were initiated and a number of applications were received. Those initiated into the mysteries of the order were Messrs. P. Geraud, J. B. Alford, E. A. Medford, J. W. Wyatt, W. A. Cook, W. H. Foreman and E. J. Bush. At the conclusion of the initiatory exercises the members enjoyed a social session.

The numerous friends of Gen. J. H. Sharp, who for some time past has been quite ill at his home on South Third street, will be glad to learn that his condition is somewhat improved. He is still confined to his bed, however, and it is the sincere hope of the many people, not only in Columbus, but throughout the entire State, who know and love him that his condition will continue to improve and that he will soon be able to be out again.

CHAT OF PEOPLE AND EVENTS

Mrs. Teasdale Entertains the Whist Club.

The sunshine of recent days seems to have bestowed its influence everywhere, and the social calendar has been quick to respond to fair skies and their accompanying cheer. A number of pleasures have been garnered in the week. One of the most delightful of these was the card party at which Mrs. Howard M. Teasdale was the hostess on Friday afternoon. Quantities of old-fashioned flowers, larkspurs, hollyhocks, ragged robins, and other blossoms that adorned gardens of the long ago, were chiefly employed in the decorations, and made the perfect floral effect for lovely, old-fashioned rooms, with their mirrors and heavy gilt cornices. Palms were also used, together with gay, brilliant nasturtiums in gold, copper and pale yellow. The score cards for honors at whist were portraits in colors bordered by the four suits, and were distributed among the players by winsome little Miss Agnes Craddock. The guests were: Mrs. Stockard, Mrs. John R. Maxwell, Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. Landrum, Mrs. H. M. Waddell, Mrs. Mayo, Mrs. Betts, Mrs. Ayres, Mrs. Charles Frierson, Mrs. Winston, Mrs. Frazee, Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Rhett, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. J. T. W. Hairston, Mrs. Maer, Mrs. W. D. Marriage of Mr. F. O. Harris to Miss Pearson of Missouri.

The marriage of Mr. Franklin Orr Harris to Miss Lucy Lee Pearson will be solemnized at the home of the bride in Sedalia, Missouri, on the evening of Wednesday, June twelfth, and will be an interesting event to Columbians. Miss Pearson is a niece of Mrs. W. W. Westmoreland, and during her visit to Columbus a year ago made many friends, and was very much admired. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pearson of Sedalia, and is a handsome and accomplished girl, whose coming will bring an attractive addition to our circle of young matrons. Mr. Harris is a prominent young attorney, who has inherited fine gifts, and has before him a bright future. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Harris of Chattanooga and the grandson of Judge J. A. Orr of this city, with whom he is associated in the practice of law. His mother, as Miss Corinne Orr, is always lovingly remembered here. After the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Harris will leave at once for visits to Chattanooga and Virginia, and will be absent a month. Upon their return they will reside with Judge and Mrs. Orr on the Highlands, and will be most cordially welcomed.

A Modern Bayreuth to be Established by Madame Nordica.

Since Madame Nordica's appearance here, when she captured all hearts and gave a memorable page to our musical history, Columbians have read with pleasure of her plans and triumphs. Especially is this true of the favored company which had the opportunity of meeting the great singer informally when she was the guest of the college. The New York Herald of Wednesday states that Madame Nordica will establish on the Hudson, near New York, a Bayreuth in America. With a part of her large fortune the artist will erect the Lillian Nordica Festival House, which will be to this country what the famous operatic institution founded by Wagner is to Europe. The site for the building has just been purchased for $100,000, and Nordica expects the opera house will be ready for dedication within two years. An institute of music, where ambitious students will be taught by the foremost teachers in the world, is included in the plans of the celebrated singer.

She entertained her audience with vivid pictures of foreign lands through which she journeyed with observant, appreciative eyes, and from which she brought back memories that her friends gladly share. Mrs. Hargrove dwelt particularly upon the Mohammedan world and the condition of its women, their state of servitude, the narrow boundaries of their lives. She sketched with graphic touch, and the afternoon was greatly enjoyed.

The graduates in the department of stenography at the college have issued clever little pamphlets to give graceful greetings from the class of 1907. An unique toast for good luck and good fortune is first presented, followed by an inspiring paragraph or verse for every day of the week, thoughts so appropriate and well selected that one finds oneself saying with Oliver Wendell Holmes, "Blessed are they who have said our goods things for us."

Miss Vesta Wood of Columbus, Miss., spent yesterday morning in Birmingham as the guest of Miss Willie May Parker. Miss Wood left on one of the noon trains for Nashville, where she will attend commencement exercises at Vanderbilt. She will be the guest of friends in Nashville for the month of June.—Birmingham Age-Herald.
