

Fashionable Functions
and Interesting Incidents.

AFTER a brief rest following Chautauqua Okolona's fashionable folk are enjoying a week of unusual gaiety, and next week promises to be equally as delightful. Adding pleasure to every affair is the presence of a number of charming visitors. Among these are Mrs. William Mothershead of Winona, formerly of Okolona. Mrs. Burl Smith, of Winona, guests of Mrs. George Cole, and Mrs. Garnett Merriam, of Chattanooga, guest of Mrs. A. F. Wicks. These three were honorees at a brilliant reception on Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cole when Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Wicks were hostesses. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Wicks entertained at bridge at "Myrtle Grove", her pretty suburban home.

Mrs. T. C. Bradford, of Oakland, Mississippi, with her very young daughter, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. H. Latimer; and Mrs. Latimer and Mrs. W. R. McDuffie give a lovely bridge party Wednesday afternoon complimenting Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. John Summers, of Clarksdale, who is the popular house guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jagoe. On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Jagoe will entertain with a delightful garden party and bridge games will be enjoyed. Invitations have been issued by Mrs. T. J. Lyles for Monday day afternoon, when she will receive in honor of Miss Velma Reeder, accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Reeder, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. Archie McDonnell has been announced. On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Edward Savage will be at home to a large number of guests from both the married and unmarried sets.

Mesdames McDuffie and Latimer Entertain

The numerous attractive visitors who have been the inspiration for so many delightful affairs this week were again complemented Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. W. R. McDuffie and Mrs. E. H. Latimer entertained with a cleverly planned al fresco bridge party. The guests were received on the porch of Mrs. McDuffie's pretty bungalow, where long handled baskets of shasta daisies and quantities of other flowers were effectively used. Miss Virginia Pyle, of Iuka, winsome young sister of Mrs. McDuffie, and Miss Henrietta Beaty served punch from a crystal bowl embedded in sweet peas. The nine tables for the games were placed on the lawn, and the decorations there were also tall baskets of home grown flowers. The place cards were quaint old fashioned girls wearing yellow frocks.

At the conclusion of the games, during which refreshing punch had been served, music was heard and Miss Virginia Pyle appeared in a lovely esthetic dance, "The Nightengale". Her costume was a flesh colored knicker suit with draperies of maline and the shaded lawn furnished an effective setting. Her second dance was "Daisies", and was in striking contrast to the first. Both were beautifully rendered; and, while Miss Pyle is a young girl, not yet through college, she is an artist of unusual ability.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. T. M. Dean for highest score, and Mrs. Stephenson, of Corinth, for highest among the out of town guests. These were lovely Venetian glass flower bowls filled with sweet peas. The consolation, a scented pottery vase, fell to Mrs. Frank Elliott. The hostesses served a delicious salad course with iced tea to the players and a number of tea guests.

Mrs. Eva Elias and Mrs. E. D. Elias Entertain

The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Elias was unusually attractive when, on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Eva Elias and Mrs. E. D. Elias entertained at cards in honor of Mrs. S. M. Morrow, of Memphis. A profusion of sweet peas and other flowers were used in decorations. When the guests arrived, punch was served after which Charles Elias, the handsome little son of the house, wearing a smart suit of pongee, passed a silver tray, on which was a Shasta daisy tied with yellow ribbon for every guest. The hostesses then served a dainty yellow and white ice course. Punch was enjoyed throughout the games of bridge and rook. Mrs. Henry Brady made highest score in the bridge games and was awarded a lovely silk jonny scarf, while Mrs. Myers Hodges captured the rook prize, a pair of pretty silk stockings, and Mrs. W. H. Miller a dainty lace handkerchief. The honoree, Mrs. Morrow, was presented a very handsome old spoon, which was an heirloom. Seven tables of players enjoyed this pretty affair.

