The convale of the Grand Army of the Republic at San Francisco, promptly voted down a resolution in favor of pensioning all soldiers of the late war irrespective of physical disabilities caused by service.

The Democracy of Vinton county placed in nomination the following ticket on Monday last: For Auditor, John McNamara; for Treasurer, Eli Reynolds; for Sheriff, Charles F. Johnson; for Recorder, Cyrus C. Moore; for Commissioner, William J. Cox; for Infirmary Director, Frederick Cradlebaugh.

An artesian well at Belle Plain, in the Prohibition State of Iowa, which had reached the depth of 180 feet, suddenly burst out as a geyser yesterday which threatens to ruin the town. The stream of water which was sent high into the air rapidly enlarged in thickness from four, to sixteen inches, and two rivers are running through the town, undermining houses and deepening their channels, while a lake is forming on the lowlands near the town. Sand-bags and stones thrown into the bore are tossed out immediately, and that portion of Iowa is likely to have as much cold water as it could possibly desire. Engineer skill has been summoned from Chicago, but even American civil engineers are non-plussed by a geyser, and the prospect is that the town will have to move.

We publish on our first page of this issue the abstract of votes cast at the Democratic Primary on Saturday last.

At the official count on Monday the returns of the whole vote were in the hands of the committee except that of the first or Carbonhill precinct, of Ward township, and as it was definitely known that the vote of said precinct would not change the final result, the vote of said precinct was ordered to be counted and added to the result when received.

The vote was received by the chairman on Wednesday morning our table shows the total vote.

The vote in Starr and Ward townships was very light, on account of many of the citizens being in attendance at John Robinson's show which exhibited on that day in Nelsonville.

After the vote had been counted a mass convention was held an account of which appears elsewhere.

The County Ticket.

We this week place at the head of our columns the ticket placed in nomination by the Democracy at their primary on Saturday last.

Before this time the Democrat had no ticket and no candidate, but now, true to every principle of Democracy, it endorses, ratifies and makes its own every candidate placed upon the ticket by the Democracy.

Every one of them shall receive our firm support and we believe the support of every true democrat. There is no excuse for wavering in support or scratching at the polls, and we feel that every candidate will be triumphantly elected.

Let us then to work, let all personal differences and dislikes be hermetically sealed, and kept so for all time, and let us all labor to make our majority in the county a full and undivided one thousand.

The Committee on Credentials reported the delegations from the four counties complete, and no contests, and on motion the report was adopted.

The Committee on Rules and Regulations reported the following:

1. This Convention shall be governed by the rules of the Ohio House of Representatives.

2. All nominations shall be made by a call of the counties in alphabetical order.

Mr. Price, for the committee on Resolutions, submitted the following:

The following District Committee was then announced; D. Danehy, Fairfield; Robt. Motherwell, Hocking; T. J. Duenon, Franklin; and Jas Retaille, Perry.

It was then announced that nominations were in order. Thereupon Mr. George Graybill of the Fairfield delegation arose and made a motion that the rules be suspended and that the nomination of Hon. The Chair then named the following gentlemen to inform Mr. Outhwaite of the action of the Convention and escort him to the hall; Irvin Moore, Fairfield, Robert Motherwell, Hocking, James Retaille, Perry, and Judge Ackers, Hocking. After a little delay Mr. Outhwaite made his appearance on the stage, and was loudly cheered. He was introduced by President Slough.

Mr. Outhwaite in a neat speech thanked the Convention for the

The Doom of Anarchy in the United States.

Never before perhaps has a trial conducted in the United States attracted such world-wide and deep interest as that which ended at Chicago, Aug. 19, and sends seven anarchists to the gallows and an eighth to prison for fifteen years. And never before perhaps was a verdict so universally approved. The world has been waiting to see whether or not this republic would take the action necessary to check once and for all time the efforts of unprincipled agitators to undermine her institutions and reduce them to chaos, confusion and destruction. The verdict of the jury has ere this been approved and applauded by all friends of true liberty in all lands to which the news has spread.

The trial was conducted with the utmost fairness and deliberation. Every opportunity was given to the accused to lay the ground-work of a vigorous defense. A month was spent in the formation of a just and impartial jury. A month more was spent in a calm, searching and complete exposition and examination of the testimony. The rulings of the judge were marked by wisdom and impartiality. The jury quickly arrived at the verdict, and, so far as eminent legal authorities can see, there is no chance whatever for error in the record.

There is little doubt that the verdict of the jury will be carried out. Quite certainly the defendants will push their defense to the last limit; a new trial will be asked for, and, falling in that, the power of the supreme court will be invoked, but probably in vain. The anarchists have an abundance of money for defense, but their case has now gone beyond the point where money has power.

The execution of seven of the ring leaders of Chicago's commune, and the imprisonment of another, will be a lesson and a warning to this class of traitors and murderers of the world over. Thereafter, and with the enactment of proper laws, the dragon head of anarchy will never again rise in this nation.

The Candidates.

We have nothing in particular to say of any one of the candidates nominated on last Saturday save that they are all gentlemen well qualified for their several positions, and deserving of the united support of the Democracy.

Judicial Convention.

The Convention to nominate a candidate for Common Pleas Judge for the Seventh Judicial District, composed of the counties of Fairfield, Hocking and Perry, will be held in Logan, Tuesday, September 7, 1886, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

The basis of representation in said Convention shall be one delegate for each one hundred votes cast for George Hoadly for Governor, at the last State election, and an additional delegate for each fraction of 50 votes or over, so cast.

The several counties will be entitled to the following representation by delegates.

THOS. WETZLER,
