

We now put it down thus—
 The keepers 50 men $3 per day, $150 Drunkards 200 " " 400 Here five hundred dollars a day which is a clear loss to the productions of our county.
 The growing and increasing prosperity of our county $157,500, added to the agricultural and mechanical interests of our county.
 Turn the labels—take from our enlightened, intelligent, proud and praise-worthy county this fearful sum, and what patriots heart will not swell with holy determination to expel the demon and arrest the disgraceful drain.
 But we have another item to add and subtract from our prosperity, 50 gallons a day at an average cost of $1.35 cts per gallon $33, 75—$9,375 is sent off, actually carried away, exported out of the county as so much lost to the county as if sunk in the Mississippi.
 This is suicidal, it is worse, it is high treason. Why, all the thieves and robbers between here and the Colorado could not with their whole combined efforts & schemes subtract from us so much. Let us add it altogether.
 Deduct in useful improvement and production per annum $157,500 Sent off and lost to us. $9,375

Look at it ye patriots, ye political economists, ye chivalrous sons of Marshall county and of Mississippi.
 What friend to his country, what man in his sober senses will abuse and baroque and willify the noble stand taken by the last legislature against the whole tipping business.
 We design it none else will, pursuing this subject in some further numbers, for the present we feel no fears but that we will be sustained by the people, a large majority of whom no doubt would say (if asked) if you touch the Gallon Law at all touch it lightly.
 ECONOMY.

THE TRUE ISSUE.
 "Shall ours be a GOVERNMENT OF THE

BANK COMMISSIONERS.
 These officers have begun their labors.
 We had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Mr. LEECH of Columbus, during his short visit here, and found him to be a highly intelligent gentleman—a man of talents, decidedly—of dignified address, urban and pleasing manners. We were highly pleased with his appearance and conversation. We believe our worthy Governor, in appointing Messrs. Harley Price and Leach, made an excellent selection as could have been made.
 —and though bitter, bigotted and uncandid partisans, will of course carp and effect sneer at the Governor's exercise of the appointing power in the present instance—we have full confidence the commissioners will fulfill the duties of their responsible office in such a manner as will reflect the highest credit on themselves and His Excellency, and satisfy the great mass of their fellow citizens. The appointment of the Hon. Basil C. Harley particularly, has given great satisfaction to the democratic citizens of this county.
 A more sound and sterling democrat than Mr. H. cannot be found—or one who more extensively enjoys the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. And let his enemies console themselves with this reflection—that higher honors are yet in store for him. Stick a pin here, gentlemen Feds.

The New York Spirit of the Times should be taken by every sportsman. The last received No. was accompanied by a splendid engraving of the famous Horse John Bascombe, being the third of a series of seven superb Engravings on steel which are to embellish the present volume of this brilliant publication. The engravings alone are worth the subscription price of the Spirit of the Times. We again present our readers with the advertisement of the Editor, with the hope that those of our readers who delight in "chronicles of the turf" the stage, and sporting intelligence generally, will subscribe forthwith.

For the Marshall County Republican.

Fox Spring, July 27th 1839.
 Mr. Editor: In answer to a communication made to me through the Marshall Co. Republican from north Mt. Pleasant, and Holly Springs; requesting me to become a candidate for the Legislature—the confidence expressed and the assurance given in both those communications taken in connection with other solicitations, from different parts of the county upon the same subject admonish me of my duty to yield, at any reasonable sacrifice, to the call of my friends; and in doing so, I regret that my qualifications are not equal to the crisis of reform in the laws of the State, without which we are and will continue to be, sunk below any other State in the Union; at the same time it is admitted by all parties, that with our rich staple, we should stand highest, and I have no doubt with proper checks and guards thrown around our monied institutions, we should soon occupy the stand which the nature of our soil & the enterprise of our people so justly deserve.
 All I can promise is vigilance and zeal to oppose all measures calculated to lessen the net profits of labor and promote with my feeble abilities all constitutional measures for the public good. The single subject that produces the highest political excitement is the banking system; this so far as it can be done, should be brought back to legitimate banking by the next Legislature. The first to be considered is the Union bank. So far as the five millions of stock owned by the State is concerned, I am in favor of the institution; but opposed to the mode adopted by the president and directors in making the issues on the capital owned by the State, before the instalments for the State bonds were due. If I understand Democracy on the subject of banks, they are at all times to redeem their notes in gold or silver at the will of the holder, at the same time those institutions should be preparing to abolish the small denomination of notes, with a view to protect that portion of the people, who suffer most under the different grades of imposition, from the great regulator down to the joint stock company; my sentiments on all subjects I will hereafter take great pleasure in giving to you. But fellow-citizens in conclusion I must say, that I follow no man who believes not as I believe, in a word I am a freeman. I have sentiments and I express them as I think. I go for the constitution as I understand it without regard to precedent which cannot bind the conscience.

