WANTED - A Girl to do ordinary housework by Dr. W. R. Kelly, of McConnelsville.

The Basil L. Medley farm was sold by Sheriff Haverer to R. L. Updike, of Malta, on Monday, for $1,494.

E. E. WHITE, editor and publisher of the Ohio Educational Monthly, will be in McConnelsville on the second week of the Teacher's Institute.

FOR SALE - A Three-Spring Express Wagon, for sale on reasonable terms. It is new and one of Holbrook's make. Inquire at the Independent office.

REV. F. J. CATHY will address the open meeting, at the Good Templars' Lodge, McConnelsville, on the evening of Tuesday, the 30th.

W. D. HENKLE, State Commissioner of Common Schools, will be in attendance on the Teacher's Normal Institute the week beginning the 17th of July.

THERE were twenty-seven applicants for certificates to teach school at the School Teacher's Examination, in Malta, on last Saturday. How many were successful, is yet undetermined.

RAIL ROAD matters here, are a by subject for a communication found elsewhere in this paper. Read it and learn what you will have to do in order to get what you have so often said you wanted.

The Brown-Manly Plow Company are manufacturing the most perfect Threshing Machine consisting of three different sizes, ever sold in this market. They have been greatly improved for this season; also Wagons and Straw Stackers for machines. Call on them in Malta, Ohio.

Some people thought it strange that the names of the Committee men was not at the report of the Committee of Arrangements containing Resolutions of thanks, &c., to the ladies that assisted at the recent I. O. O. F. celebration in McConnelsville. We published the Report just as it was furnished us by C. E. Kahler. In copying the Report for us, he omitted to attach the names. The Committee men were F. A. Davis, J. W. Kincaid and E. M. Kennedy.

ELSEWHERE will be found a notice of the marriage of Mr. JOHN L. COCHRAN and Miss LIEBIE JONES, both of this place, the bride being a daughter of James K. Jones, Esq. A bountiful supply of the wedding cake found its way to this office, bearing with it the compliments of Mrs. James K. Jones. We are thankful for such favors, and hope that the happy couple may continue so through life. Their wedding tour is through Southern Ohio and a portion of Kentucky.

ELSEWHERE will be found an advertisement of the Teacher's Institute, to commence at McConnelsville, on the 17th of July, 1871. This Institute is for the purpose of more perfectly qualifying teachers for their positions. The course pursued by the County Board of Examiners has greatly advanced the standing of the profession here, and if the teachers of the County will only make the best of this opportunity for their further advancement, we predict that Morgan county will be able to boast of the superiority of her teachers. Make your arrangements such that you will be able to attend the Institute.

FOR Express and Farm Wagons, manufactured of good, seasoned material, finely finished, call on H. H. Strong, above the Bridge, McConnelsville, Ohio. They have on hand a fine lot of Farm Wagons, Four Spring, Platform Spring, and Two Spring Express Wagons, which can be bought at Cash rates. Repairing, repainting, and all kinds of Blacksmith Work done mechanically by them. Give them a call. They are prompt.

May 19, 1871-4w. The meeting at Unionville, on Tuesday evening last, was a decided success, notwithstanding it began raining just before the time of assembling and continued throughout the night. Of course the assembly was not so large as it would have been had it been a pleasant evening, but still it was very respectable in number as well as in spirit. The meeting was opened by placing H. P. Dearborn in the Chair, who stated the object of the meeting and then called on Rev. M. C. Grimes, of the Unionville M. E. Church, for a prayer. After prayer, Rev. L. McGuire was called out for a lecture, which duty, (for Rev. McGuire conceives it to be his duty to lecture on Temperance,) was most happily and interestingly performed. David Mummy was called upon to follow Rev. McGuire, which he done most ably, and after him remarks were made by H. P. Dearborn, Oscar B. Nott, Arza Alderman and Joseph A. Kelly. Unionville and vicinity has a strong Temperance element existing within it. In fact it is the boast of the citizens of Unionville that no liquor of any kind is sold there. They are proud of this fact, and well they may be. The village has two stores in it, a flouring mill, &c., and the Methodists there have a really nice and comfortable Church. David R. Buchanan keeps a hotel there, and he and his wife spare no pains to make all who stop with them comfortable in all respects.

