

From the Richmond Compiler.
THE ANNEXATION.

The State convention of the Whigs of Kentucky, recently held, adopted the following resolution on this subject. The New York Tribune disapproves of the agitation in this way, by imputations on the South, and assumes that there are indications as should warrant so charge upon us. The Northern Whigs, by adopting such denunciatory resolutions, do little to conciliate the South. In fact, we mean the great majority of the south (we mean the great majority) are in favor of the annexation—and nothing at present to show that she is in any language of menace would but rather to efforts to hasten its consummation. Mr. Adams did a very imprudent thing when he made his sweeping charges against the South and the slaveholders, on the ground, and those who blindly follow him are much to blame. It is the duty of the Whigs to keep the Union together, or to adopt measures obnoxious to a great portion of it, to deal in the language of exasperation, and to indulge in imputation of sinister and sectional views. The resolution is as follows: That we deprecate the contemplated annexation of Texas to the Union. We regard the movement to that end as originating in a purpose to perpetuate the slave system, and deem it our duty to declare that the annexation will be a virtual dissolution of the Union—introducing, as it will, into the Union, parties entirely beyond the pale of the Constitution; thereby breaking the old, by the constitution of a new political family, and thus breaking up the Union of our Federal Union.

MARKETS.

Wednesday Morning, Dec. 1843.
Operations in this market since our Saturday last have not been disturbed by any important change, although cotton, which has continued its active demand at further improvement. This staple is attracting great attention at present, from the rapidity with which it has advanced and the confidence placed by many parties that this improvement will be permanent and go further, in consequence of the great falling off of the crop which is generally believed will not exceed 1,800,000 bales. If the production is so much deficient, we see no reason why prices should not only be advanced, but even advance a step further. Other produce markets there is nothing to notice.

Weather has cleared off and is favorable to our business.
In our review of Saturday last, we noticed that a very unusual excitement had prevailed in the market, and advanced rapidly, until they were one cent above those current to the receipt of the steamers. On Saturday there was again a demand and the sales amounted to upwards of 5000 bales at very full prices. The market opened on Monday morning with equally active enquiry, and the sales reached 5000 bales, of which a considerable portion was on speculation, and advanced prices. Yesterday there was a falling off in the demand, but on the part of buyers showed an increased disposition to operate, and the sales summed up 5000 bales, making the total business of the three days 16,000 bales. Prices advanced a full 1/4 to 1/2 c. per lb. and quotations are altered accordingly. There is no business doing for foreign markets, and is altogether confined to speculation and for shipment to the West. This rapid improvement in the market, predicated, as we have been, on the belief that the crop would be shorter than the lowest estimates, is really the advanced case, we see no reason why the advanced rates should not be maintained.

Receipts since the 8th instant are 13,000 bales, and the exports 14,038: leaving on hand, including all on shipboard and yesterday, of 132,110 bales.

KOSCIUSKO AND FEMALE ACADEMY.

Assigned, who formerly had charge of the Academy in this place, begs leave to inform the citizens of Kosciusko and its vicinity, that he intends opening a

and Female School

On Monday the 5th of February, he is induced to pursue this course, in consequence of the restrictions required by the Trustees in disposing of the Academy. He wishes to reduce his price of tuition to one-half. His long experience as a teacher of the good will be an enticement for the scholars to take a course more honorable to themselves, than that of reducing the price of tuition, that a competent teacher could spend his time in preparing himself for such an institution. The charges are very low, in comparison to other institutions in the State, of a similar character, as follows:

MOFFAT'S VEGETABLE Life Pills & Phenic Bitters, For Sale by the Agent.

THE high and envied celebrity which this pre-eminent medicine has acquired for its invariable efficacy in all the diseases which it professes to cure, has rendered the usual practice of puffing not only unnecessary, but unworthy of them. They are known by their fruits; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous.

In all cases of Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Bilious and Liver Affections, Asthma, Piles, Settled Pains, Rheumatism, Fevers and Agues, Obstinate Headaches, Impure State of the Fluids, Unhealthy appearance of the Skin, Nervous Debility, the sickness incident to Females in Delicate Health, every kind of weakness of the Digestive Organs, and in all general Derangements of Health, these Medicines have invariably proved a certain and speedy remedy.

