PATRICK HENNESSY TAILOR.

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he still continues the Tailoring business at the old stand, on the east side of the public square, in Lexington, and on account of the hardness of the times, he has reduced his prices, and will make the most fashionable coats, in the best style, for eight dollars, and all other work in proportion.

He will clean, repair and recolor clothes of all kinds, in the best and most durable manner, and for the lowest charges.

He returns thanks to the community for the patronage already conferred on him, and hopes from strict attention to business, to merit a continuation of the same.

All kinds of cutting done on the lowest terms. All work done warranted to fit.
