JAS. H. CULLEN & Co. Commission, Receiving, Forwarding and Produce Merchants, LOWER LANDING, Yazoo City, Miss. The Imported Stallion,

RABBIT CATCHER. THIS splendid young stallion will stand the present season (commencing on the 15th inst., and ending on the 15th of July) at my Plantation in Yazoo County, 13 miles from Yazoo City and 4 miles from Higginbotham's Ferry on Big Black; and will be let to mares at $35 the season, or $50 to insure a mare to be with foal.

PEDIGREE. RABBIT CATCHER was bred by the late Sir Thomas Stanley, Bart., formerly one of the most eminent Turfmen in England. He was foaled in 1837, and was got by Bird Catcher, dam by Trump, grand-dam by Williamson's Ditto out of Young Rachel by Voltigeur;—g. g. grand-dam by Highflyer; g. g. g. grand-dam by Syphon; g. g. g. g. grand-dam by Regulus—Simp—Cottingham Warlock Galloway—Saake, &c.

PEDIGREE. Bird Catcher was by St. Patrick (winner of the St. Ledger), dam Hedley Mare (sister to Luss), the dam also of Birdlime, Pick Picket, Jack Spigot, and other capital runners;—grand-dam Jessy by Totteridge, her dam Cracker by Highflyer out of Nutcracker by Matchem.

Trump was by Dick Andrews, his dam

by Gohanna out of Flaxinella by Trenham; Dick Andrews was by Joe Andrews, he by English Eclipse.

St. Patrick was by Walton, he by Sir Peter Teazle, he by Highflyer, he by Herod, he by Tartar—Patiner—Jigg—Byerly Turk, &c.

Williamson's Ditto was by Walton out of Arethusa by Dunganon, he out of Aspasia by English Eclipse.

Then which, a richer or purer pedigree, no horse in America can boast.

Performances. RABBIT CATCHER, in 1839, then 2 years old, won at Liverpool the two year old stakes, seven subscribers of 30 sovereigns each; and in the Autumn Meeting, 1839, at Liverpool, he won the Knowlesy Stakes of 30 sovereigns each, 3 subscribers. In 1840, then 3 years old, Rabbit Catcher won the Stand Cup at Chester, beating Shark and Lady Abbess, two miles and a distance.

Rabbit Catcher was withdrawn from the course at 8 years old, in consequence of the death of his owner, and has not since been trained. His grand-sire (St. Patrick) won the St. Ledger, and his sire Bird Catcher ran second for that great stake in 1832, against over a hundred subscribed competitors.

Rabbit Catcher complained a little last spring, owing, perhaps, to the voyage he had just made, which was in part the reason his services were not then offered to the public; but he is now in fine health and vigor, and with confidence offer him to a discerning public as a race-horse of the first order of merit, both as to form, pedigree and performance.

It is the opinion of eminent turfmen (in which I fully concur), that a more promising Young Stallion has not crossed the Atlantic for many years.

I am provided with excellent Pasturage, Rye-Lots, Stables, &c., and will feed and take special care of all mares sent to the horse, but will not be liable for escapes or accidents. ROBERT H. CAGE, Yazoo County, 15th Feb'y, 1843.

