K. A. SOCIETY.

At a meeting, recently held, of several members of the K. A. Society of Hippocrates, after deliberate consultation it was resolved to adjourn to meet at Jackson Miss., on Friday 15th of March 1839 at eleven o'clock A. M. with the view of forming a Grand K. A. Society of the state, and for the reception of such medical gentlemen as may present themselves vouched for as possessing suitable qualifications for membership. It is desired that all members in the State attend.

An Address will be delivered on the occasion, explanatory of the design and advantages of the institution.

Officers and ex-officers of the State, the Clergy, and gentlemen of the Bar and the Medical profession, who can conveni-

PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT
FOR SALE.

THE public is respectfully informed that the office of the Eastern Clarion is now offered for sale. The proprietor of the establishment, though reluctant to part with it, is compelled temporarily to suspend his operations, and yield it to other hands, by engagements, which require his absence from Paulding, and necessarily prevent his attendance to the duties of the office, with that regularity which is in justice due to its patrons.— The office is entirely new, & in excellent condition.
The location a desirable one for health and profit, commanding the immediate patronage of several flourishing and populous counties, and of the eastern counties generally. Those wishing to purchase will please make application to the proprietor, J. J. McRAE, at Jackson, where their communications will be punctually attended to.
P. S. The building and lot connected with the office, one of the most eligible, fronting on the public square, in Paulding, may be had if desired by the purchaser.
Jan. 1, 1839. 5-11.

PROSPECTUS OF THE
MOBILE GAZETTE AND
GENERAL ADVERTISER.

It is proposed by the subscriber to publish in the city of Mobile a Daily paper; to be called the Mobile Gazette and General Advertiser, which will be devoted to general and local intelligence, commerce, literature and morality.
The want of such a paper, as the one proposed has been long felt throughout the south west, and it is believed such an one will meet with liberal encouragement from all classes of society. It will be the ambition of the publishers to render it alike interesting and useful in the family and counting house.

As a newspaper, it will not, it is hoped, be inferior to any of that class now published in this section of the country. Care will be taken to procure for it the earliest intelligence of an interesting nature; and all subjects on which the people is divided in sentiments, will be treated in an impartial and independent manner. While it is intended to make it a faithful chronicler of all prying political events, every thing verging on passage politics will be carefully excluded from its columns.
As a Commercial Register it will furnish to its readers at the earliest possible moment, such interesting intelligence as may be relied on.— The state of our own and foreign markets will be carefully noticed and commented on as occasion may seem to justify.

As a literary journal, it will, by taking a course not within the ordinary province of a daily paper, supply a vacuum that is universally felt and regretted in this section of country. Its endeavor will be to promote and encourage liberal and enlightened sentiments on the general and private education. A proportion of its columns will be devoted to original and selected literary matter of unquestionable ability; and by this means it is hoped it will be made a welcome visitor in every family circle.

As a moral agent, it will be the endeavor of the publisher to give it an influence decidedly beneficial. While every thing like sectarian religion will be carefully avoided, his uniting efforts will be used to promote and encourage a respect for religious institutions, and to disseminate correct moral principles.

One entire page will be devoted to original and selected reading matter, and the balance of the sheet will be occupied by commercial intelligence and advertisements.

It will be readily supposed by those who are acquainted with the difficulties of such an arduous undertaking, that the subscriber does not rely upon his own efforts. He has other resources to rely upon, and such as cannot fail to give a respectable character to his journal.

TERMS.—The Mobile Gazette and General Advertiser will be published every day (Sundays excepted) it will be on an Imperial sheet, and will be furnished to subscribers at ten dollars a year, payable in advance.

Any person procuring five subscribers from abroad and forwarding the amount of the subscription (if post paid) will be entitled to a sixth copy gratis.

Advertisements will be inserted on the 5th terms as those adopted by the Mobile Daily Press.

ATKINSON'S EVENING POST And Philadelphia Saturday News.

