

Resolutions.
The Women's Missionary society of Okolona Baptist church,
Resolved, that in the death of Mrs. Minnie Reeder we have lost a beloved member and sister. We will miss her right, happy face. She was always ready and willing to help in any good work, and was a kind and affectionate friend; a noble Christian woman.
Resolved, that we emulate her virtues and cherish her memory as a beloved sister in Christ. Unto the blessed husband we extend our sincere sympathy, and pray that God may pour an "oil and wine of consolation" into his heart so sorely bruised and broken.
Resolved, that we grieve with the dear children who are left without a gentle loving mother. We pray that their young feet may be guided along the path he would have them tread, and at last lead them home where there will be no more partings but all shall dwell together in joy and happiness forever.

That a copy be spread on our minutes, also a copy sent to the family.
Mrs. TOM DARDEN,
Mrs. V. TURNER,
Mrs. ADAM DARDEN,
Committee.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge and published in our city papers, and that our K. of P's. furnish Brother Reeder a copy of same.

Respectfully submitted,

A Clever Production.

"Quite," an amusing comedy was presented with decided cleverness by a party of charming Central College girls Friday night. The play is concerned with two college girls who endeavor to play pranks on their sweethearts, who are Harvard Seniors and who come near to getting into serious trouble with the principal of their seminary.

The cast was excellent and the piece was capitally staged, the positions and dialogue and all showing careful and accomplished study as well as fine native gifts.

Misses Norfleet Daniel and Kate Burgin were most charming as the two conspirators. They spoke their lines with brightness and verve and brought out all their points finely.

Misses Addie Cox and Mary Mabry as the boys scored big hits. They looked delightfully picturesque in their imitation of masculine attire and in speech and action left nothing to be desired.

Miss Bessie Rash was a decided success as the grave and dignified college president.

The little play went off without a hitch and was enjoyed to the fullest extent by the appreciative audience.

After the comedy there was an informal reception, the first of this year, and the occasion that proved to be most delightful in every respect. There were an abundance of boys and things went merrily as marriage bells until the inexorable call came for the guests to leave.—Tuscaloosa Times-Gazette.

TOYLAND IS HERE

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early.

Perhaps it is very human, but at any rate it is exceedingly unwise to defer your Christmas shopping until the last moment. The probabilities are that you have very keen recollection of the disagreeable experiences of last year, when you were forced to take your chances in a pushing, surging crowd, and then went home, tired and exhausted, without having bought one-half the things you had on your list and without having secured just what you wanted when you did buy.

The early shoppers always get the pick of the stock and unless you are in line you must take your chances of being able to secure only the remnants of things.

We are splendidly ready. Our assortments of Holiday Goods are at their best. Stocks are all fresh and new, and not one thing that goes to make a perfect Christmas store is missing. Buy your Christmas presents now before the rush comes. You have the double advantage of selecting from complete assortments and receiving prompt attention. Thousands and thousands of useful articles especially suited for gifts are here. A variety greater and more complete than ever before.

PETITION FOR PARDON

Hon. James K. Vardaman, Governor of the State of Mississippi.
We the undersigned citizens of the 1st and 2nd district of Chickasaw county would most respectfully ask that your Excellency would pardon Jim Owen a negro who was convicted five years ago for killing a negro man in the 2nd district of Chickasaw county and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.
We would state on information that he has been very faithful since he has been in the pen and has put the authorities to no trouble. We would show that since he has been in the penitentiary a tree fell on him and did him some damage. We are reliably informed that some very important testimony was suppressed by the prosecution and if this testimony could have been obtained the result might have been different. He pleaded self defense and contended that deceased had a pair of brass or metallic knook on which he killed him and was making an effort to strike him with them when he stabbed him, but he could not get testimony to prove the fact until here of late. We are informed that he has been in the pen for five years and has made a good convict and we think under the circumstances he ought to be pardoned and therefore we humbly ask that your Excellency will pardon Jim Owen, J. O. Kimbrough, F. G. Kennedy, Henry Kimbrough, H. M. Brook, Walter Foster and others.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Miss Edie Moonisburger will be among the I. F. & C. girls who return Friday to spend a small portion of the holidays with home folks. The many friends of Miss Edie will be happy to know upon her entrance examination she was classed as Freshman-Sophomore with the assurance of becoming full Sophomore by February. This enables her to receive at graduation, her diploma in music in February and her literary diploma the following June. Considering the short period of her musical studies life this classification is still more noteworthy, when we realize to enter Sophomore music of such an artistic standard as the Columbian school maintains, represents five years of serious and well-poised work. Still we all know a few years rightly invested is worth a life time of wasted energy. This gives Okolona the distinction of having one girl to rank remarkably and unusually high in music. Mrs. Sain Stovall has received a congratulatory letter from Miss Poindexter, Director of music (under whom Miss Edie is now studying) upon her pupil's beautiful work. Especially does she commend her technique and discrimination of touch. She entered Sophomore theory under Miss Montcastle, our own town-woman whom we are justly proud to claim, and sincerely do we congratulate the I. F. & C. of having such a thorough musician at the head of this department. Mrs. Stovall is rejoiced at having a pupil to have the opportunity of going directly under her guidance, believing she instills that idealistic desire, thereby causing the realistic to expand and see that which is noblest and best in musical art.

So rarely do play goers of this city have an opportunity to hear refined musical comedy that it is hard to fill the opera house, but Monday night the large audience that filled Parnham hall was treated to a good company as play the large cities. Cinderella was good in every way from start to finish and those that failed to go missed a sure enough treat.