They restore Vigorous Health to the most exhausted constitutions. A single trial will place the Life Pills and Phenic Bitters beyond the reach of competition, in the estimation of every patient.
Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, at William B. Moffat's Office, 335 Broadway, corner of Anthony street, New York.
N. B. None are genuine unless they have the fac simile of John Moffat's signature.
The Life Pills are sold in Boxes—Price, 25 cents, 50 cents, and one dollar each, according to the size; and the Phenic Bitters in bottles, at $1 or $2 each, with full directions.
Just received and for sale by

PHILADELPHIA TYPE FOUNDRY.

L. JOHNSON, (successor to Johnson and Smith,) No. 6, George street, Philadelphia, respectfully informs his friends and printers generally, that he has recently made great additions to his assortment of now the most extensive in the United States, and that he is constantly making such additions as he hopes will meet the approbation of the taste.

L. J. deems it unnecessary to say any thing respecting the character of the type from his foundry; it is used in the most extensive Printing Offices, and is well known throughout the United States. It will be his constant aim to keep up the quality of his type, and his prices will be found as low as any respectable establishment in the country.
Presses, Printing Ink, and every article used in a Printing Office, constantly on hand.

PROSPECTUS OF THE JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT.

R. JACOBS, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Tax great necessity existing in the central portion of this State for a Journal to advocate and support the cause of Democracy and Democratic principles, as well as to expose "Coon Humpbugs," and "Hard Cider" influence, is too well known to the citizens of this and the adjacent counties to be reverted to by us at the present time. The campaign of 1840 is fresh in the memory of all of you; the result was disastrous and degrading to the Democracy of the United States, and will always be remembered as a dark spot upon the fair fame of Democratic principles.

The Presidential canvass for 1844, has now fairly opened—the crisis is near at hand, and it behooves the Democracy to be on the alert—to have their sentinels upon the outer walls to give the alarm of approaching danger, and avert the deadly shaft aimed at our political as well as civil liberty; and hurl from the high places of honor and trust, those political aspirants who were elevated by "Log Cabin" excitements, &c.; and prevent those Gladiatorial demagogues who are now in the political arena, and would "sell their birthright for a mess of porridge," or, in other words, would attempt to overthrow our free institutions, by saddling upon the people a United States Bank, from holding the reins of our Government.

The JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will advocate and support the principles bequeathed to the Democracy by the immortal Jefferson, and sustained and acted upon by a Madison, and a Jackson, &c., &c., and will support for the Presidency, the nominee of the Democratic National Convention. PRINCIPLES not MEN, will receive the uncompromising support of the Editor. It will also contain the news of the day, both Foreign and Domestic, Literature, &c., &c.

We shall nail our flag to the mast, with the hope that the Democracy of Atala will come to the rescue, and give their undivided support to assist us in our enterprise. We do not undertake the publishing of a political Journal ignorant of the responsibility devolving upon us. We have, besides being a practical printer, had some experience in publishing, &c. The first number of the JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will be issued on the first Saturday in January next, if sufficient support should be received to warrant us in the undertaking.
Kosciusko, Miss., Nov. 22, 1843.

TERMS:—The JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will be issued every Saturday morning, upon a Super-Royal sheet, and forwarded to subscribers at Three Dollars per annum, in advance.

New York Mirror.

EVERY number embellished with an original and exquisite design on Steel. Edited by George P. Morris: illustrated by J. G. Chapman, who is engaged exclusively for the work.
TERMS:—Three Dollars per annum—single numbers 64 cents.

In the course of a few weeks the undersigned will commence, on his own account, the publication of a new series of the New York Mirror, in the octavo form, on an entirely new and original plan, with a Steel Engraving in every number, and at the reduced price of $3 per annum, or 64c per copy.