Your fellow-citizen,
 WM. COOPWOOD.

The "Republican" Holly Springs, Miss., Democratic, uses up Latham of the Memphis Enquirer, in his own satirical style. Put it to him friend Howe, it won't be amiss.
 [Tennessee Trumpet of Liberty.] Thank you, friend Field, we "put it" to the varmint, as well we can—but it's an awful "strong" subject to discuss this hot weather we assure you. Milking goats in dog-days, or mashing chintzes in midsummer nights is not more unpleasant than worrying a skunk in July. Besides—the more we stir the critter the worse he don't smell like a rose. Foh! will it never descend "to the vile hole from whence it sprang!" Are the buzzards to be much longer deprived of their carrion?

MARRIED.

At Jackson, on Tuesday, the 9th inst. by the Rev. L. B. Halloway, Col. A. B. SAUNDERS, Auditor of Public Accounts, to Mrs.
 MARGARET C. MAYSON.

Well done, "Old soldier!" our warm congratulations on this happy occasion to the gallant Colonel, & his doubtless lovely & amiable partner, and our best wishes, that, while old time and the calls and cares of public duty are frosting the veteran's head and gathering wrinkles on his manly brow, Hymen may strew his path of life with joyous hours, and the end of each days patriotic labors find him blest with the sweetest enjoyments earth can yield.

"The smiles and tones which dart An instant sunshine through the heart" —all those joys which cluster around the hearth of the united brave, virtuous and lovely, and make their home "a paradise on earth"—peopled with little cherubs of their own creating.

THE THEATRE.

The drama, when divested of grossness and licentiousness—is a most powerful auxiliary to the cause of philanthropy: the humanizing and exalting of the ignorant and rude of our race; and must be admitted by all intelligent, candid, unbogged minds to have done as much towards softening and polishing "men and manners," as the press or pulpit.

In the temples of the drama, we behold blended beautifully and artfully together, the interesting, the edifying, the amusing, and the instructive—we behold every class of human character, its brightest and darkest shades, reflected as by a mirror.—We see the guilty punished, the good rewarded,—we are taught to love the right, abhor the wrong —to admire what is noble, and to turn with displeasure from what is mean and ignoble in our species. If

"THE PROPER STUDY OF MANKIND IS MAN" then is the stage the proper school for men, and deserving of the countenance and respect of the wise and good.

TENNESSEE POLITICS.

The great struggle at the ballot boxes in the chivalrous State of Tennessee is close at hand, and the hearts of Democrats are beating with high hope for a glorious result to Democracy, though that hope is not un-blended with the deepest anxiety. A fine spirit is manifestly inspiring the lovers of rational liberty in that State, which seems to us to spring from a firm conviction that the dynasty of apostate demagoguism in the land of the illustrious JACKSON, totters to its end. The Republican presses of the State are speaking out in tones of thunder against the vile band of ignoble impostors who have by a course of the most infamous iniquitous and abominable impostures practised upon a gallant people, temporarily seduced that people from their duty to their country, themselves and their posterity. No State has more effective, spirited, courageous, and intelligent Democratic Presses than has Tennessee at this moment. Their broadsides poured into the vulgar besotted, slang-wagging presses in the pay of that beastly demagogue and spotted apostate John Bell, tell with tremendous, overwhelming power, and seem to strike terror and despair into the very hearts of the enemy. From the confident and cheerful tone of our fellow laborers in the good work in Tennessee, and their powerful and stirring efforts to undeceive their fellow citizens and extricate them from the pit of error into which they have been lured by knavish and unprincipled political leaders, we anticipate a result—at the election now close at hand—most glorious to the Democratic cause—most disgraceful and annihilating to the petty politicians, who by climbing up by the skirts of the "Old Hero," and hurrahing for Jackson, have been permitted to plant themselves on the shoulders of the people of Tennessee, and stuffed with vain conceit, "imagine themselves born to ride and rule their betters. Yes—we are confident they will in the next fortnight be hurled from the high places they usurp—from the high estate where they sit, like grinning monkeys enthroned, making a mock and a shame of the seats of honor which should be filled by their betters. The Democratic host is bearing down upon them, like the night and the world of waters which overwhelmed the legions of Pharaoh—their term of iniquity is out—and the hell of political damnation yawns to receive them. We can almost fancy we see the star-spangled banners of democracy streaming over every part of the gallant State where the battle is to be fought—the standard bearers pressing forward over heaps of the dead and dying, their eagles glittering in the sun, while the groans of the vanquished Feds, like the yell of incarnate fiends stewing in flames, pierces the ear, and over all the battles din, the voice of the genius of liberty is heard cheering the republican patriots on to the goal of "Victory!"

Strike! till the last armed foe expires!
 Strike! for your altars, and your fires!
 Strike! for the green graves of your sires!
 God and your native land!