CLIMAX OF Newspaper Enterprise. REPLICATION OF BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY! At only 12 1-2 Cents per Copy! THE subscriber, determined to keep pace with the progress of the times, and to lead the van of newspaper enterprise, has made arrangements for COMMENCING IMMEDIATELY the REPLICATION OF THE MOST POPULAR BRITISH MAGAZINE of the day, in a style fully equal to that of the majority of the reprints, AND AT A PRICE WHICH NO PERIODICAL CAN BE OFFERED. The work referred to is Bentley's Miscellany, a magazine which, from the moment of its first issue has received the support and applause of thousands of readers on both sides of the Atlantic.—It is work sustained by the contributions of some of the most brilliant writers of the age; popular in its character and varied in its contents, which has ranked, as Dr. Hensler says, among its contributors, Lord Byron, Dickens, Ashworth, Hood, S. C. Hall, Lady Morgan, Mrs. Hall, Emma Blanchard—and in short, almost all the distinguished authors of England. It would be needless to expatiate upon the merits of BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY, for they are recognized here almost as universally as in Great Britain. Articles from its pages have been copied extensively in our papers, and the American reprint of Bentley has enjoyed a very extensive circulation. But there are thousands in this nation—magazine and newspaper readers, who cannot afford to pay the price asked for the only American reprint in the market and moreover a delay occurs in the republication alluded to, which is far from satisfactory to the public and which our facilities enable us to obviate. We propose to issue WITHIN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS AFTER THE ARRIVAL OF EACH STEAMSHIP OF THE CONRAD LINE, A REPLICATION OF BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY, in the large octavo form adopted generally by the American publishers of the cheap editions of the English novels, printed on good paper and type, with a neat cover, so that publishers may bind it in the same volume with the publications of the "Brother Jonathan" and other offices. The terms will be as follows: Subscription price for the year, $1 50; two copies for $3 00; 4 copies $5 00; copies 12 cents. Each number of the Miscellany contains over 100 pages in the English edition, and the London price is about $7 00 a year. The vast amount of reading matter and the ASTONISHING CHEAPNESS of our reprint, will be apparent on a moment's consideration. The subscriber boldly challenges the publisher of a parallel to his present enterprise, in which, notwithstanding the outlay involved, and the exertions requisite to carry it into effect, he embarks unhesitatingly in the full confidence of the support and approbation of the public. THE FIRST or JANUARY NUMBER will be issued from this office in a few hours after the arrival of the steamship. The postage on this reprint will be only 24 cents under 100 miles, and 4 cents over 100 miles. GEO. ROBERTS, Proprietor of the Boston Notion. This cheap reprint of Bentley's Miscellany, we shall probably follow with regular reprint of Blackwood and other prominent English Magazines, in a uniform style with our reprint of Bentley.

READING FOR ALL! Cheapest Family Newspaper in the Union. THE NEW WORLD, EDITED BY PARK BENJAMIN. NEW VOLUME, OCTAVO EDITION, COMMENCING JANUARY 7, 1843. TERMS, THREE DOLLARS A YEAR!

IN announcing the Prospectus of the SIXTH VOLUME OF THE NEW WORLD, the proprietors cannot omit the expression of their thanks to their numerous readers and friends, for the liberal encouragement afforded to their enterprise thus far. Neither trouble nor expense will be spared in rendering the ensuing volumes worthy of the high reputation which the New World has acquired, and of being the BEST AND CHEAPEST LITERARY PERIODICAL IN THE UNITED STATES!

The change of form which will take place at the commencement of the next volume, will be a great improvement; as it will be far more convenient for reading, binding, and preservation, without the least diminishing the quantity of matter, or number of articles given—since there will be thirty-two large royal octavo pages given weekly, instead of the sixteen quarto pages, as at present. This there will be two beautiful semi-annual volumes of 800 pages, adapted to the shelves of modern book cases, besides combining all the advantages of a newspaper and magazine; and each number will contain more matter than any one of the monthlies in this country, at only one-fourth the price; and therefore, in this respect, equal, if not superior, to any American Magazine. Our materials for one next year are excellent and copious; they shall be used with no sparing hand. Our pages will be enriched by admirable original Tales and Translations, by the most popular American writers, besides the richest selections from the periodical press of Great Britain. In correspondence with the different parts of the world will be continued. "Germany in its present Literary, Social, Political and Religious condition," by Francis J. Grund, will be begun in the first number. It is an original work, written by the author during his late residence in Germany, expressly for the New World.—Mr. Grund had great opportunities for observation and research, and his talents as a writer our readers need not be informed. His articles will appear every fortnight.

A new "Tale of English Life and Manners," by Charles Dickens, will be commenced in January, with all the popular Periodical Literature of Great Britain.

The terms of the New World will also be greatly enhanced by the Travelling Sketches, First Impressions, and Letters, which will be furnished from time to time by James Aldrich, Esq., as the junior Editor, who is now travelling in Europe. Mr. Aldrich being perfectly acquainted with the manners in which this journal is conducted, will be able to impart more entertainment than could any other correspondent. Mr. Aldrich will complete our arrangements in England and France for the earliest possible transmission of every new publication.

The proprietors can safely promise, that the New World will be a much more valuable and interesting miscellany than it has hitherto been; although the limited force of the press has prevented it the best newspaper of its kind in the country.