Wm. C. Trezise for Councilman.

The following correspondence explains itself: McCONNELLSVILLE, O., May 17th, 1871. Mr. Wm. Trezise - Dear Sir: - The undersigned citizens and electors, irrespective of party, respectfully request you to be a candidate for the office of Councilman, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Ewing, understanding that you are in favor of maintaining the Ordinance, known as the "Beer Ordinance," without alteration or modification.

W. W. McCARTY, JOSEPH A. KELLY, JAMES B. ROSS, R. STANTON, PATRICK SWEENEY, JAMES BAIN, GEORGE CAMPBELL, and others. McCONNELLSVILLE, O., May 17th, 1871. Messrs. W. W. McCARTY, and others - Gentlemen: In answer to your communication of the 17th, permit me to say that I am thankful for the confidence manifested in your letter, and that I accept the candidacy tendered me upon the terms therein indicated. WM. C. TREZISE.

The Malta Wagon Works, incorporated a few weeks ago by W. P. Brown, Atty Gen. Pend, J. M. Rodgers and others, with an authorized capital of $20,000, passed from an inevitable to a fixed fact, on last Friday 12 inst., completing its organization by electing J. M. Rodgers, W. P. Brown, John H. Bell, Newell Corner and others, its directors. James M. Rodgers was by the directors chosen President, and Newell Corner Secretary of the Company. We confidently predict the success of this enterprise, assured, as we think it is, by the co-operation of some of the most practical, energetic and successful business men of our county - men who have a stubborn habit of accomplishing what they undertake. We understand that this Company has already shipped and sold a number of handsome Express Wagons of their own manufacture, made during the completion of its organization. As soon as it is in full operation, with all the latest and most improved machinery and appliances for the manufacture of wagons, we presume you one need.

"Wait for the Wagon," as their rapid sales will be promptly supplied with new "little better" than there sold.

For the Independent. Chesterfield.

Mr. Editor: I was at Chesterfield a few days ago, and found the "Hill" alive with a stirring population. After an absence of about four years, the place presented a number of attractive features. For instance, the new and elegant residence of Fleming Crew, which was not so common, had been finished up in modern style, inside shutters, and all looks quite grand. Also, the residence of Mr. Morey, as yet unfinished, but will doubtless be an ornament to the town. This gentleman is putting up a substantial brick building for a store-room, and when, with his large tobacco warehouse, looks like business. Also, Dick, Engle, (advertising Dick, and why don't he advertise in the Independent?) stands grinning in his shop door, defying any one to pass by without a friendly grasp of the hand and an exhibit of his Wares, Saddles, Harness, Collars, &c. A very neat M. E. Church is for cellaring, but least some timid persons may become alarmed, we will explain by saying that it is only horses he collars. Dick is a small man in stature.

All branches of business are well represented in the "Hill," - Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Drugs, &c. A very neat M. E. Church is for cellaring, but least some timid persons may become alarmed, we will explain by saying that it is only horses he collars. Dick is a small man in stature.

SHEEP SHEARING. - E. S. Fawcett, of Chesterfield, the first of this month, sheared five ewes and three bucks of the American Merino Sheep, of the same place, weighing, unwashed, nine pounds and four ounces, and the heaviest, eighteen pounds and five ounces. The fleeces of two yearling bucks weighed, one eleven pounds, and the other eleven pounds and twelve ounces. As about the same time, E. J. Hiatt and Bro's, of the same place, sheared twenty-eight ewes, and fifteen bucks of same breed above mentioned, the lightest fleece weighing, unwashed, twelve pounds, and the heaviest one, that of a buck two years old, twenty pounds and 12 ounces. A buck of this lot, only one year and ten weeks old, turned off a fleece weighing nineteen pounds and four ounces. Several others of the same age turned off fleeces weighing eighteen pounds and upwards. One ewe of this lot, one year and ten weeks old, turned off a fleece weighing 17 pounds.