A WEEKLY Family paper, devoted to Literature, Science, Art, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, &c. &c., published in Philadelphia, at Two dollars per annum, payable in advance.
The subscriber having recently purchased the proprietorship of the PHILADELPHIA SAT-URDAY NEWS a weekly journal of wide circulation, and high literary character, proposes henceforth to issue that paper in connexion with his own long established and well known periodical the EVENING POST. By the junction of these two journals, the list of subscribers to the united publication will be among the greatest in the United States. To preserve and extend this ample circulation, the subscriber is determined to make every effort which his means will allow. Among the early improvements which he proposes to introduce, will be a finer quality of paper and other mechanical changes which will tend to make the Evening Post and News one of the most elegant weekly papers which the country furnishes.

Upon the literary department of the Evening Post & News, the subscriber intends to bestow particular attention. The editorial management of the paper is committed to a gentleman of high reputed qualifications and character, and negotiations are now in progress by which the aid of the best talent in the country will be secured. With these accessions to his present able list of contributors, the subscriber does not hesitate to predict that in point of literary merit the Evening Post and News will speedily take rank among the first of our periodicals.
To his own patrons, many of whom have received the Evening Post since its commencement, the subscriber offers his assurance that the same attention to the circulation of sound morals, blended with profitable amusement and useful instruction, shall still direct to similar results; and to the patrons of the Saturday News, he offers assurance that the spirit, variety and abundance, both of original and selected literature, shall in no degree be diminished under his control. From the latter, therefore, he confidently expects a continuance of the favors so liberally bestowed on his predecessors, which it shall be his earnest study to merit.

Terms, single number of the paper for 1 year, $2 Three copies 1 year, $5 Agents who favor us with $19 in current notes will be entitled to an extra volume of the Post, and a volume of the Casket for the next year.

ARTICULAR NOTICE TO THOSE PER-SONS WHO WISH TO TAKE THE POST AND NEWS.

All payments must positively be made in advance in good current money as can be procured. Postage must invariably be paid on all communications addressed to the Publisher—unpaid letters are not taken from the post office, but are allowed to be returned to the general post office department at Washington.
Address S. C. ATKINSON, 38 Carter's Alley Philadelphia.

P. S.—Postmasters and others who are at present agents for the Saturday News are respectfully solicited to continue their aid in behalf of the joint publication.

Newspapers with whom we exchange will oblige by giving the above a few insertions, a favor not before asked in several years—and those wishing to exchange by copying the above advertisement marked is requested.

PROSPECTUS
MISSISSIPPI JUSTICE AND CONSTA-BLES GUIDE.

THE scarcity of the Revised Code and sheet acts of the Legislature, and the difficulty with which the Justices and constables of this State supply themselves, and the great want of such a work, as a Justice of the Peace on my own part, has induced me to offer to the Justices and Constables of this State a digest of all the laws in force, in relation to their duties, &c., together with a complete set of forms of Deeds, Wills, Bonds, Acknowledgements of Dower, and other instruments.

To place such a work into the hands of Justices and Constables would save much trouble and time to officers for whom the work is intended. As the law now stands it is, with the utmost difficulty to be ascertained whether a written law is in force or not, which often misleads us.

The work will be published in one Duodecimo volume, law binding, comprising from two hundred and fifty to three hundred pages, with a digested index of the contents, giving a condensed statement of all it contains. The work will be ready for delivery by the 1st of Mar. 1839.

V. BUTLER, J. P.
Carrollton, Sept. 15. 1838.

NATIONAL MAGAZINE
AND REPUBLICAN REVIEW.

H. J. BAKER, ESQ. EDITOR.

THE National Magazine and Republican Review, will be published in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 1st day of January next, and delivered monthly in all parts of the United States, devoted exclusively to the advancement of the great principles of the Whig party, and the encouragement of literature and science.

The experience of the past year has confirmed in the minds of the more reflecting and sagacious of the Whig party, that a vacuum exists in the periodical press of the country, in which should be combined the productions of our great statesmen on literary and scientific subjects, and those of the eminent literary geniuses of which the United States can boast so ample a share, on the various subjects that present themselves to a sound and vigorous intellect.

It cannot be doubted that the present crisis demands the publication of a work calculated to infuse and circulate true and honest political information, and to counteract the direful influence exerted by a monthly periodical of a similar nature published in this city, under the auspices, and bearing the name of the self-styled democracy of the present day, advocating the measures which, if successful, are destined to moulder to ruins, the fabric of our noble Constitution, by placing constructions on it to suit the caprice and advance the re-achings of corrupt ambition.

