

Poetry.

LOVE, MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Country over the meadow's green way,
And with a look that said,
I am not here to stay,
I am not here to stay.

Selected Miscellany.

HOW I MADE A FOOL OF MYSELF.

As I sat alone at breakfast, I was sometimes surprised on receiving a most corteous and pressing invitation from my brother Jersey to spend a short time with himself and family at his seat in Warwickshire.

ation, hoped I had enjoyed my journey, was very glad I had come, because they saw so little company, and in fact, he behaved himself just as if he had been long acquainted with me.

come, we shall never get back to the Hall at this pace. Here is a nice little running stream, and don't be afraid of the water, it is not deep, and your horse will be able to wade through it.

A VENERABLE INSTITUTION.
The Essex Academy and House of Education, founded in 1783, and the first school which has ever been established in the county.

MARRYING A FORTUNE.
A Life Story From the Courts.
The late Mrs. Anna Maria Forman was the daughter of a wealthy merchant, and she was married to a young man of a kind and indulgent father, who educated her at the most fashionable boarding schools.

Political.
Pennsylvania Democratic Convention HARRISBURG, Pa., July 11.—The Democratic Convention was called to order by the election of Wm. H. Wallace and was organized by the election of Wm. H. Wallace as chairman, and the appointment of the usual committee.

General News Items.
—The mines of Colorado were never in more prosperous and hopeful condition than now.
—The census of beef cattle from Western Texas this spring is estimated at not less than a quarter of a million head.
—A Western man advertised his wife, who has left him and board "with a gentleman named Decker."

—The Day we used to Celebrate" is the leading of the Charleston Courier's leader on the 10th.
—San Francisco talks of a big hotel, covering two blocks, connected at each story by a covered bridge.
—The Alaska Times claims to furnish the news to a territory of greater size than any other paper in the world.