Bucklen's Arnica Salve for Burns. Adv.

Judge J. I. Ballenger, circuit judge and candidate to succeed himself passed through here Saturday on his way home to Gulfport from Lumberton, where he had just closed the July term of the George county court. It is said the judges made many new friends during this term of court in George county.

R. N. Elliott, of Emory, Va., who has been teaching school at the Emory and Henry College, one of the oldest educational institutions in the South, being established in 1836, by the old tutors of which it gets its name, stopped over for a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crane enroute to Clark University, Worcester, Mass., where he will take a course in education.

House Party.

Mr. Horace B. Everitt, Jr., of Mobile, on his weekly home visit last Saturday was accompanied by a number of his friends, of the young business men of Mobile, for a house party at the beach home of attorney H. B. Everitt, Sr. The party consisted of Messrs. C. P. Burnett, John B. Posey, Jr., Thos. V. Raines, Allen W. DeVos, Aubrey R. Raines and John T. Crow, who were joined during Sunday by Mr. John W. Steber.

Misses Lois and Bessie Everitt with their charming guest, Miss Mildred Patrick, of Laurel, were assisted in entertaining the young men by Miss Lola Lewis and her popular and accomplished guest, Miss Edie Lee Galloway, of Jackson. The young people were given the freedom of the commodious Everitt home, and with bathing in the Bay, music and songs and the usual social diversions of a house party, the city heat and noise and dust were forgotten in a round of restful merriment. The young men returned to their homes Sunday night lull in their praise of Pascagoula's sea breezes, scenery and comfort.

Miscellaneous Shower.

Among the social events of the past week was a miscellaneous shower tendered Mrs. C. O. Brady, formerly Miss Theodocher Ross, by her friends Mrs. J. G. Dillion and Miss Annie Savage.

The color scheme was carried out in pink and white very artistically arranged for the occasion and in one corner of the room was a chair very prettily decorated in the same color. The bride occupied the chair while she received many useful and pretty gifts and also congratulations of her many friends present.

The punch table which was very attractive, same being displayed in open air, and punch served by Miss Savage and Mrs. Parsley. Other refreshments were also served.

Mr. and Mrs. Brady were very much surprised on their arrival here, as they only came to spend a day with the bride's parents and left the same evening for their home in Mississippi City.

Death Of R. L. Pankey.

News reached here Friday morning from Mobile of the death of Mr. R. L. Pankey, formerly a resident of this place, from an attack of acute indigestion.

Mr. Pankey was 39 years of age at the time of his death, and his sudden demise was a shock to the community.

He had been in Mobile in the barber profession for the past seven years, and had a host of friends here.

The body was taken in charge by the Greenshaw Undertaking Company and was shipped to Pascagoula Saturday where it was interred in the family burying ground at Macpelah cemetery; Rev. W. W. Moore, of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. W. D. Matthis, officiating in the last sad rites.

He is survived by three brothers, J. H. Pankey, of Mobile; Charles and Frank Pankey, of Pascagoula, and one sister, Mrs. T. S. Manghan, of Mobile. The pallbearers were Messrs. Ollie Rolis, J. W. Terry, George Davis, Valain DeJean, F. D. Becht and Peter Blanchard.

A Painful Injury.

Saturday, while at work on the government docks across the river, Mr. Irving Cacko painfully fractured his right hand by a piling accidently falling on it. He was taken to the Palace Pharmacy immediately after the accident, where Dr. W. R. Kell dressed the wound. At the last report he is doing nicely.

Harder To Get.

"What's the matter, daughter?" "Father, I want a duke." "That can be arranged, my dear. I was afraid you might want a baseball pitcher."

Rosa Lumber Plant at Picayune Destroyed by Fire.
Picayune, Miss., July 12.—The sawmill and boiler house of the Rosa Lumber Company at this place was burned this afternoon. The fire originated near the center of the mill and spread rapidly, being fanned by a strong wind from the east. Almost the entire population of the town turned out to fight the fire, and with great effort, aided by a favorable wind, saved the planing mill, dry kiln and the lumber sheds in which were stacked more than a million feet of lumber.

Death Of Dr. A. L. Morris.

