

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

If you suffer from any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

One Experience Convinced Me of its Value

"One of our salesmen demonstrated the value of the Long Distance Telephone to us. He was at Huntsville, Ala., and upon his own responsibility put in Long Distance calls for fifteen merchants within a radius of several hundred miles.

"In less than one hour he had sold 2100 barrels of flour at a total cost to us of less than six dollars.

"Since then we have applied the Long Distance Bell Telephone to every feature of our business with most profitable results. The service is fine, the rates are reasonable and there is more satisfaction in one Long Distance Telephone talk than in half a dozen letters".

GIRL WAS TOO SUSPICIOUS

And as a Result She Is Out Three Pounds of Perfectly Good Candy.

Wouldn't it make you feel joyful if after allowing your thoughts to linger over the sweetest peach in the orchard of love and you admitted the soft impeachment by blowing in three good iron dollars for a box of sweets. And not caring to trust the mails with the precious stuff, you sent it by special messenger. After giving the boy time to reach the house you picture the peach receiving the package all aglow, and imagine her chirping, "the dear boy." Those were the sweet dreams of a young man who sent his best girl a box of candy. And this is how the young woman received it: She handled the package rather gingerly, then she grew suspicious and finally frightened. "It is a bomb," she exclaimed, and still believing it was, she ran with the package to a nearby police station, where it was placed in a pail of water. After fifteen minutes of soaking it was removed. The young woman waited until it was opened, and she saw it was a three-pound box of chocolates and a card on top reading, "Sweetest Thoughts From Morris." Of course the candy wasn't much good as candy after its soaking, so the young woman cried. Morris' feelings have not been recorded as yet.—New York Times.

SURE

Willie Firefly—My, I ought to be able to get that job.

STRONG DESERVE THE FAIR.

"To the strong the fair," commented Judge Morgan in granting a divorce to Duke R. Lee, a strong man in a circus, from Elizabeth Lee, a bareback rider.

Lee testified he was married in New York in 1911. Shortly afterward, he said, his wife became acquainted with Lee Sampson, who, he admitted, was stronger than he, and was, in fact, second to none but the Biblical Samson.

"As soon as she discovered that Sampson was stronger than I she left me for him," said Lee. "She is still with him."—San Francisco Dispatch Los Angeles Herald.

WHERE SHE WORSHIPS.

"I see where the sacred mirror plays a prominent part in the coronation ceremonies of the Japanese emperor," said Dubwaite.

"Sacred mirror, eh?" replied Twomble. "My wife has one." "Nonsense!"

"Yes, she has. It's on her dressing table."

NATURAL RESULT.

"What did your friend do when he found out he had been chasing a rainbow?"

"He turned all colors."

THE OBJECTION.

"Do you believe in taxing bachelors?"

"Certainly not. I'm no single tax crank."

APPROPRIATE CUSTOM.

"So these two society girls are to open a fashionable dairy. Where will they get patronage?"

"From the cream of society."

MODERN WAY.

"A feminist says women will be leading armies some day."

"Why not! Most women are expert in using the telephone."

THE UNFAIR SEX.

Hazel—Mr. Gushley told me I was the handsomest girl at the ball. Aimes—Poor fellow! It's too bad he is so awfully near-sighted.
