

which prices sales have been reported, and at which holders are firm.

Bacon.—The market is but scantily supplied with Bacon, there being no good old stock on hand, and the stock consisting principally of city smoked. The demand is good and the market firm.

Wool.—The market has been very quiet, and no change in prices has been observed.

Bagging and Ropes.—As we have before remarked, the short crop of cotton has caused a surplus stock of these articles on hand, and the limited transactions are at our regular quotations.

Lard.—We have no change to announce in prices, which remain at our quotations.—The business done are moderate.

Notice.

I shall, at the April Term of the Probate Court of Holmes County, apply for an order to sell the following piece or lot of land, lying in Attala County, described and known as the east half of the south-west quarter of section 28, in township 13, north of range 5 east; and when and where all persons interested in the said lands, tenements and hereditaments of Chaffin Smith, deceased, or his heirs, or any other person claiming the same, or any interest therein, may appear and show cause, if any they can, why said land should not be sold for the purpose of paying the debts of the said deceased SMITH.

MOFFAT'S VEGETABLE Life Pills & Phoenix Bitters.

For Sale by the Agent.

THE high and varied celebrity which this eminent medicine has acquired for its curative efficacy in all the diseases which it professes to cure, has rendered the usual practice of putting not only unnecessary, but unwarrantable. They are known by their fruits; and good works testify for them, and they thrive by the faith of the credulous.

It cures all cases of Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Bilious Liver Affections, Asthma, Piles, Scattered Rheumatism, Fevers and Agues, Obstructions, Headaches, Impure State of the Fluids, Swelling of the Skin, Nervous Debility, the sickness incident to Females in Health, every kind of weakness of the Digestive Organs, and in all general Derangement of Health, these Medicines have invariably proved a certain and speedy remedy.

They restore Vigorous Health to the most debilitated constitutions. A single trial will convince you of the truth of the above statements. The Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters beyond all other preparations, in the estimation of the medical profession.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, at B. Moffat's Office, 335 Broadway, corner of Anthony street, New York.

None are genuine unless they have the signature of John Moffat.

The Life Pills are sold in Boxes—Price, 25 cents, and one dollar each, according to quantity; and the Phoenix Bitters in bottles, Price, $2 each, with full directions.

The Ladies Wreath.

IS the title of a new work, published monthly in Philadelphia, at the extremely low price of One Dollar a year.

The design of this work is to furnish at a low rate, a Magazine which, as regards literary merit and mechanical execution, shall equal the best three dollar magazines. Each number will contain at least forty-eight (8 vo.) pages of reading matter, entirely original, from the pens of the most talented male and female writers of the day. One or more Splendid Steel Engravings will be given in each number, and also one of a series of Splendid Flora Engravings—richly colored, now in course of preparation—decidedly the most attractive series of engravings ever given in any magazine. One or more pages of new and popular Music will be given in each number. It will be printed on new type, cast expressly for the purpose, upon fine white paper. The work has reached its third number, and thus far the result has proved that the design of publishing a magazine of superior literary merit and elegant execution, at the low price of One Dollar a year, could be successful. Our subscription list is already double that of any other One Dollar Lady's Magazine, and hundreds are added each week.

New contributors, of known and acknowledged talent, have been secured, and the publishers are determined to spare no pains or expense in rendering the work every way worthy the patronage of the public.

CLUBBING AND PREMIUMS.

For the convenience of neighbors, and to facilitate remittances, we will send, when remitted post paid—

Seven copies of the Wreath one year for $5 00
Four copies of the Wreath, and any Three Dollar Magazine, 5 00
Five copies of the Wreath, and any Philadelphia weekly paper, 5 00
Fifteen copies of the Wreath, 10 00
Ten copies of the Wreath, and any Three Dollar Magazine, 10 00
Ten copies of the Wreath, and Spark's Life of Washington, in Nos. 10 00
Ten copies of the Wreath, and Scott's Novels, 10 00
Ten copies of the Wreath, and Dickens' (Boz's) works, 10 00
Twenty copies of the Wreath, and any of the above named works, 15 00

Specimen numbers furnished, if ordered post paid. Address DREW & SCAMMEL, Publishers, 67 South Third street, Philadelphia. Editors giving the above a few insertions, and sending the numbers containing it marked with ink, to the publishers, shall receive the work one year.

Editors giving the above five insertions, and calling attention editorially, shall receive in addition the 19th volume of the "Knickerbocker," commencing January, 1842.

PROSPECTUS OF THE JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT.

R. JACOBS, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

THE great necessity existing in the central portion of this State for a Journal to advocate and support the cause of Democracy and Democratic principles, as well as to expose "Coon Humpbugs," and "Hard Cider" influence, is too well known to the citizens of this and the adjacent counties to be reverted to by us at the present time. The campaign of 1840 is fresh in the memory of all of you; the result was disastrous and degrading to the Democracy of the United States, and will always be remembered as a dark spot upon the fair fame of Democratic principles.