Mr. W. J. Morris, of this city, was called to Gulfport Monday on account of the sudden death of his brother, Dr. Alexander L. Morris, which occurred at his home on West Beach at 4:45 Monday morning.

Dr. Morris had not been seriously ill and his death was a shock to his family and relatives. At about 4 o'clock in the morning his wife was awakened by gasping sounds coming from the doctor. She went quickly to his aid, and discovered that he had been stricken with heart failure, medical aid was sent for, but to no avail, as he succumbed before the physician arrived.

Dr. Morris was born in Madison County near Canton, fifty-four years ago, and moved to the coast eight years ago. Since then he acquired a large medical practice and became prominent in social circles. His widow was before her marriage Miss Annie B. Chambers, of Louisiana. He is survived by his wife and four children, Mrs. A. B. Massell, of Canton; Mrs. D. A. McDavid, T. E. Morris, Jr., and A. L. Morris, Jr., of Gulfport. Besides his children, Dr. Morris leaves a brother, W. J. Morris, of Pascagoula, and several grandchildren.

Dr. Morris was a prominent and faithful member of the Baptist church being one of the deacons. The deacons acted as pallbearers, and the Gulfport physician honorary pallbearers.

The remains were interred in the Evergreen Cemetery at Gulfport. Rev. R. L. Gillis, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiating.

Efforts to spring the general State campaign on the heels of the termination of the Bilbo case seems to have been ineffectual, and while there will be outbursts from time to time, they will be disjointed and sporadic. The public mind does not seem to be ready for a premature opening of the State campaign, and the politicians realize this.

Greaves of Gulfport, who, when she is licensed, will be the first woman lawyer in Harrison county. The other applicants are J. H. Tendall of Gulfport and J. W. Randolph of Pass Christian.

Catholic Church Dedicated.
Biloxi, Miss., July 12.—The dedication of the Catholic church for negroes, Mother of Sorrows, took place Sunday with a well arranged programme. Bishop John E. Gunn, of Natchez, delivered the sermon. There were present large numbers from coast cities to attend the ceremonies. This church and priest's home were recently completed under the direction of Father S. J. Kelly, S. J. S., who will be pastor.

Indians Are Preparing For The Great Sun Dance.
Clinton, Okla., July 12.—The Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians are making preparations for their annual sun dances which the government has attempted to prohibit. The tribal heads today announced that the Cheyennes will dance near Cantonment July 18, and the Arapahoes near Calumet a few days later. Because of governmental protest the Indians have done away with the flesh cutting that was formerly a feature of the dance.

NOT WISE TO TAKE CALOMEL

Dodson's Liver Tonic is just as sure in results and always safe, pleasant in taste and has no bad after-effects. As a remedy for a torpid liver Calomel has more than met its match in Dodson's Liver Tonic. This medicine does not roughly force the liver on to perform its work. It acts gently but surely.

Calomel depends for its power upon exciting the liver to do more work, and often the liver is too weak to stand such treatment, and after taking Calomel you are as a result sometimes worse off than before.

Dodson's Liver Tonic cannot cause any of the dangerous effects that often follow the use of Calomel. It is entirely vegetable and pleasant to the taste, and is suitable for children and grown people.

Get a large bottle for fifty cents at McVea Young's drug store under the guarantee that if it doesn't satisfy you that it perfectly takes the place of Calomel you will be given your money back with a smile right at the store where you bought Dodson's medicine. Adv.

Advice To Girls.
Mr. Havelock Ellis, the English writer and suffragist, said at a girl graduates' luncheon at Sherry's in New York:
"I wish to advise you girls never to marry a man to reform him. To marry a man to reform him—that is the same as putting your finger in the fire to extinguish it."

Mississippi Boys Named For West Point.
Washington, July 13.—The war department announced the designation of candidates for appointment for admission to the military academy at West Point at the beginning of the academic year 1916. The list includes: Benjamin N. Ward, Comox; Curtis R. Welborn, Hattiesburg; Samuel P. Walker, Jr., alternate, Pascagoula; Knox Coulter, alternate, Collins.

