But for the work of American Red Cross agents in all regions of Poland during the last twelve months, hundreds of thousands of people in that country today would be under the sod, victims of hunger, disease and exposure. The job in Poland is one of tremendous proportions and cannot be abandoned for many months to come. Here is a typical scene: A Red Cross woman and children are fed daily.

MOVING OF THE DEAD.

During the Civil War hundreds and thousands of our men were killed on the battle fields of Shiloh, Seven Pines, the Wilderness, Bull Run, Missionary Ridge, Vicksburg, Chickamauga, in fact all over the South and North. At the Magnolia Cemetery in Mobile there are more than four or five hundred Union soldiers buried. Each gave to the soldier's name and the command that he belonged to. Now to my knowledge I have never heard of one of them being removed to his birth place, North or South. No, the Union graves are decorated annually in Mobile the same as the Confederate dead are, so it could be in France or England the same as in the South. My idea is to let the dead rest in peace.

FLORENCE BULLARD.

(Departed this life Sept. 18, 1904, sixteen years ago.)
My love is still with you—
dear one in your sleep,
And though you are absent
my virgils I keep;
And sometimes I think as my thoughts are with you,
I hear your voice calling,
so tender and sweet.

The years in their passing can never erase
From out of my vision
your sweet loving face;
And when the stars twinkle
at night in the sky,
My heart fills with gladness,
I know you are nigh.

The world may forget you,
but deep in my heart
Your love is still living,
of my being a part;
And some day when sorrows
are faded and gone,
A sweet kiss will greet you,
My own darling girl.

BILBO WILL OPPOSE VARDAMAN FOR SENATE.

Jackson, Miss.—Former Gov. Theodore G. Bilbo publicly announced on Wednesday night that he would be a candidate for the United States Senate in 1922.

In making his announcement Mr. Bilbo said:
"I will make the race if it is to be against James K. Vardaman alone. If it is a three or four-cornered race I will not be a candidate. I can beat Vardaman, but I realize that I must begin to form my campaign now."

National issues would evidently play a great part in the campaign between the two ex-governors. Senator Vardaman has waged warfare against the acts of the administration.

When people laugh at what you say, it is a joke. But when they laugh at you, you are the joke.
