

PROSPECTUS OF THE HOLLY SPRINGS BANNER.

No portion of the South or West does the growing importance of any place more forcibly point to a suitable location of a public journal than Holly Springs.

To render our paper deserving of patronage, no pains will be spared on our part to adapt our selections of general intelligence, to the tastes of all classes of readers.

In regard to our politics, although it is not designed that the BANNER shall be strictly a party paper, by which we at present understand the prostitution of the public press to indiscriminate abuse of its opponents in politics, and the vulgar and indecent denunciations of those who differ with it in opinion.

Admiring as we do, the simplicity and purity of the measures, which, during the administration of Washington and Jefferson, made us happy at home and respected abroad.

To guard against the machinations of the enemies of our domestic institutions, and to expose and lash with a liberal hand, the time-serving sycophancy and degrading party spirit of their sycophant allies.

PROPOSALS For publishing at Hernando Mi. a News Paper to be called the NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN.

The "NORTH MISSISSIPPIAN" is designed to be strictly a News Paper, and will be devoted to every subject which may be deemed of use or interest to its readers.

It is not intended that the "North Mississippi" shall be a partisan paper; but, under a government like ours, where the humblest individual is called to the performance of sacred and important duties.

Having devoted about four years of our life to the duties of an editor, we flatter ourselves that we are not altogether unqualified for the task that will devolve upon us.

The first Number of the North Mississippi will be issued about the first of May next, with entirely new materials, upon a medium sheet, at Three Dollars in advance.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY WHIG.

On Wednesday, the 15th instant, the subscribers will issue the first number of the NEW YORK WHIG, Semi-Weekly. It will be regularly published thereafter every Wednesday and Saturday.

The character of the New York Whig; Daily and Weekly—is now widely known. It has been published about sixteen months, and in that brief period has acquired an extensive circulation, and, we trust, a fair standing among its contemporaries.

Subscribers are respectfully solicited by J. GREGG WILSON & CO. May 9, 1839. 162 Nassau street.

In order to extend the sphere of their influence and usefulness, and in concordance with a general wish, the price of the DAILY WHIG is hereby reduced to five dollars per annum, and that of the Weekly Whig to two dollars and fifty cents.

Editors of Newspapers are respectfully invited to copy the above and entitle themselves to an exchange for one year with our Semi-Weekly. Those who cannot consistently do so are requested to announce the Semi-Weekly Whig otherwise in their columns.

Ms. Wilson:—I have had assurances from respectable sources, of similar documents with the following, which will shortly release all the lands which I represent from the marshals premature levy.