In addition to the above enumerated features, giving interest and value to our paper, we will add, that, as heretofore, we shall continue to embellish our columns with some of the most splendid Engravings on Wood which can be produced by the best artists in this country or Europe, and thus render still more attractive, by pictorial representations, the various articles which are written or selected for the gratification of our readers. In this respect alone the New World has never been excelled.

THE TERMS Will remain as heretofore—THREE DOLLARS per annum, in advance; four copies for Ten Dollars, and in that proportion for a larger number.—Postmasters will kindly frank letters containing remittances.

Every Postmaster, or any other individual, who will obtain five new subscribers, and remit $5 current money, free of postage, shall receive a free copy of the New World one year. Is there a Post Office in the United States or Canada that cannot easily furnish this number?

A GREAT REVOLUTION has been created in the book-publishing business by the proprietors of the New World, who were the first to introduce the system of printing cheap editions of all popular works, so as to bring within the means of every family in the country works which, in any other form would cost from $1 to $5 each, in the most trifling sum. To this enterprise we have given the expressive designation of BOOKS FOR THE PEOPLE, which truly expresses the character and design of our publications. These consist of Biography, Rhetoric, Scientific and Standard Works, by the most popular and approved authors of this country and Europe—such as Bulwer, James, Dickens, Mrs. Ellis, Miss Strickland, &c. The plan embraces also the best and most popular ORIGINAL NOVELS, by American authors; thus fostering and encouraging the native talent of the country, and giving copyright works at 12 1/2 to 25 cts. each, which have never before been sold at less than $1 to $2. These Extras are issued as often as twice, and sometimes four times, in each and every month, and are sent to all parts of the United States, at simple newspaper postage.

Subscribers remitting $1, or over, in current money, postage paid, will receive the Extras as fast as issued. The best way is to remit $5 for the New World and Extras, which will pay for one year of the former and 32 numbers of the latter, provided there be no discount on the money.

Every Postmaster in the Union, or other person, acting as agent for the Extra New World, and remitting $1, or over, free of postage, for each and every work, shall receive a gratis copy of every such work.

In this way they have it in their power to obtain all our "Books for the People," at the cost of a little personal exertion only.

Every Bookseller in the Union would find it profitable to keep supplies of our cheap works for sale, the demand for which, already large, is constantly increasing. Many hundreds of Booksellers are at present engaged in the newspaper book business, and by increased sales, are making more money than in the old way.

Remember, these Extras are sent by mail at newspaper postage, and thus a new work is in the hands of its agents and subscribers in the farthest corner of the country, WITHIN THIRTY DAYS AFTER ITS PUBLICATION IN LONDON, when in book form it would not reach them in months.

TERMS.—The Extras are issued in single, double, and triple numbers, at 12 1/2 to 25 cts. each, or $1 to $16 per hundred, to agents. No work, whatever its cost in London, is charged higher than 25 cts. in the New World edition.

All letters must enclose the cash for the order, and be either post-paid or free, addressed to J. WINCHESTER, 30 Ann-st., N. Y. December, 1842.

National Magazine OR LITERATURE, ART and FASHION. Graham's Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine. PROSPECTUS FOR 1843.

EDITORS: GEORGE R. GRAHAM & R. W. GRISWOLD. REGULAR CONTRIBUTORS: J. FENIMORE COOPER, RICH'D H. DANA, WM. CULLEN BRYANT, H. W. LONGFELLOW, T. C. GRATTAN, CHS. F. HOFFMAN.

GRAHAM'S is the oldest and most popular of the American Literary Magazines. The number for January, 1843, will be the first of the year. Its long and universally successful career, from its commencement with a few hundred subscribers, until the present time, when it has a circulation of fifty thousand copies a month, is perhaps as good an evidence of its great and increasing merit as the publisher has in his power to offer. To his old subscribers, he trusts no assurances are necessary of his determination to maintain its present ascendancy over all the rival periodicals of the country. The engagement, during the past year, of such men as KAYNE, COOPER, DANA, LONGFELLOW, HOFFMAN, MASON, &c., of high reputation in the literary world, as regular contributors, in addition to a previous list embracing many of the first names in the nation, is a sufficient guarantee that the work will continue to be the principal medium of communication between the best authors and the public. Among the attractions of the thirty-fifth volume, will be several TALES by Mr. J. F. Cooper, Mr. Grattan, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Herbert, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Clavers, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Ellet and Mrs. Stephens; POEMS by Mr. Bryant, Mr. Dana, Mr. Longfellow, Mr. Stock, Mrs. Sara Smith, Mr. Ogden, and Mrs. Sigourney; ESSAYS by Mr. Fay, Mr. Tucker, Mr. Jones, Mr. Poe, &c. &c.