W. G. KENDALL, Esq. of Grenada in a brief communication to the Southern Reporter, declines being a candidate to fill the vac- ancy in the Democratic Ticket made vacant by the lamented BARRY W. BENSON—and says:

"The vacancy occasioned by the death of Col. Benson, has been filled by the executive appointment of an individual every way qualified for the office, and who will, doubtless be a candidate for the regular term. I hope, therefore, the central and corresponding committees, appointed for the purpose of filling vacancies, will place the name of Mr.
 Woodward, of Yazoo county, on the ticket and that my Northern friends, and the Democratic party throughout the State, will unite in the support of him for the office of Secretary of State.

At the time our friends suggested the calling out Mr. K. Mr. Woodward had not been nominated for the Secretaryship. He is a thorough-going State Right's Democrat, and we hoist his name to-day, with pleasure as the candidate of our party for the office of Secretary of State, in November.

THESPIANS.

Friend NEMO of the S. Reporter, says the beneficial tendency of Thespian Societies has never been doubted, and young men who have been members of such institutions possess evident advantages over those who have not, as is apparent to all who have bestowed any observation on the subject or are in any manner conversant with Theatrical affairs——all of which is true as gospel. All that is committed to memory by the young thospian, is so much intelligence acquired, that he never would acquire, in the ordinary way young men trifle and waste their leisure moments. We hope our brother Thespians will think of this, and get up a good sterling piece for representation, immediately.

A friend informs us that LATHAM, in a late Enquirer calls the Republican a "filthy" sheet! We admit we have lately been compelled to "handle" the ANIMAL of Memphis "without gloves," and, probably, have not escaped unscathed from the nuisance—and who can expect to, that is beset by—a FOLEGAT!

Hon. R. J. Walker has written a Letter to a number of his Republican friends, in reply to one from them requesting him to permit his name to be announced, as a candidate for re-election to the U. S. Senate; which letter is decidedly, one of the ablest documents we have ever read. He takes the true ground on the currency—i. e. that "the whole Banking system is founded in FRAUD and falsehood—"that the paper currency is a FRAUD, a TAX, a CURSE, upon the country, and should be ab-lished as soon as practicable without "violating the just rights of property or the sacred principles of the constitution." We hail with pleasure, Mr. Walker's announcement of his consent to again be a candidate for the U. S. Senate.
 The great paper lately put forth by him, stamp him one of the most sound, wise and brilliant statesmen of this country.

J. C. PARTIDGE, late of the Free Trader, has taken charge of the Vicksburg Sentinel, that fearless editorial thunderer, Dr. Hagan having started on a northern tour. We shall miss the burning denunciations of the withering sarcasm, and the fierce wagging of the Doctor against "the shameless bank thieves" and "swindling shops" of the State; but we shall have, in place thereof, (which will be equally agreeable, at least during the hot weather) a weekly fund of miscellaneous variety—pithy, sprightly, witty and interesting articles—the "spice" of a newspaper, and which "gives it all its flavor" to the reading epicure.

Will be published, at this office, pamphlet form in the course of Wednesday next, the Celebrated Letter of

Senator Walker,

to a committee of Gentlemen at Natchez.
 Those who wish to aid the Democratic cause, by distributing this important document, will be furnished with it, at the rate of $3 per dozen on application at this office.

DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM.

In our advertising columns will be seen an advertisement for the exhibition of a painting with the above title, the work of our worthy fellow citizen, Mr. YORSE. We have seen the painting; and though its situation is not calculated to display its beauties in the most advantageous light, (while its blemishes are brought prominently to sight) the apartment in which it is placed being too contracted to allow the proper medium of distance through which a picture of its dimensions should be viewed—we were much pleased with it, and consider it very creditable to the artist. The patrons of the fine arts and fosterers of native talent, should pay Mr. Y. a visit.

Since Dr. Hagan's departure from Vicksburg the "bank swindlers" breath freely—and occasionally venture to show themselves in the streets—in the day-time. They ought to get up "a thanksgiving day," and rejoice together that they are allowed a respite from the fierce bastinado of their g'ant enemy.
 Even our unhappy pepperbox friend of the Whig, who rails without rhyme or reason, may enjoy a respite from the doctors prescriptions and for a while "breath freely," as Daniel has it.

Now old grimalkin being away,
 The little mouses may sport and play.

A GRAND AND INTERESTING PAINTING.

The destruction of Jerusalem by Titus, is now offered for exhibition on Lagrange Street, Holly Springs, Miss.

This scene occurred in the 70th christian era, and in the 2nd year of the reign of Vespasian, the Roman Emperor, and is well worth the consideration of every lover of the fine arts. The painting of this scene has been accomplished by immense labor and hard study. It measures 15 feet lengthwise and 9 feet wide.

Owing to the very hard times and the scarcity of money, admittance has been put down to 25 cents.