The Presidential canvass for 1844, has now fairly opened—the crisis is near at hand, and it behooves the Democracy to be on the alert—to have their sentinels upon the outer walls to give the alarm of approaching danger, and avert the deadly shaft aimed at our political as well as civil liberty; and hurl from the high places of honor and trust, those political aspirants who were elevated by "Log Cabin" excitements, &c.; and prevent those Gladiatorial demagogues who are now in the political arena, and would "sell their birthright for a mess of porridge," or, in other words, would attempt to overthrow our free institutions, by saddling upon the people a United States Bank, from holding the reins of our Government.

The JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will advocate and support the principles requested to the Democracy by the immortal Jefferson, and sustained and acted upon by a Madison, and a Jackson, &c., &c., and will support for the Presidency, the nominee of the Democratic National Convention. PRINCIPLES not MEN, will receive the uncompromising support of the Editor. It will also contain the news of the day, both Foreign and Domestic, Literature, &c., &c.

We shall mail our flag to the mast, with the hope that the Democracy of Attala will come to the rescue, and give their undivided support to assist us in our enterprise. We do not undertake the publishing of a political Journal ignorant of the responsibility devolving upon us. We have, besides being a practical printer, had some experience in publishing, &c. The first number of the JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will be issued on the first Saturday in January next, if sufficient support should be received to warrant us in the undertaking.

Kosciusko, Miss., Nov. 22, 1843.

TERMS.—The JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT will be issued every Saturday morning, upon a Super-Royal sheet, and forwarded to subscribers at Three Dollars per annum, in advance.

The Mammoth Notion Revived!

The largest Folio Newspaper in the world. For only $2 per year.

THE great revolution that is now going on in the publishing of books, by the prompt and extraordinarily cheap issues of a new and valuable or entertaining works, seems to go away in a very great measure, with the necessity or policy of publishing a newspaper in the Quarto or Octavo form. The subscriber has therefore concluded to discontinue the quarto edition of the Boston Notion, and hereafter that paper will be issued in the MAMMOTH FOLIO FORM.

A variety of new features will be introduced into the Notion, which we feel confident will make it highly attractive to every class of readers.

A Farmer's Department will be added, under which head we shall endeavor to give a valuable and seasonable collection of the best articles that appear in the leading Agricultural papers of this country and of England; the leading Agricultural papers of England being received at the office of the Notion by every steamer.

Sermons by a Loafer.—Under this head we shall give, each week, a humorous and satirical discourse upon the current topics of the day, fashionable humbugs and charlatans, and popular fallacies of every description.

The Literary Department will fully maintain its present high reputation. The best and earliest selections of Tales, Romances, and Light Miscellaneous Reading, will be given from the English and American Magazines, viz: "Blackwood's," "Tait's," "Fraser's," "Dublin University," "Bentley's," "Ainsworth's," "The New Monthly," and "The Metropolitan." "Southern Literary Messenger," "Knickerbocker," "Democratic Review," "Lady's Book," "Graham's Magazine," "Sargent's Magazine," &c., &c.

A Prices Current and The Markets will be two new features that will also be introduced into the Notion. Particular care will be taken to procure the earliest advices in reference to the prices of all kinds of Grain, Provisions, Produce, &c., the state of Stocks, Banks, Money, &c., which will render our Prices Current of great value to the Farmer, Mechanic, and a business classes.

SUNDAY MORNING EDITION.

Hereafter we shall issue an edition of the Notion every Saturday night at 12 o'clock, which will contain all the news of Saturday, notices of Concerts, Lectures, &c., which occur on Saturday Evening, and as local intelligence which we can gather up to the hour of 12 o'clock, Saturday.

NEW TERMS.

Reduction of Prices.—Hereafter we will send the Boston Notion, in clubs of five copies, for ten dollars per year, or five dollars for six months, cash in advance. Two copies, five dollars per year, or two dollars and fifty cents for six months, in advance. One copy, two dollars and fifty cents per year, or one dollar and twenty-five cents for six months, in advance—or three dollars per year, payable at the expiration of the year.

GEORGE ROBERTS,
Publisher Boston Notion.

Job Work

EXECUTED at this Office with neatness and dispatch.

September 16,

A New Enterprise.

By the former Editor of the Saturday Evening Post, and Saturday Courier.

COMPRISING the fruits of twenty years experience in the Newspaper business—the aid of the most distinguished newspaper writers of the day; a valuable Foreign Correspondence; with troops of Literary friends, and the determination to publish a newspaper for all classes, which shall not be surpassed.

Philadelphia Saturday Museum.