[Here follow the names of about forty distinguished writers, who, it is said, will be contributors to this volume; but which we have not room to insert.]

SPLENDID EMBELLISHMENTS. In the department of Engravings, it is very well known that Graham's Magazine has far surpassed any periodical work ever published in this or any country. The highest ambition of rival publishers seems thus far to have been to maintain a respectable imitation of the numerous costly and beautiful works of art with which the successive numbers of this journal have been graced. In the course of the succeeding volumes, many important new features will be introduced. Sartain and Saff, the most celebrated MEZZOTINT ENGRAVERS in the United States, and equals of the best in Europe, will continue to furnish their exquisite productions; and Rawdon, Wright & Hatch, A. L. Dick, G. Parker, Gimprede, Jackson, Jones, and others of New York; and Dodson, Welch & Waters, Tucker, and others of Philadelphia,—all among the most eminent ART ENGRAVERS of the present century, have been engaged to furnish a succession of highly finished steel engravings, superior to any that have hitherto appeared in periodicals. Among the pictures that will be engraved for the volume in 1843, are several ORIGINAL PAINTINGS, by Ingham, Inman, Cole, Thompson, Freeman, Frazier, and other distinguished artists. The American periodicals have hitherto contained, save in a very few instances, only engravings copied from foreign prints. The publisher of Graham's Magazine will be the first to reform the practice, and to make his work strictly original in its embellishments as well as in its literary contents.

OUR PORTRAIT GALLERY. One of the new features of the coming volumes will be the introduction of portraits of the contributors to Graham's Magazine, which, of course, will include nearly all of the eminent writers of the day. The thirty-fifth volume will include, from the hands of Parker, Dodson, and others, portraits (engraved in the highest style of the art) of Mr. Cooper, Prof. Longfellow, Maria del Occidente, Mr. Sigourney, Miss Sedgwick, Mrs. Sara Smith, Mrs. Embury, and several others—all from paintings executed expressly for the purpose.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT. WILL continue to embrace notes on current literature, &c., and reviews of all new American and foreign works of general interest or value. The assistance of Graham's Magazine are acknowledged in all parts of this country to be superior in accuracy, honesty and independence to those of any contemporary. Indeed, while a majority of the monthly and quarterly journals have become mere advertising mediums for the bookellers, in which every thing is printed indiscriminately, this periodical is looked upon as a just and discriminating arbiter between authors and readers, in which both have implicit confidence.

TERMS.—Graham's Magazine will be published on the first of each month in every quarter of the Union.

The most distant subscribers will therefore receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. The proprietor being more than 200 miles from the seat and most near 700 miles from the cheapest work in the country, an attempt to bring it within the reach of all, off to the lowest terms as the lowest terms at which it can be afforded: Three Dollars in advance for a single copy, or two copies yearly for Five Dollars; five copies for Ten Dollars; eight for Fifteen Dollars; or eleven for Twenty Dollars. (clubs furnish ed us) invariably in advance. Postage on all letters to be prepaid. GEO. R. GRAHAM, No. 36, Chesnut-st., Philadelphia, December, 1842.

FIVE NEW WORKS For 12 1-2 Cents Monthly. ONE DOLLAR A YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

THE publisher of the New World, having determined to exclude all continued stories in the regular weekly issue, announces his intention of giving the whole series of the new works—by their popular authors, Dickens, Lever, Ainsworth and Lover—in ONE EXTRA NUMBER, immediately on the arrival of the English Steamer, and continues to do the same each month, heretofore—thus furnishing the latest productions of these authors in advance of every other establishment in the country, and at a price which will not fail to meet the public approval: The following are the Titles of the Novels, the first numbers of which appeared in London on the first of January 1843, and will be re-issued in the Extra New World, in 24 hours after their receipt by the Steamer:
