TEXAS.
War Department, Dec. 19, 1837.
GENERAL ORDER.
FROM information received at this department, it appears that many persons in this Republic, and also in the United States of America, are wearing the Uniform and Military badge of the Army and Navy of Texas, without the warrant of a commission from the Government, and have thus by licentious and unprincipled conduct, and many impositions, practised upon the friends of Texas abroad, reflected disgrace upon the country and the service which they represent—
It therefore becomes my duty to pronounce all such persons acting without authority from this department, or by order of the President of this Republic, IMPOSTERS, and it is hoped they will be treated as such.

No person within the limits of Texas or elsewhere is authorized to wear the insignia of an officer in the Texian service, without a special order, or permission to that effect, from this or the Naval Department of this Government.
By order of the President,
Signed, WM. FISHER,
Acting Sec'y of War.

THE WESTERN MONTHLY MAGAZINE AND LITERARY JOURNAL,
CONDUCTED by W. D. Gallagher and J. B. Marshall. The editor of "Western Literary Journal" having, in connection with Jas. B. Marshall, Esq., become proprietor of the "Western Monthly Magazine," the two works have been united, and will hereafter be published, simultaneously, at Cincinnati and Louisville. Every arrangement, being now made for issuing the Magazine punctually, and in a style equal to its Eastern contemporaries, it is trusted that the union here announced will meet the approbation of the patrons generally of both publications. The readers of the "Journal" will find increased attractions in the work, from the contributions of the correspondents of the "Magazine," and those of the "Magazine" will not only find the same, from the writings of the correspondents of the "Journal," but will also get a larger amount of reading matter than they have hitherto received. Not in the spirit of boasting, but to give the patrons of the "Magazine and Journal" an idea of what they may expect, from month to month, as the numbers appear, the following list of occasional correspondents and regular contributors, is given:

The Western Monthly Magazine and Literary Journal, is published during the first week of each month. Its general contents are Tales, Essays, Poetry, Sketches of American Scenery, Character and manners, Reviews and Literary Notices of New Works in the several departments of Literature and Science, Biographical Sketches, particularly of the Pioneers of the West, Narratives of Border of Adventures, Statistical Papers, &c. &c. Each number of the Magazine contains from 72 to 80 octavo pages, and the year is divided into two volumes of about 450 pages each.
TERMS.—$3.00 per annum, payable at the time of subscribing—$3.50, if payment be delayed six months—$4.00, if delayed over that time. Number one of the New Series of this work, has just been published.

College of Teachers.
THE seventh annual meeting of the Western Literary Institute and College of profession of Teachers, will be held in Cincinnati, during the first week of October next, commencing on Monday, 2nd.
A series of Lectures will be delivered, and a number of Reports presented by committees, appointed at the last annual meeting. It is expected that the coming session will be one of no ordinary interest. In addition to the customary Reports, much interesting information may be expected on the state of education, both at home and abroad, from professor Calvin E. Stowe recently returned from Europe, and Samuel Lewis, Superintendent of Common Schools in Ohio.
The Western Literary Institute is designed to embrace Teachers and other friends of education throughout the South and West. All such persons are therefore, desired to consider this advertisement as a personal invitation to attend. It is also desirable that all literary associations annually send delegates; and, when practicable, reports upon the state of education within their respective limits.
Editors throughout the Mississippi Valley, are requested to give the above a few insertions, and upon forwarding their address, they will receive a copy of the Transactions, soon as published.
