THE RAIL ROAD MEETING AT SENECVILLE.

The Rail Road Meeting at Senecaville, on the 1st, was very largely attended by men of means, who were substantially in favor of building the Eastern Ohio Rail Road.

The meeting was organized by calling Dr. Ken, of Washington, to the chair, and by electing John S. Adair, of McConnellsville, Secretary.

The aggregate amount of stock reported from the various localities was $135,000.

The apportionment for Directors, and election thereof, resulted as follows: James A. McConnell and E. M. Stanbury, of McConnellsville.

Bennet Rosemond, of Cumberland; William Lawrence, Sen., of Washington.

Thos. M. Lestley, of Winchester. E. A. Thomson, of Senecaville. Thomas Green, of Freeport.

William Lawrence, Sen. was made President, and E. M. Stanbury, Secretary.

All points on the road, from Freeport, Harrison county, to Malta, were represented, and Senecaville was crowded beyond her capacity to accommodate.

William Lawrence, Sen., now President of the road, stated in his speech in the meeting that in about two weeks, some of the officers of Lake Erie & Tuscarawas R. R. will pass over the line of the Eastern Ohio, to the coal-fields in Perry County, with a view of having a connection, by means of the Eastern Ohio, with those coal-fields, and that the Erie & Tuscarawas Road would complete the Eastern Ohio, after it was graded, for the privilege of using it as said connection.

AT CUMBERLAND. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Cumberland, on the evening of the 1st, which was addressed by Richard Stanton, E. M. Stanbury, Hon. W. P. Sprague, C. L. Barker, of McConnellville, and Rev. H. C. Fonce, of Cumberland.

VERY KIND.

Our friend, Jesse R. Foulke, is now the editor of the Herald. Jesse has not been long enough at the business yet to become entirely heartless, and, consequently, when he determines on "going for" a brother "knight of the quill," he thinks it well enough to so inform the brother. This is highly commendable in Jesse, and bespeaks for him the praises of all those who respect humanitarian ideas.

We are under a special obligation of this kind to Jesse, and we hasten to acknowledge it. Jesse takes exception to our article of last week on the appointment of Arthur Pond to the Auditorship of this County, and he is going to express those exceptions in his paper this week. After writing his article, thinking, doubtless, that he had demolished us, he told us he had "gone for" us without regard to consequences.

This was very kind in Jesse. We are now prepared to read his article with a prospect of being able to stand under it. Thank you, sir!

Relief of the Northwest.

Pursuant to a call published last week, a meeting of quite a goodly number of the ladies and gentlemen of McConnellville and Malta, met in the Town Hall of the former place, on Monday evening last, for the purpose of considering and taking such action as would seem advisable toward affording relief to the people of the burnt districts of Chicago and the Northwest.

Organization was made by appointing J. A. Kelly, chairman, and J. R. Foulke, secretary; after which the meeting was opened by prayer by Rev. L. McGuire.

Hon. W. P. Sprague, being called for, made some remarks relative to the course to be pursued, closing by making a motion that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to draw up and report a plan of proceeding. The motion was carried, and Hon. W. P. Sprague and Richard Stanton, of McConnellville, and Mr. James M. Rogers, of Malta, were appointed.

While the committee was out, Rev. F. J. Cather, L. McGuire, Henry Cooper and B. E. Edgell, and Elder Enoch Dyer, were called for separately and entertained the audience by remarks upon the fires and our consequent duty.

In due time the committee reported as follows: That an executive and soliciting committee of five, consisting of Messrs. C. L. Barker, Worley Adams, N. M. McLaughlin, Mrs. Jephtha Doucette, and Mrs. J. B. Vincent, Miss Maria Pinkerton, of McConnellville, and Mr. Joshua Davis, Misses Jane Brownell and Sadie Clarke, of Malta, be appointed to solicit money and clothing and forward the same to the sufferers.

The report was adopted. As it was the opinion of those present that the immediate wants of Chicago were provided for, and that the people who are now in sore distress are those of the burnt districts of Michigan and Wisconsin, the committee were instructed to send the funds and clothing collected by them to the latter people.

C. L. Barker, the chairman of the committee, being present, began operations by reading the report of the last Monday in November, and report the success of their efforts.

The meeting adjourned by singing the Long-metre Hymnology, Rev. Henry Cooper pronouncing the benediction. J. A. KELLY, Chairman. J. R. FOULKE, Secretary. Oct. 31, 1871.

Indiana and Political Action.

A meeting of the friends of Prohibition and political action was held at Indianapolis last week, and the following pledge was signed by a goodly number in attendance:

"We hereby pledge ourselves to vote only for such candidates for office as are publicly pledged to the passage and enforcement of a strict prohibitory law, and when any convention refuses to adopt a platform in spirit with the pledge, we will insist on the calling of a proper convention and the nomination of honest men to office."

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That a committee of one from each Congressional District be appointed as a Central Temperance Committee, and that said committee be instructed to call a Political Temperance Convention at its early a day as it may deem best.
