Full dress clothes these days reminds many of bargain sales at "one half off."

Wonder if the "Mirror" published by Arkansas students casts reflections on the faculty?

The burglar who fell asleep after entering a house in Memphis certainly laid down on his job.

Smile and boost—it is the grease that makes the wheels go round.

Get the HAPPY HABIT—it will help you knock the blues dead and buried.

It is NOT so much "bad luck" that some people grumble, IT IS BAD PLUCK.

Chic style on certain so called "city chickens" stick powerful close to nature.

Fashion is made by the idio-sin-crazies of queens, actresses and heiresses.

We all had troubles yesterday—but gee-mo-netti, ain't it fine today?

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Herman on the excellent Farm Edition of the Sentinel.

Here's our hand, Editor Rirdsall, for the best Yazoo Sentinel ever published.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year or a Happy Christmas and a Merry New Year.

Just try to find the best thing first in mankind, beast or thing and see if it does not help you to LIVE better and happier as life rolls along the allotted span.

"When your heart is heavy and your brain is feeling kinder sad, don't worry about your troubles, just think of the fun you've had."

Keep on keeping on success is yours. Don't get the habit of—Mine not to reason why, mine but to FAIL and CRY.

Not to be outdone by the men the women are now shaving off eyebrows and hair in arm pits. O fashion, thou art the devil's wife.

We have tag days, Mother's Day, Take It Back Day, Dad's Day, Children's Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and other days—why not set aside a Happy Day?

If there were not so many one by nothing knockers "existing" in this country life would be the real grand sweet song and everybody singing it.

Everybody needs cheer as many times as the other fellow can give it. Do you give your part to your family and friends? Be cheerful and OLD WORRY beats it for the unknown.

Mothers advised girls in the long ago—now the moving picture stars, Dirithy Dox, Mannie Sorrie, Borra Bean Bibbee and Bella Beeler Bilbox does it for so much per column.

Every women these days seem to be wearing all the skins of creation and they are skinning their husbands and fathers to get 'em too. Don't you know Daddy will make the fur fly when the bills come in about January 1st?

It is never too late to pass the good word down the line. It makes life brighter and better for you and for everybody. Try it, for bread on the water never comes back sour, unless you threw it in with a selfish spirit.

Sayeth a philosopher—"Do each job RIGHT as it comes up and OPPORTUNITY will soon be working as your partner." But many people believe this way—when opportunity knocks at my door it shall NOT be opened.

Why is it that artists can't draw men and women for fashion books and ads without making most of them all out of proportion. Men's clothes are shown on a man nearly all legs and skin tight, and the women—the Lord knows, we can't describe it!

Ford has made so many Lizzies and sold them so fast it has run him nutty. Anyhow he is getting a bunch of free advertising that will sell more cars and bankrupt more owners. It would be best for him to try to stop Ford car owners from "cussing" in general and accessories in particular, besides stopping "poor creditors" from dunning those who mortgaged their homes to ride the flivver.
But if he stops the war, won't he be the BIG NOISE.

Kellogg's Square Dealer says: "A Circus takes a lot of money out of a town but a mail order house never even give a parole." Chew that on your wisdom tooth and remember that our merchants pay big taxes to sell goods at home also remember that it takes POSTAGE to bring stuff from houses up north. Help the home merchant first for you never ask a mail order house for credit until fall—not even 30 days.

It used to be that only preachers were "called" and now everybody claims to hear the "call" of the city, the country, the ocean and every profession. Since "The Red Splash of Romance" was panted in The Saturday Evening Post telling about a tramp's poem of "The Open Road" and the "call" to its freedom the word has been used in every magazine and long newspaper story. It is very interesting to watch the quickened uses of certain words at different times—to see them pass out and then again spring up in a new phrase.

Ford jokes used to be about one per minute, now they will increase since Mr. Ford has gone to Europe. He can afford the trip so poor old Ford will ford the little creek to "MAKE" the Kaiser, John Bull and others QUIT playing the famous shake, rattle and roll. And to think of Editor Hi Henry going over to hob nob with His Nibs, the king and emperor, is just too funny to laugh. He has contributed many things to the Clarion-Ledger Daily but this trip we can imagine his rotund tum tum leaning disconsolately up against the railing and contributing to the Atlantic "weakly." "See-sickness" will be theirs.