The union of such principles with a general literature as have insulted the common sense and honesty of the country, by proclaiming the "Murtyrdom of Cilley," rendered in a manner more detestable from the ignominious way in which they are combined, tends directly to the disorganization of all that, as Americans, should be held most sacred. This combination is calculated to secure them a circulation in quarters to which they might not otherwise penetrate, as well as from a certain air of high-toned philanthropy and expansive liberality of views, with which they are artfully able to invest themselves, for the purpose of stealing their way into the heads through the unsuspecting hearts of that class on which depends the destiny and hopes of the nation—its young men. Whilst the more experienced sagacity of older heads can never hesitate a moment in recognizing the real naked deformity of these principles of modern Radicalism, under all the fair seeming disguises they may assume, yet to the young they are replete with a subtle danger of the most beneficent character.

The National Magazine and Republican Review, is indeed, and will be conducted with these and other equally important considerations in view calculated to correct misconstructions, and to inculcate the correct political principles on which are based the views and practice of the great Republican Whig party, as well as for the encouragement and maintenance of genuine polite literature.

The publishers will neither spare expense in the mechanical department of the work, nor their utmost efforts to render the Review useful to the public in a literary point of view, and honorable to the country and cause which it is destined to espouse as a National work.

The period is fast arriving when the country will emerge from the dominion of a party which has come into power under the corrupt influence of a misled popular prejudice, and which has advocated and sailed under the broad and corrupt motto of office seekers, "To the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished;" being alike anti-republican, unconstitutional, and a foul stain upon the free institutions of the country, that can only be eradicated by the triumph of the principles which govern the Republican Whig party of the present day.

The advocates of the principles alluded to, who have stood foremost in defence of the Constitution and Laws when they were as diminutive as a party could be, exerting the strength of a Leonidas battling with the host of Xerxes, and have nearly succeeded in rescuing the government from the grasp of corruption, will deem it their imperative duty to continue their efforts, and it cannot be better done than by supporting a periodical of high standing for sound political principle and literary worth; and such an one will be found in the National Magazine and Republican Review.

The success of the Magazine will therefore depend, in a measure, on the great body of the opponents of the present Administration, whose interest it will be to aid in its permanent establishment. And it will be equally landing on the talented and patriotic band of leading Whigs to spare neither time nor labor to the explanation and advice of the true and only principles on which depends the great experiment of Republican Government.

Having made these few remarks on the political cast of the publication, we feel confident that its utility will be readily perceived by the Public, and fully appreciated. In addition to the political features, the following will be the principal subjects on which the Review will treat, from the pens of the most celebrated writers of the present day.

Reviews and Critical Notices will occupy a part of its pages, thereby giving praise to genius, and reproof to such productions only as are richly deserving of it.

A sketch of the proceedings of Congress will be given at the close of each session, in which will be explained the cause and effect of all prominent acts and measures, compiled by a gentleman of acknowledged ability and opportunity to arrange and collect such matters as will prove both interesting and instructive.

Election Returns will be given in a tabular form, embracing all elections of importance in the various States, as early as practicable after the reception of official returns.

Essays and Tales also form an important part of the work, and all original articles of this character will receive prompt attention. The object of the publishers, next to enlarging the good cause in which they have embarked, will be to furnish the reader with such matters as will both interest and amuse, such as Sketches and Reminiscences of events too minute for history.
Biographical and Historical Sketches of distinguished personages, &c.
Original Poetry will be well sprinkled through its pages.

Engravings of distinguished Statesmen. If the work should receive the same encouragement as is usually extended to periodicals of a literary and scientific character, the subscribers to the Review will not only find their numbers enlivened with three desirable plates, but also with many other valuable improvements.

TERMS.—The National Magazine and Republican Review will be published in monthly numbers of eight octavo pages each, on fine paper, with new and handsome type, and in the most approved and mechanical typographical appearance, at the moderate price of Five Dollars a year, payable in all cases in advance, or on the delivery of the third number, without respect to persons.

Any person forwarding ten respectable subscribers, and becoming responsible for the amount of their subscriptions long as they continue subscribers, The publishers will be responsible for all monies owed by mail, in case of insolvency, provided the certificate of the Post Master shall be secured, and copies forwarded accordingly.