Clean Up Day For City.
Mayor's Proclamation Designating Days for Cleaning Up the Scattered Wards.
Whereas, the City of Pascagoula, has by ordinance established certain dates for cleaning up the city, and whereas, the existing ordinances of the City impose on the property owners and householders of said City the duty of keeping the premises in a clean and sanitary condition, under penalty of fine for failure so to do, and the conservation of the public health requires that the City be kept in a clean and sanitary condition; now
Therefore, I, John Y. Morgan, Mayor of the City of Pascagoula, mindful of my duties and obligations as such, do now proclaim the following days and dates as clean up days for the several wards of the city to-wit:
Tuesday, July 14, for wards 3 and 4.
Wednesday, July 15, for ward 2.
Thursday, July 16, for ward 1.
On those dates property owners and householders are to thoroughly clean their premises, burning such rubbish and trash as possible and placing the remainder in convenient receptacles on the sidewalks so that it can be gathered up by the city wagons and hauled off.
Given under my hand this, 2nd day of July 1914.
J. Y. MORGAN, Mayor.

Schooner Seized.
The schooner J. W. B. Curet, which plies between here and New Orleans was seized the first part of the week at Biloxi by revenue officers for importing booze. She escaped later and made her way to Pascagoula, where she was apprehended by Sheriff Fred L. Lindinger, who took the crew in custody and tied up the boat.

'Tis Fun To Be An Editor.
"Tis fun to be an editor;
And see the folk about;
And when we see good items,
Take shares, and cut them out;
And write up editorials,
With essays bold and warm;
With forecasts for the future,
Foretelling every storm.

"Tis fun to be an editor,
But how can this be done,
When printers want their checks,
And the editor has none!
And there's praise enough in spare,
How can we pay the printer,
When our pocket book is bare.

There's fun in being editor,
When subscriber's names we list
And paying advertisements,
Send cash a rolling list;
We cannot run a business
Whether selling print or honey,
Unless our friends are liberal,
And send along the money.

There's glory for the editor
But he's apt to come to smash,
If folks give empty honor,
Without enough hard cash.
The Gospel is free, and knowledge
That gives the world a lift,
But you must pay the carrier,
Who brings this priceless gift.

CLIFFORD E. DAVIS,

Stranger Takes His Life.
Bay St. Louis, Miss., July 13.—A stranger who made his appearance here yesterday, apparently without funds, committed suicide at an early hour this morning by drowning. It was learned from a letter found in his pocket, written by his mother that his name was Louis Wilke and his home Petersburg, Russia.

To Keep Room Fragrant.
You will find any room delightfully freshened if you will fill a bowl full of boiling water, then pour on the top a few drops of oil of lavender. Leave the bowl in the room for a few minutes. This will be appreciated especially by those whose dining room is near the kitchen. When used just before dinner is served it counteracts kitchen odors.

Congential.
Benevolent Old Lady (to Weary Will He, whom she finds resting in the shade of a telephone pole)—"Alan, my poor wayfarer, traveling through this vale of tears! What has caused you to become discouraged and abandon the race so early in life?" Weary Will He—"Tire trouble, lady."

Credit and Discredit.
Too often a man who hopes his son will grow up to be a credit to him was to furnish all the credit himself.

PRIZES FOR PUZZLE SOLVERS.
Times Picayune's Songs Lovers Picture Game.
The Times Picayune of New Orleans is offering a number of the cash prizes for the solution of 77 puzzle pictures, comprising its Song Lovers Picture Game.

This is one of the most interesting features offered by any paper in this territory for a number of years, and a great many people of Louisiana and Mississippi are at the present time playing the game.

A picture is published in each issue of the paper, representing the title of some song. A list of these songs is gotten up in catalog form. One does not have to know anything about songs or the words of songs to solve the pictures. All that is necessary is to get the picture and the catalog, and then look through the catalog until you find the title that, in your opinion, best fits the picture.

One thousand dollars is offered to the person sending in the most correct answers to the 77 pictures, and twenty-five hundred dollars in cash is the total amount of all the prizes originally offered.

In order to stimulate interest in the picture game, and to add new subscribers, the management of the Times Picayune has offered to double the amount of any prize won by any person who sends in a new subscriber paid six months in advance.