The New York Mirror will appear with many striking and attractive features, distinguishing it from any other periodical, it will be published on new type, and fine paper, and each number will contain a beautiful original Engraving on Steel, designed and etched by Chapman, illustrating the letter-press which it accompanies, and which it will invest with peculiar interest. Besides the contributions of all our extensive corps of correspondents—which embrace most of the talent of this country—we have made arrangements for fresh and early translations from some of the best writers of France, and for proof sheets from several of the popular authors of England. With such materials, and with such able fellow laborers in the literary vineyard, we hope to present to the American reader, a weekly journal of great value and unusual excellence. The parade of mere names will be sedulously avoided.

The Mirror will be remarkable we hope, rather for good articles without names, than for poor articles with distinguished names. It will embrace in its scope every department of elegant literature, comprising tales of romance, sketches of society, manners and sentiments, and every day life, piquant essays, domestic and foreign correspondence, literary intelligence, wit and humor, fashion and gossip, poetry, the fine arts, and literary, musical and dramatic criticisms. Its tendency will be cheerful and enlightening as well as improving. It will seek to gratify every refined taste, but never to offend the most fastidious—and it will ever feel its duty to be, "to turn the sunny side of things to human eyes."

The work will be published every Saturday, in numbers of sixteen large octavo super-royal pages, with double columns and enclosed in a neat and ornamental cover. It will form at the end of the year, two superb volumes, each of four hundred and sixteen pages, filled with the gems of literature and the fine arts.
The very low price at which it will be issued renders it the cheapest periodical in this or any other country, considering the cost and beauty of its

and the intrinsic value of its literary contents. Those desirous of receiving the paper from the commencement, will have it punctually sent to their address upon their forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4 Ann street, 3d free of expense.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, may be franked by Postmasters. Agents, carriers, newsmen, will be supplied on the usual terms. The cash system will be rigidly adhered to, without any deviation whatever.
Such Editors as copy the above will oblige me by forwarding a marked paper and resuming the exchange, which was interrupted much to my regret, by circumstances over which I had no control.
GEORGE P. MORRIS.

The Mammoth Notion Revived!

The largest Folio Newspaper in the world: For only $2 per year.

THE great revolution that is now going on in the publishing of books, by the prompt and extraordinarily cheap issues of all new and valuable or entertaining works, seems to do away in a very great measure, with the necessity or policy of publishing a newspaper in the Quarto or Octavo form. The subscriber has therefore concluded to discontinue the quarto edition of the Boston Notion, and hereafter that paper will be issued in the

MAMMOTH FOLIO FORM.

A variety of new features will be introduced into the Notion, which we feel confident will make it highly attractive to every class of readers.
A Farmer's Department will be added, under which head we shall endeavor to give a valuable and seasonable collection of the best articles that appear in the leading Agricultural papers of this country and of England, the leading Agricultural papers of England being received at the office of the Notion by every steamship.

Sermons by a Loafer.—Under this head we shall give, each week, a humorous and satirical discourse upon the current topics of the day, fashionable humbugs and charlatans, and popular fallacies of every description.

The Literary Department will fully maintain its present high reputation. The best and earliest selections of Tales, Romances, and Light Miscellaneous Reading, will be given from the English and American Magazines, viz: "Blackwood's," "Tait's," "Fraser's," "Dublin University," "Bentley's," "Ainsworth's," "The New Monthly," and "The Metropolitan." "Southern Literary Messenger," "Knickerbocker," "Democratic Review," "Lady's Book," "Graham's Magazine," "Sargent's Magazine," &c. &c.

A Prices Current and The Markets will be two new features that will also be introduced into the Notion. Particular care will be taken to procure the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Provisions, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money, &c., which will render our Prices Current of great value to the Farmer, Mechanic, and all business classes.

SUNDAY MORNING EDITION.

Hereafter we shall issue an edition of the Notion every Saturday night at 12 o'clock, which will contain all the news of Saturday, notices of Concerts, Lectures, &c., which occur on Saturday Evening, and all local intelligence which we can gather up to the hour of 11 1/2 o'clock, Saturday.

