

IMPORTANT TO TEXIAN EMIGRANTS.

As an act to extend to late emigrants, or those who may emigrate within a specified time, a certain of land.

Section 1st. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Republic of Texas in Congress assembled, That every person who emigrated to this Republic before the first day of October, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and forty, who is a free white person and the head of a family, and who actually resides within the Government with his or her family, shall be entitled to a conditional grant of six hundred and forty acres of land, by paying the fees of office and surveying. The conditions of the said grant shall be, that both grantee and his or her family shall remain and reside permanently within this Republic, and do and perform and pay all duties required of other citizens for the term of three years; after which time he or his legal representative shall receive from the government an unconditional deed for said grant of land; provided that no sale of said claim to land by the individual entitled to the same of this Government shall be valid in law and binding upon the person holding the same until an unconditional deed shall be issued by the grantee for said land; and in no case shall a grant of the above description be made, unless satisfactorily proved that all the conditions and provisions of the law have been complied with; And all free white male persons of the age of seventeen and upwards, who have emigrated to this Republic by the first of January 1840 shall be entitled to three hundred and twenty acres of land.

Sec. 2d. Be it further enacted, That all permanent resident citizens of Texas who have or may arrive to this State required of emigrants by the above section of this act, shall be entitled to the same quantity of land as emigrants upon the same conditions that emigrants are.

Sec. 3d. Be it further enacted, That all officers and soldiers who engaged in the service of Texas, previous to the first of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, whose families are now here or who may arrive here by the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty, shall be entitled to the same quantity of land that they would have been if their families had emigrated to the country with them.
