

contingencies; and he has, therefore, to issue the following proclamation: WHEREAS, Authentic proof has recently been laid before me, to the effect that the Congress of Mexico has authorized the Government to open negotiations and conclude a treaty with Texas, subject to the examination and approbation of that body, and further, that the government of Mexico has accepted the conditions prescribed on the part of Texas preliminary to a final and definite treaty of peace.

Therefore, I, ANSON JONES, President of the Republic of Texas, and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy and Militia thereof, do hereby make known these circumstances to the citizens of this Republic, till the same can be more fully communicated to the Honorable Congress and Convention of the People, for their lawful action, at the period of their assembling on the 16th June, and 4th July next, and, pending the said action by virtue of the authority in me vested, I do, hereby; declare and proclaim a session of hostilities by land and by sea, against the Republic of Mexico, or against the citizens and trade thereof.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the great seal of the Republic to be hereunto affixed.

Done at Washington, this fourth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and of the Independence of the Republic tenth.

ANSON JONES.

By the President: EREN R ALLEN, Atty Gen. and Acting Sec'y of State.

BEAUTY and ability, relationship, nay every connexion, shakes when the enshroud of poverty is unfurled; we must worship wealth, even to idolatry, if the noble disinterestedness of a few individuals was not at all times obtruded to keep us from emerging into the oblivion of worth, affection, and merit.

THESE are trying times at hotels. If a man is not able to bolt his food, he has to go without it. A reverend brother being invited to ask a blessing, did so in these words: "O Lord, bless us now and forever, and immediately dove into the asparagus."

THE BEST MEN.—The best men are those who preserve the boy in them as long as they live; age should not destroy the child. The child is the original, and the man is merely a superstructure upon the boy. It is an unfortunate sign for a man's own happiness when he has forgotten his boyish feelings.

A certain justice of the peace would never hear but one of the parties in a case; "Because," as he said, "it always puzzled him when he heard both."

FEED the earth, and she will feed you, and liberally toward her, and she will liberally reward you. It is in vain, as the New England farmer says, to try to cheat her. If you give her little, you need not look for much, she will give you but little.

A SECRET OUT.—A letter from Washington in the Richmond Equiper, thus betrays a little secret of the private character and conduct of Messrs. Blair and Rives, worth repeating how it is out:

It has become of late quite "the go" with newspaper gossips to "run on" about the personal beauty of Francis P. Blair Esq. There is no accounting for tastes, so I will not undertake to quarrel with my neighbor for the want of it—with those who are more struck with his teeth, than with highly intellectual contour of his head and the sparkling intelligence of his eye. "Handsome is as handsome does," is a good old nursery "saw," and it applies most admirably to the case in point, as you will admit when I tell you, that Francis P. Blair, and his partner have, within four years, absolutely given away some ten thousand dollars, (in such a manner too as to disguise the fact from the recipients) to persons who lost their employment under Government, in this city, on the accession of the late ruthless Whig administration.

It was but necessary for one to have fallen under the operation of Mr. Clay's rule, "We can't afford to keep your friends in office, sir," to find in them friends whose active sympathy asked no reward but inward satisfaction at having done a good deed. I do not believe that Messrs. Blair and Rives know any one is apprized of the fact. It therefore reflects so much the more credit on them, and proves, that although Mr. Blair's "outer-man" is none of the handsomest, yet it covers a heart as graceful as it is grateful.

A very polite young lady seeing a doctor opening his lancet to bleed her, begged him to desist, as she never had any thing to do with doctrinal points.