If a subscriber shall not order his subscription to be discontinued at the expiration of the year, he shall be considered as wishing the Review continued which shall be forwarded, and the subscription money expended on the receipt of the third number as in the first instance.

No subscription taken for a less term than one year.

All communications, post paid, addressed to the publishers at their residence, Georgetown, D. C., will receive prompt attention. Publishers of somewhere papers will copy the foregoing prospectus will receive a copy of the work in exchange.

LADY'S BOOK.

HAVING a larger circulation than any other Monthly Periodical in America. A COL-ORED PLATE OF THE LATEST FASH-ION IN EVERY NUMBER.

Important Announcement.

IT WAS with sincere pleasure that the publishers mentioned last season, the arrangement by which THE LADY'S BOOK AND LADIES AM-ERICAN MAGAZINE, WERE UNITED, AND TO BE EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE.

It is with equal pleasure that he now informs the patrons of the work, that he has made an arrangement with MISS LESLIE,
Author of Pencil Sketches, Mrs. Washington Potts, &c. &c., who will be connected with Mrs.
Hale in lending interest to the pages of the Lady's Book. Her powerful aid will commence with the January Number, 1838. In addition to the above, every number of the work next year will contain A PLATE OF SUPERBLY COLORED FASH-IONS.

The subscriber endeavors by extraordinary endeavors to show his gratitude for the very many favors he has received from his kind friends, the public. From among the many female writers of America perhaps no two Ladies could have been selected, whose varied talents are so well calculated to adorn a work like the Lady's Book. What it is also mentioned that

MRS. SIGOURNOY,
THE HEMANS OF AMERICA AND GREEN-VILLE MELLEEN, are contributors to the periodical, it will be useless to waste space in mentioning in endeavoring to show what is apt, the Lady's Book will stand unrivalled among periodicals of the country.

Each number also contains two pages of PA-TIONABLE MUSIC—in many a case original.

TERMS.
The terms of the Lady's Book is Three Dollars per annum, or Two Copies for Five Dollars payable in advance.

All orders must be addressed to Literary Rooms, 211, Chesnut Street, one door below Seventh, Philadelphia.

ed with other popular periodicals, he sug-

PEARL RIVER BANNER.

THE undersigned propose to publish at the town of Monticello, Mississippi, a weekly News Paper by the above name. We are well aware that in attempting to commence the publication of a paper at this time, that we will have to labor under serious disadvantages; but we feel assured that we will be sustained by the people of the South Eastern part of our State, as they are wholly unsupplied with a press in that section; we allude to the counties south of Brandon and Paulding.

It is usual in a prospectus to say something of the objects of a paper, proposed to be published, and the principles upon which it is to be conducted. Our object—for we will speak out frankly; is first to make our paper a source of profit to ourselves, and secondly while we advance our own interest, make an honest effort to advance the interest and happiness of those who patronize us.

We will endeavor to make our paper profitable and interesting to our patrons, by the discussion and elucidation of those subjects, which will be most interesting and useful to them. These subjects we suppose to be those relating to the great agricultural interest of the country.—In sound moral principles of the community.—In short, the intellectual improvement of the great body of the people upon all subjects affecting their happiness and prosperity. Our political principles are those entertained by Washington and Jafferson.
In favor of a just and strict construction of the Constitution. We believe that all powers not granted to the Federal Government, are reserved to the States or to the People; and that all violations of the reserved rights of the States, is a violation of the Constitution and a dangerous usurpation on the part of the Federal Government.

The present situation of our country affords a sad and melancholy example of the consequences of the Executive throwing aside the Constitution and disregarding all the checks and restraints which that Constitution had imposed on him, and acting without other restraint than his own will; and with a reckless determination to sink his own favorite schemes, though millions should suffer from a poverty in the general crisis. In that portion of our paper devoted to politics, we have no preference for men, we go for principles—not men.

WE GO FOR LIBERTY AND THE CONSTITUTION.
TERMS.—THE PEARL RIVER BANNER will be published on a large Super-Royal sheet and sent to subscribers at five dollars in advance or six dollars at the expiration of the year.