Another Cure!! - This will certify that I have used Sprague's Compound Wild Cherry Balsam, and can truthfully say that I have received more benefit from its use than any medicine I have taken. I tried it for chronic bronchitis of long standing, and can recommend it to all as a good medicine for diseases of the Throat and Lungs. WINTON CRAIG, Unionville, Ohio. SALT! SALT! SALT!!! We have made arrangements to keep the celebrated Haverer & Benjamin Salt on hand this season. We guarantee weight and quality. You may rely upon it you will get the best salt on the river. Full weight in new, clean packages, and at the lowest prices, by calling on us. We are tired of selling poor salt. CLARKE, CORNER & WALKER.

The Issue on The 29th.

As most of the citizens of McConnelsville know, Dr. John Ewing has resigned his position as a member of the Town Council of this village, and on Monday, the 29th of this month, his successor is to be elected. Ever since the election in April last, it has been urged, by the Beerites, that the voice of the people of McConnelsville was given at that election, for the repeal of the "Beer Ordinance," and Dr. Ewing's resignation was for the purpose of allowing the people to decide the question of the repeal of this Ordinance at an election where party politics was thrown aside entirely, he not being willing to vote yes or nay on the question as a Councilman. In consequence of this position of affairs, many of our citizens, irrespective of all party alliances, have written a letter to Wm. C. Trezise, asking him to be a candidate for Councilman, understanding him to be in favor of the "Beer Ordinance" as it now stands, without any alteration or modification, and Mr. Trezise has accepted the candidacy on the terms of the invitation. Who the Beer men will nominate, is not known to us; but, whoever it may be, the question is simply resolved into this: - "Shall the Ordinance be repealed?" This question is one of vital importance to this community, and all who have the good of the community at heart should rally at once to the support of the Ordinance. Now that the Supreme Court of Ohio has decided the Ordinance to be valid in all respects, the Beer Saloons have been virtually closed and there are none that have the hardihood to open more while it is in force. The result is that drunkenness is very much less common on our streets than it used to be, that it is seldom made into a trade with the yells and curses of half-drunken boys and men, and that most of those who would rather get their living by dealing out poison to their neighbors, have had to seek some kind of honorable employment. Will the people of McConnelsville turn round now and repeal this Ordinance that has resulted in so much benefit to us as a community? Will they fill our town with low, dirty doggeries to ensnare the youth of our town into, learn them the habit of drinking, and start them on the road to drunkenness and vice? It seems to us that the father that would walk up to the polls and vote for the opening of such places for his son, or his neighbor's son, to be ensnared into, must be lost to all regard for their welfare. It looks as if the laboring man that would vote for the repeal of the "Beer Ordinance," knowing that by so doing he is enabling a few individuals, who are too lazy to work at some honorable employment, to live at ease and in luxury on the labor of others, has little or no pride. But the people of McConnelsville will not vote for the repeal of the Ordinance. - Laboring men have begun to have a contempt for the men that want to make their living by turning off their neighbors by poisoning them with Beer. Fathers don't like the idea of their sons being beset with a beer-hall at every street corner. - Mothers, wives and sisters, they too have an interest in this election and will wield it, and they also have no disposition to see their husbands, sons, and brothers coming home day after day and night after night, under the influence of Beer, Ale, and Whisky. We mention Whisky, because if Beer Saloons are opened, there will always be Whisky kept in them, and those who are initiated will ever be able to get it. But, citizens of McConnelsville, it is necessary that all who are opposed to the repeal of the Ordinance, should lay aside all party feeling and unite. The Beerites are at work, and they will be increasing in their numbers from now until the election is over. They are now and will be telling all kinds of electioneering stories in order to influence your votes. Such, for instance, as that "the town will die a natural death if Beer is not sold," or that "the Railroad cannot be built if we do not allow Beer to be sold," &c. Such stories will be told cautiously, and only to those they think they can gull with them. Mr. Trezise, as will be seen elsewhere in this paper, has been brought before the people squarely in favor of the Ordinance as it now stands. Go to work and elect him, and thereby save yourselves from the many evils that would result from the repeal of the Ordinance. - Remember that it has not been a year yet since a man was shot down in our streets, all in consequence of a Beer Saloon, and who knows but your son, or husband, or brother may meet with a like fate if these Saloons are again opened up, and in consequence of them.
