Safe Remedy For Children.

Chas Baker, Brownsville, Tex., writes: "For years I have used Foley's Honey and Tar and found it especially efficient for bad coughs of my children. I recommend it to my friends as a safe remedy for children as it contains no opiates. It is certain to bring quick and lasting relief." Stops coughs. Sold everywhere.

Slav Colony to Locate Here?

At a meeting of the Progressive League Wednesday night at the Court House the opportunities and advantages of this county were set forth in a very convincing manner to Mr Kukenig of St Louis. The gentleman was induced to come here by J M Griffin, real estate agent of this place. H H Burton, Immigration agent of the G M & N railroad, was also present and made a short talk for Mr Kukenig, he not being able to speak our language fluently, stating that these people were hard-working, natural farmers and would make desirable citizens.

Mayor Brand, County Attorney Busby and Judge Bradford made short talks setting forth the advantages of our country.

CREAMERY FOR HOUSTON

Local Man Building Modern Plant Material on the Ground.

Mr Joe S Williams is having material placed on the ground for the erection of a modern creamery. The building will be located near the old Lyles cotton yard. The capacity of the plant will be about two cars of butter fat per week.

This is one more step on the ladder of progress for Houston and as Mr Williams is a practical business man the venture, no doubt, will be a success.

NOTICE

Grateful Mothers Tell Experiences

Mrs. T. Neureuer, Eau Claire, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cured my boy of a very severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. Our milkman cured his children of whooping cough. I recommend it to every one, as we know from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough."
 Mrs. J. Gilkeson, Youngstown, O., writes: "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. I tried lots of cough remedies, but she didn't get any better. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to me. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat, and after using one bottle the cough left her."
 This sterling old remedy has been in use for years and is just as efficient for adults as for children. It gives relief for irritated and tickling throat, tight and sore chest, grippe and bronchial coughs.
