Red Cross Department

New Members

The following new members have been added this week:

Mrs R F Brand; Marianne Tindall; Mr A D Harrington; Ulysee Cooper, (col.); Mrs J C Davis; Mrs E F White; Mr L E Tallichet.

Business Meetings

It seems that it is still not generally understood just when the regular business meetings shall be held. The date is the second and fourth Thursdays of each month. These are the regular meetings of all the members and different committees of the Red Cross Society and does not effect the regular days on which the work-room is open, i. e. Tuesdays and Fridays of each week from 9:30 to 10:30 in the mornings and 8:30 to 5:30 in the afternoons. The cutting committee is keeping busy and any lady who finds that she can give one day or more to the making of these garments can call at the work-room between the hours named above and get the garment, cut and ready for making.

There is an erroneous idea in the minds of some it seems, to the effect that the ladies who are taking such deep interest in this work, are receiving a salary or some remuneration for their services. This is positively untrue and is a great injustice to those who are giving their time and effort to a cause which, not they alone, but everyone should endeavor to further. They are merely following the example set by the women of the south many years ago under similar conditions. When Jefferson Davis sent out the call to the southern women in 1861-65, they responded with the best that was in them, many of them (as did the grandmother of the writer) spinning, weaving and making the uniforms worn by the soldiers. Is not the call of our president to us the same as it was to those women over fifty years ago? Is this not a just war? Is not the Red Cross Society a noble cause? Then let us put our hearts into it and help rather than hinder.

Resolutions Adopted by the Progressive League.

What I have feared for some time, has at last occurred and I understand that you have finally decided to tear yourself away from your many friends at Martin and and go down in good "Old Mississippi" and make your future home.

I cannot find words to express my regrets at your leaving Martin. I have heard more friends, in the last few days commenting on the vacancy your genial nature would leave in our midst. But the best of friends have to part and it is my sincere hope that you will find friends who can get just as close to you as the friends you at Martin and I believe it will be only a short time after you are located, that those with whom you come in contact, will realize what they have gained by a citizen from Tennessee, settling with them.

Fortunately nature has done a great deal for you in making you public spirited, progressive and having that good fellowship which causes you to always be ready to join in any movement for the betterment of your community. Unselfishness is always the chief cornerstone of good-

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, ... and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me. ... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

ness and I believe that it is the universal feeling of the citizens of Martin at your departure. You had the fullest confidence of the people at large, not only in our town but over the entire county and I hope and trust that the county, in which you settle will soon realize your worth and give you their confidence in the fullest measure.

Sincerely your friend,
J. T. Perkins.

J. V. BORING & BROTHER

All in all, everybody believes in being progressive. The local business men try, to a certain extent, to merit the trade of the entire territory which to which they cater. Now, it is up to the people of this territory to co-operate with the business men and bend every effort in their power to build up the entire country. In unity there is strength.

If you believe that mail order houses keep up the schools, churches, and other enterprises, then send your money to them and get the same quality goods and at a higher price, generally, than you would have to pay the local merchant. Of course the local merchants are to blame for some, if not all, of this big stream of silver shekels flowing into the coffers of the mail order magnate, by not going after the business in the right manner.