A Family Newspaper, neutral in politics—opposed to quackery, and devoted to the useful arts, education, morals, health and amusement.

The tales, sketches, narratives, biographies, essays and poems, shall be of the first order; the best productions of the best writers of the day. Also articles on History, Astronomy, Chemistry, and all the useful arts and sciences, with a liberal portion of light reading, anecdotes, wit and humor, making a varied, rich, and milk-inspiring olio.

Foreign and domestic news, Congressional proceedings, and a general view of all matters of interest or importance, will appear.

Pictorial embellishments, comprising maps, landscapes, architecture, portraits of distinguished personages, of both sexes. In these as well as in neatness of typography, the Museum shall not be surpassed.

Foreign Correspondence.—Arrangements have been completed for securing a regular foreign correspondence, more extensive and complete than has ever enriched the columns of an American newspaper.

Commercial.—The state of business, of stocks, prices of grain and flour, and all descriptions of country produce, merchandise, &c., will be given from actual sales in Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York, Boston, &c.

Select and original gems from the best productions of the best writers of the day.

TO AGENTS.—Persons, Commissions, &c. Any individual who will take the trouble to procure the names of his friends, and remit the funds, will be entitled to the commissions, which are at present, and will continue to be until further notice, more liberal by far than have yet been offered by any newspaper of real character or merit.

TERMS.—The Philadelphia Saturday Museum is published every week at two dollars per annum, as usual in advance, or three dollars at the end of the year. For twenty dollars, in current funds, sixteen copies of the newspaper will be forwarded, securely packed, to any part of the United States. Three copies for five dollars.—All orders and communications to be addressed, free of postage, to

THOS. C. CLARK & Co.,
191 Chesnut street, Philadelphia.

We shall be glad to exchange with newspapers that will oblige us by copying the above.

New York Mirror.

EVERY number embellished with an original and exquisite design on Steel. Edited by George P. Morris; illustrated by J. G. Chapman, who is engaged exclusively for the work.

TERMS.—Three Dollars per annum—single numbers 1/4 cents.

In the course of a few weeks the undersigned will commence, on his own account, the publication of a new series of the New York Mirror, in the octavo form, on an entirely novel and original plan, with a Steel Engraving in every number, and at the reduced price of $3 per annum, or 6/10 per copy.

The New York Mirror will appear with many striking and attractive features, distinguishing it from any other periodical; it will be published on new type, and fine paper, and each number will contain a beautiful original Engraving on Steel, designed and etched by Chapman, illustrating the letters-press which it accompanies, and which it will invest with peculiar interest. Besides the contributions of all our extensive corps of correspondents—which embrace most of the talent of this country—we have made arrangements for fresh and early translations from some of the best writers of France, and for proof sheets from several of the popular authors of England. With such materials, and with such able fellow laborers in the literary vineyard, we hope to present to the American reader, a weekly journal of great value and unusual excellence. The parade of mere names will be sedulously avoided.

The Mirror will be remarkable, we hope, rather for good articles without names, than for poor articles with distinguished names. It will embrace in its scope every department of elegant literature, comprising tales of romance, sketches of society, manners and sentiments, and every day life, piquant essays, domestic and foreign correspondence, literary intelligence, wit and humor, fashion and gossip, poetry, the fine arts, and literary, musical and dramatic criticisms. Its tendency will be cheerful and enlivening as well as improving. It will seek to gratify every refined taste, but never to offend the most fastidious—and it will ever feel its duty to be, to "turn the sunny side of things to human eyes."

The work will be published every Saturday, in numbers of sixteen large octavo super-royal pages, with double columns and enclosed in a neat and ornamental cover. It will form at the end of the year, two superb volumes, each of four hundred and sixteen pages, filled with the gems of literature and the fine arts.

Fifty-Two Engravings.

and the intrinsic value of its literary contents. Those desirous of receiving the paper from the commencement, will have it punctually sent to their address upon their forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4 Ann street, 3d free of expense.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, may be franked by Postmasters. Agents, carriers, newsmen, will be supplied on the usual terms. The cash system will be rigidly adhered to, without any deviation whatever.

Such Editors as copy the above will oblige me by forwarding a marked paper and resuming the exchange, which was interrupted much to my regret, by circumstances over which I had no control.

GEORGE P. MORRIS.

SOUTHERN DAILY REFORMER.

The first number of the Southern Daily Reformer will be issued the first day of the session of the Legislature—Monday, January 1, 1844. It will appear regularly during the full term of the session, and be continued for one month after the adjournment of both branches of the Legislature—making three months or more. It will contain full and correct reports of each day's proceedings of both Houses—reports of the various committees—all the important bills introduced and passed—the Executive messages—the reports of the State Officers—with also the speeches in full, of the members, on every important subject. In addition to the proceedings of our State Legislature, it will also contain a faithful synopsis of all the important proceedings of Congress, and other transactions at the Federal Government.

