

GODLEY'S MAGAZINE AND LADY'S BOOK FOR 1845. The best earnest publisher can give of what he can and will do next year is a reference to what he has done last year, or at any time in the last fifteen years. Under this view of the case it would be quite sufficient for any purpose for us to say that the high character of the magazine for literary and artistic merit will be properly sustained. But we are aware that the rapid and dazzling succession of novelties which we have brought forward within the last few years naturally excites a lively curiosity; and every subscriber is saying to himself, what will Godley do next.

It is merely with a view to gratify this curiosity on the part of our friends that we now proceed to enumerate some of the features. Four next year's is an, promising, however that the enumeration must necessarily be partial and incomplete, from our inevitable practice of seizing upon every new and brilliant form of embellishment the moment it presents itself, as well as selecting the services of all the POPULAR, LITELY and PROMINENT WRITERS of the moment, whose characters are distinctly developed and pronounced. The honor of bringing forward first-rate genius into public notice and favor, and serving as a sort of prime conductor to elect flashes which send their light through the whole Union, has become quite habitual to the lady's book. The original idea of illustrating American history by views of battle-grounds was still eagerly pursued in a style that defied all competition. The not less brilliant idea of illustrating the HEROISM OF AMERICAN LADIES by a series of engravings and narratives which will serve to place in their true light the patriotism, devotion and self-sacrifice of our female ancestors in the revolutionary war, and especially called THE HEROIC AGE OF AMERICA, is also original with us. Other incidents of revolutionary history will also furnish subjects for the embellishments of this coming year. Among the specially already executed are,

The reception of the news of Lexington fight—by Darley—Marion's entertainment of the British officer—by White—Faulkner's gallantry—by Robert—The storming of red bank fort—by Hamilton—Coast Donop's monument—by Hamilton—The battle of Concord bridge—by Frankenstein—The Germantown battle-ground—by Russell Smith—Framton battle-ground—by Hamilton, with a large number of others, arranged but not yet sent in by the artists. Another new and striking feature we now propose for the first time in public, having had artists engaged for twelve months in working it out. Our readers will please to note the date of the announcement of this feature. It will consist of characteristic scenes, views, in which the peculiarities of the scenery are constant and various of every state and territory of the Union will be presented in succession. This idea will of course be claimed by others, but our readers will not forget to mark dates. Our proffered premium of $20 for the best painting of a subject illustrative of American female patriotism has already brought a splendid array of talent into the field. The award has been postponed for another month out of courtesy to artists who have pictures still upon their easels. The premium of $50 for the best engraving will of course bring forward a series of first-rate steel plates. In addition to all these advantages, the privilege of engraving the premium pictures at the apollo association will serve to form a key-stone to our splendid series of embellishment. The public know our literary contributors who for they have long been in the habit of recognizing them as the leading writers of America in magazine literature—that literature which excites from the ablest pens their most piquant and brilliant contributions, at the same time that it condenses into a compact and pleasing form, the moral, the useful and the solid in narrative, sketch and essay writing. Merit only. It is only necessary to say that in this department we have Sarina said and Warren, and each of them has several plates in hand; we shall, we think, have one in each number next year. Authentic fashion plates. Godley's Lady's Book is the only Magazine that can be relied upon for the real fashions. Our translators suffer nothing of merit and interest, which is sent to the 400 of the Lady's Book in the Literature of GERMANY, FRANCE, ITALY, and other nations of the European continent to escape them. Among many novel features in the literary way which are now in the course of preparation, for well-known reasons we choose to announce but one in this connection, viz: The heroic legends of America, many of which have just reached us from the distant regions which were formerly the scenes of border wars and hunting expeditions, and where the exploits of the famous Indian killers and hunters still furnish themes for purely national ballads, songs and stories to their children and grandchildren by the water's side. It is after necessary for us to give the names of our writers; previous numbers will show that they are the best in America.

Chancery District Court Of the State of Mississippi at Holly Springs.