Bridge Luncheon

One of the most enjoyable of the lovely June parties was the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Fred McDonnell at her home on Tuesday morning in honor of Mrs. William Mothershead and Mrs. Burl Smith, of Winona, and Mrs. Garnett Merriam, of Chattanooga, charming house guests of Mrs. George Cole and Mrs. Armon Wicks. The tables were placed in the living room and dining room, where an attractive arrangement of ferns and cut flowers lent a pleasant atmosphere. Several games were enjoyed, Mrs. R. B. McEachin, of Birmingham, making highest score. She was presented with two beautiful hand made handkerchiefs. The honor guests were given lovely hand painted Japanese fans. At the conclusion of the games the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

Attractive Okolona Girl Engaged

Quite a surprise to the many Okolona friends of Miss Myrt Abernethy was the announcement, made last Sunday by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Abernethy, of her engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. H. C. Hume, of Bowling Green, Kentucky. Miss Abernethy is not only pretty and attractive, but is a young girl of unusual intellect. She attended M. S. C. W., where she was the recipient of numerous honors. She is at present a student of Bowling Green Business College and is also a member of the faculty. The wedding will be solemnized very quietly the last of this month in Bowling Green.

Mrs. T. J. Lyles, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Marion Donaldson Lyles, is in Nashville where she will witness the graduating exercises of Vanderbilt University. Her son, Adlai, stands among the first in these exercises, having won, we understand, the Phi Beth Kappa, one of the highest honors bestowed there.

Brilliant Reception

A brilliant reception was given on Monday afternoon by Mrs. G. W. Cole and Mrs. A. F. Wicks, at the home of Mrs. Cole, in honor of their charming guests Mrs. Mothershead and Mrs. Smith, of Winona, and Mrs. Merriam, of Chattanooga. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with a profusion of potted ferns and cut flowers. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Pearl Murfee and served to refreshing punch by two charming young ladies, Misses Julia Chandler and Ethel Reeder. Miss Hilary Ward presented them to the receiving line which was composed of Mesdames Cole, Wicks, Merriam, Smith, Mothershead, Fred McDonnell, A. L. Jagoe, J. E. Edens and R. B. McEachin. Mrs. W. E. Savage graciously received at the entrance of the double parlors. Iced tea and sandwiches were served by Misses Grace Hunter Vice and Leta Ellis. Mrs. Howard Murphree ushered the guests into the dining room where a delicious ice course was served by four attractive young ladies, Misses Velma Reeder, Frances Chandler, Annie Lou Dean and Mildred Baskin. Mrs. S. D. Murphree and Miss Frances Abbott presided in the library.

A delightful musical program was rendered by Mrs. D. F. Morgan, Mrs. T. P. Davis and Miss Edna Owen.

Junior Epworth League Picnic

Mrs. E. H. Cunningham, superintendent of the Junior League, in company with about twenty-five junior boys and girls, spent Friday in an outing and picnic at Mrs. E. L. Browder's near town. The party went on a hike which had been well planned and gave the youngsters games, fruit gathering and permitted them to bathe their feet in the cool refreshing streams of the woodland. At noon an old fashioned dinner was spread in a beautiful grove where each child feasted on good things to eat including ice cream. This occasion will be long remembered by the juniors.

Other attractive things have been planned in the way of picnics for the juniors and intermediates. The seniors are planning a fish fry.

WHEN you put your herd on the Purina System, you see the results in the milk pail. You make more milk - you save more milk.

Raise calves at less cost

You can feed a calf on Purina Calf Chow for six months for what it costs to feed it on whole milk for 30 days. After the fifth week, you can feed dry Calf Chow. It saves trouble and saves milk.

Why Purina makes more milk

Cow Chow supplies protein and minerals that are nearly always lacking in the average cow's ration. When you supply all the material needed for milk, naturally, the cow gives more milk. You ought to be getting more milk.

Carey BOARD

WALLS CEILINGS PARTITIONS

YOU do not have to wait till the plasterer says he can come - when you use Carey Board.

The carpenter on the job can apply it or you can put it on yourself if you have to.

There is no muss, no freezing, no dampness to worry about, no finishing coat to come later, no ghostly white walls that call for paper-hanging expense.

Carey Board is made of pure fibre strongly built up in three plies and cemented with asphalt which makes it absolutely water-proof. It is finished in a cheerful buff color that will take decoration but does not require it.

Use it in place of plaster.