The Daily Reformer will record all the interesting news of the South, and the Union—give abstracts of the cotton and produce markets, at home and abroad—the movements of political parties—the latest foreign intelligence—and whatever may be of advantage or profit to the citizens of our country.

Various important measures will demand the attention of the ensuing session. Among the most prominent, are—Our debts—expenditure and income—State Districting system—abuses of public trust—banks—public education—important changes in the judiciary—amendment of Constitution for extending Chancery jurisdiction to Circuit Courts—Penitentiary system—completion of the Rail Road from the city of Jackson to the Alabama line. These, with many other equally momentous subjects, will come before the people's representatives for searching investigation and enlarged discussion, and final action, seriously affecting the interests of Mississippi, and all having intercourse or connection with its government or citizens.

In view of the solicitude of the people to be informed of the progress of these vital measures of State reform, we have secured the services of JOHN MARSHALL, Esq., a young gentleman well qualified for the task, to report the proceedings of the Legislature, and also the speeches of the members. We have also engaged the valuable aid of Col. C. A. BRADSON, late editor of the Southern Tribune, as our Reporter at the seat of the general government.

The ensuing session will be of a character not exceeded in importance since the organization of our State. Whether losers or gainers in pecuniary reward, if we shall accomplish the desideratum so long desired, of diffusing among the people, and rendering them familiar with the acts and conduct of their representatives, we shall be satisfied. Relying upon the intelligence of the democratic party, and the liberality of the citizens of our State, generally, we are confident that our labors will be abundantly appreciated. We have established the Southern Weekly Reformer on a permanent basis—and made the city of Jackson our permanent residence, and in view of the future, we know that an unfading support of democratic principles, will obtain for us—unsought and unasked—the permanent respect and esteem of the party.

At the present era of our history, the people of the United States have before them matters of stupendous national interest, involving the prosperity, nay, existence of republican institutions. Congress will be asked to admit Texas into the Union—to repeal the tariff and distribution clause—to assume the debts of the States—to adopt some plan of collecting and disbursing the Nation's revenue. Our foreign intercourse especially with Great Britain, will be a source of intense interest. In a short time we must know the political preferences of the democracy in regard to a presidential candidate—the convention of the States will give us the probable result of the national convention. Many of the free and enlightened democratic press have raised the standard of some great defender of their principles. They are so many tributes due virtuous, generous benefactors of the republic. We have unfurled our banner, and upon its folds may be read the glorious time-honored names of CALHOUN and WEBSTER. History reveals their lives without reproach, and their acts, the country's. The national convention, according to democratic usage, will proclaim the final choice. May it be our favorite—may it be the pure-hearted, honest and unwavering democrat of the south—but on whose head soever it may fall, that choice will meet our approval, and receive our honest and zealous support.—Under no circumstances will our ardor cool, or spirits droop, in favor of the will of the democratic party. Be our candidate CALHOUN, or be it VAN BUREN, time shall show that we wear not for men, but are willing to lay down every thing without the feelings of sacrifice, for the good of the democracy of the Union.

We invite the co-operation of our friends in all parts of the state, and the south, in our present enterprise. For the small sum of Three Dollars they will obtain a far more ample and complete detail of the proceedings of the state Legislature than the whole volume of printed reports, and the diffusion of correct information upon state and national questions greatly affecting the opinions and decisions of the American people.

We especially solicit the support of our merchants, and others, in the city of Jackson, in the way of advertisements. The facilities and important advantages resulting to all classes, from a daily issue, must be apparent to every intelligent and business man. Every citizen must feel a deep interest in the character and increased prosperity of our favored city. We are more willing to contribute our share toward the accomplishment of these great objects, and only desire that the advantages shall be rendered reciprocal.

The merchants of New Orleans, Natchez, Vicksburg, &c., will also find their interest promoted by selecting the DAILY and WEEKLY REFORMER as mediums of advertisement. During the session and business season, thousands of copies of each paper will be circulated in every section of the state, by members of the Legislature, and regular subscribers. The present impression of the WEEKLY REFORMER is upwards of 1500 copies, and rapidly increasing—and numerous copies are also circulated in the adjoining states of Louisiana, Alabama and Tennessee. We have spared neither efforts nor means to render our paper worthy the support of all classes of readers; and it will be found, we trust, one among the best FAMILY, BUSINESS, and POLITICAL JOURNALS in the south.

TERMS:

THE SOUTHERN WEEKLY REFORMER containing all the matter of the DAILY, with three or four columns new matter, will, as usual, be issued every Tuesday, at $3 per annum. Persons wishing DAILY and WEEKLY will receive both at 5d; payable in advance.

Clubs over 10 persons, will be supplied with the Daily at the rate of 1/2 cent each copy.