Reduction of Prices.—Hereafter we will send the Boston Notion, in clubs of five copies, for ten dollars per year, or five dollars for six months, cash in advance. Two copies, five dollars per year, or two dollars and fifty cents for six months, in advance. One copy, two dollars and fifty cents per year, or one dollar and twenty-five for six months, in advance—or three dollars per year, payable at the expiration of the year.
GEORGE ROBERTS, Publisher Boston Notion.

A NEW SERIES OF Temperance Tales,

BY T. S. ARTHUR, Author of "Six nights with the Washingtonians." The extensive, and still increased sale, the wide spread popularity of Mr. Arthur's "Six nights with the Washingtonians," and the urgent entreaties of many distinguished leaders in the Temperance cause, have induced the subscribers to make an arrangement with that admirable writer to furnish another series of tales from real life.

These Tales will be published in sixteen weekly numbers, at the low price of six and a quarter cents per number, neatly stitched up in handsome covers suitable for preservation. To those who have read the former series of Mr. Arthur's Temperance tales, it need not be said that the forthcoming series will be not only deeply interesting, but calculated to do immense service in the great cause which they are designed to promote. Like the "Six nights with the Washingtonians," the subject will be drawn from real life, and it will be the object of the author to depict the horrors of drunkenness in all its varied and appalling forms, as exhibited in different classes of society, as well as to show the remedial means which Temperance associations furnish in accomplishing this object. Mr. Arthur will bring to his aid the same accurate observations, the same truthful delineation, the same clearness of narrative, and the same lofty morality, which have marked his former productions; and it may confidently be predicted that through the influence he will thus exercise, many an inebriate will be rescued from the fangs of the destroyer.

The price of these Tales is purposely made very low, that they may be brought within the reach of all persons, and it is confidently hoped that all who desire to see the Temperance cause flourish will aid in their circulation.

The Metropolis,

A new weekly Parlor Gazette of Literature, General Intelligence and Art.
EDITED BY EPPES SARGENT.
THE Metropolis is published every Saturday in the city of New York, the first number bearing date March 11th, 1843. Every number contains sixteen large octavo pages, in double columns, and is published with new type on fine paper. The work will form at the end of the year, two handsome volumes of four hundred and sixteen pages each.

The contents will be various, comprising various lartices, letters and correspondents, at home and abroad, tales, poems and sketches, original and selected, literary, scientific and musical notices, foreign and domestic news, and editorial comments upon the various incidents, questions and novelties of the day.

TERMS.—For One Dollar a year in advance, the Metropolis will be mailed to any part of the United States or Canada.

Postmasters and others remitting five dollars will receive six copies per annum; ten dollars twelve copies; mailed to one address.

No letters taken from the Post Office unless franked or post paid.

Editors publishing this brief Prospectus, will receive the Metropolis for one year.

All orders, remittances and communications must be addressed to SARGENT & Co., 251 Broadway, New York.

TO AGENTS.

The unparalleled low terms upon which the Metropolis is afforded to agents, renders it a matter of necessity to demand payment in advance for the same in all cases without exception. There will be no departure from this rule.

The Ladies Wreath,

IS the title of a new work, published monthly in Philadelphia, at the extremely low price of One Dollar a year.

The design of this work is to furnish at a low rate, a Magazine which, as regards literary merit and mechanical execution, shall equal the best three dollar magazines. Each number will contain at least forty-eight (8vo.) pages of reading matter, entirely original, from the pens of the most talented male and female writers of the day. One or more Splendid Steel Engravings will be given in each number, and also one of a series of Splendid Flora Engravings—richly colored, now in course of preparation—decidedly the most attractive series of embellishments ever given in any magazine. One or more pages of new and popular Music will be given in each number. It will be printed on new type, cast expressly for the purpose, upon fine white paper. The work has reached its third number, and thus far the result has proved that the design of publishing a magazine of superior literary merit and elegant execution, at the low price of One Dollar a year, could be successful. Our subscription list is already double that of any other One Dollar Lady's Magazine, and hundreds are added each week.

New contributors, of known and acknowledged talent, have been secured, and the publishers are determined to spare no pains or expense in rendering the work every way worthy the patronage of the public.