AT RULES, the 1, Monday of August 1845. Samuel Jones Jr. vs. John Allison et al

Upon opening the matters of this Bill, it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that Samuel Arbuckle, Thomas G. Allison, William A. Williams, John Allison, Alexander H. Poston, John H. Poston, and William H. Stodtrart defendants; thereto, are not inhabitants of the state of Mississippi, but reside beyond the limits thereof, so that the ordinary process of this court cannot be served on them, and that the heirs of Josiah Gillespie dec'd, and Jabez Butler dec'd, defendants thereto, are unknown to the complainants;—

Therefore it is ordered that unless the said Samuel Arbuckle, Thomas G. Allison, William A. Williams, John Allison, Alexander H. Poston, John H. Poston, William H. Stodtrart, and the unknown heirs of the said Josiah Gillespie and Jabez Butler dec'd, appear before the Vice Chancellor, at the court room in Holly Springs, on the first Monday of January next, and plead, answer or demur to complainant's Bill, the several allegations thereof, as to them, will be taken for confessed, and such order and decree made thereon as shall appear equitable and just.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be inserted in "The Lynx" a newspaper published in the town of Panola, Mississippi, once a week for two months, successively.

JAMES C. ALDERSON, Clerk. ABSTRACT OF BILL.

Charges. That on the 11th December 1839, the firm of Talbot Jones & Co., consisting of John Jones, since dec'd, and complainant, recovered a judgment in the United States District Court, for the Northern District of Mississippi, against defendant John Allison for $694 49-100 debt and damages besides costs.

That about the 16th October, only a few weeks, prior to the recovery of said judgment, said Allison, fraudulently, to evade the execution of the same, made an assignment by a pretended deed of trust, to Asa Love, of all the remaining property therein named, which he had previously, to effect the same object, smuggled off and conveyed to Texas, the said property to be made for the benefit of certain real or pretended creditors therein named, that among other debts, named and pretended to be secured by said deed, is one mentioned as being due to the Mississippi Union Bank for $2000 upon a note in which the said Allison & John Rayburn, are the securities only for Samuel A. Gillespie who is principal, that the intention of said Allison apparently upon the face of said deed, so far as regards that note, is not to secure the payment of the same to said Bank, but not to have said Rayburn molested in any way on account thereof, that there was no consideration moving from said Rayburn to said Allison, and that said deed is void in other respects, has no binding force, so far as regards said debt of $2000, that the principal in said note is solvent, and amply able to pay said debt if not already due, that said Rayburn is exposed to no danger of molestation, having been for several years wholly insolvent, many of the other debts mentioned in said deed, have been since the execution thereof paid off, that Josiah Gillespie, one of the witnesses to said deed, is one of the creditors therein named, that proof of said deed was made by the witnesses, there being but one other besides said Gillespie, that the certificate of proof in other respects, is not such as the statute requires for admission to record, that said deed was improperly admitted to record and operates as no bar to the lien of said judgment, upon the property therein named, that portion of the property pretended to be conveyed by said deed is a section of land therein described, having about 160 acres cleared with valuable improvements thereon, defendant Love the Trustee, came immediately into possession thereof, and has occupied and enjoyed the same ever since the execution of said deed, under an agreement to pay rent therefor, at the rate of $3 50 per acre, that he also took possession of all the personal property in said deed specified, together with all the crop of the year 1839, raised by said Allison, which he was to dispose of and account for as trustee, that the whole amount of debts mentioned in said deed, besides that of $2000, to the Mississippi Union Bank is between $1400 and $15 00, some of which are already paid, that it was not the honest and bona fide intention of said Allison, to secure the payment of the debts, mentioned in said deed, but to delay, hinder and defraud other just creditors one of whom is complainant.

PRAYER. That said deed of trust be decreed to be null and void and of no effect and set aside, so that complainant with all other creditors may stand upon an equal footing, and his judgment have its unobstructed course, but if it should appear that said deed is not fraudulent, as to the rights of complainant, nor otherwise defective, and that the same ought to have its full force and effect, whether as to all the debts therein named, or whether only as to all except said $2000, then that said Love Trustee, be decreed to execute said trust, by selling all of said property remaining unsold including said land and liquidate and discharge said debts, with the proceeds of said sale, and pay any balance that may be left, to satisfaction of complainant's judgment and for general relief.

JAMES C. ALDERSON, Clerk. C. & H. R. Miller, Sol'rs
