Mrs. Roland is a sister of Mrs. Frank Edwards who lived here some ten or twelve years ago. Democrats, remember, if you can, when a Republican scratched his ticket to accommodate a Democrat. Vote the whole Democratic ticket and score one for honesty. We call attention to the new advertisement of Curtis & Bowen, No. 49, N. High St., Columbus, O. If you are in need of hats or wraps it will be your interest to call on them. On last Monday evening, "Little Nugget" was played, to a large and appreciative audience. This is the third time it has appeared here, and it took as well or even better than at first. Don't think from the absence of an Adv. that Harmon & Co. have gone out of business. They have the largest stock and are selling the most goods of any firm in town. Adv. next week. Last Saturday Mr. Tide Houston of this place who is a brakeman on the R. R., had his leg broken, by being caught under the break-beam of the tender. Dr. Campbell the road surgeon adjusted the fracture. The sermon at the Presbyterian church on last Sunday morning was of more than usual interest, being against social evils as drunkenness, divorce and socialism. Text: "If the foundations be destroyed what can the righteous do?"

An agent for the sale of a new fangled combined road plow and scraper, was in town trying to sell one of the new machines to the council. It is asserted that the machine can do the work of two hundred men. This is bad news to the two hundred. Work on the New Flouring mill is progressing rapidly. The foundation is laid and the brick work of the south and east walls is up to the height of the first story. Mr. Thos. Kintz has the contract for the brickwork and is pushing it as rapidly as possible. We are sorry to note the fact that S. M. Godecke, has become demented. He appears to be laboring under some strong religious (?) hallucination. It is thought to be the result of undue excitement engendered by attending the meetings of the S. A. but we do not know. The eleven year old daughter of Mr. H. Carrick, of Union Furnace, was the subject of a delicate and successful operation for club-foot on Thursday last. The operation was performed by Dr. Campbell assisted by Dr. Pullen. We are informed that the young lady will be entirely relieved of the deformity. Our Mr. White visited the Athens Asylum for the Insane this week and speaks in high terms of the efficiency, as officers, of Supt. Dr. Richardson and Steward R. E. Hamblin. The Institution accommodates about eight hundred inmates and is full. Some important changes and improvements have recently been made among which is a large dining hall in which each patient takes meals under the immediate supervision of the Superintendent. This is the first Institution in the U. S. to adopt this arrangement, which it is believed will be much more satisfactory than the old plan of having the inmates of each ward take their meals separately. Our Neighbors. Fairfield County, Ohio. The requisite amount of stock has been subscribed, less five hundred dollars, to enable an organization of the Lancaster and Hamden Railroad Company. A small blaze at the old Vorys planing mill, on the corner of Mill and Canal streets, caused an alarm of fire to be turned in last Friday morning. Local option carried at Carroll, this county, Saturday, by a vote of 37 to 22. Work has been resumed at the gas well. Recently, while reaming the well, the drill got fast, and it became necessary to send to Pennsylvania for tools to extract it. Wednesday Mr. Ed Guerin, telegraph operator at the depot, was married to Miss Ida Idleman, a charming young lady of Marion, Ohio. Bert Thomas, of Oakland, was up before Squire Brown last week for flourishing a revolver around too promiscuously. He was fined $5 and costs, which he was unable to pay, and was committed to jail. A most distressing accident happened on the Mithoff place, just west of the city, on last Saturday afternoon. George Lutz, aged about eighteen, and a young companion, named Shirley Stockton, were hunting, and in passing through a hedge fence, Lutz, who was in advance, asked Stockton to pass him his gun, a double barrel shot-gun, which Stockton did, pushing the muzzle first. The boy caught the gun near the muzzle and proceeded to pull it through, when both barrels were discharged into his hand and arm, and shattering the arm to above the elbow. Dr. Goss was summoned and at once decided that amputation would be absolutely necessary. He took the arm off a few inches below the shoulder joint. The above named young man is a nephew of Henry and Adam Lutz of this place. Perry County, Somerset Press. Judge Friensner visited the Fair on Thursday. The thieves raided several residences in town during the fair but failed to realize on their work. The Eighth Annual Fair held at the Society grounds in Somerset commencing on Wednesday and continuing until Friday evening last was by far the largest and best ever held in the county. Shawnee Banner. Somerset fair had more gamblers than the county fair. Hon. Joseph Outhwaite spoke at a number of places in the county last week. The Maxville Educational Association is the name of an organization composed of teachers and friends of education in that vicinity. Considerable stealing is going on in the vicinity of New Straitsville now. John L. Williams had a fine cow butchered near the Besse furnaace. Nothing but the hide and horns were left. The Somerset fair was held last week with moderate success—which was more than the directors deserved, as they allowed the worst kind of a gang of gamblers to "work" their grounds after having advertised and promised that not one of these slick individuals would be tolerated. Perry County, Circleville Dem. Herald. Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Wilson, of Marlton are visiting in Kansas. Mr. William Ranek and family moved to Allen Co., O. this week, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Elias Botts and wife moved yesterday to Hocking Co. they locate one mile north of Bunevista. She will be supported by a first class company of nine star actors. The company have played engagements in St. Louis, Louisville and Cincinnati, and by great effort has been secured here, while en-route for Wheeling. It will be the best company that Logan has yet seen, and deserves a crowded house. Removal. Miss Delia Myers has removed her stock of Millinery and Fancy goods from the Dollison Block to her New Store room on Main St. one door west of Armstrong's tin store, at which place she will be glad to see all her old customers, and many new ones. Carbonhill, Ohio. Oct. 27, 1886. Work is good at most of the mines. Carbon Hill mine has lost a great deal of work owing to the machinery being out of fix; this mine has a long steep grade from the mouth of the mine to the hoopers over which they run the coal with a wire rope, the loaded cars pull the rope down the hill and a stationary engine set at the mine pulls the empty cars up, the machinery being old and worn out makes the work very uncertain. Miss Mary Downhour is sick with lung fever. Rufus White and family left for Springfield last Tuesday having secured work in one of the machine shops, he expects to make that place his future home. Marlton, Ohio. Oct. 21, 1886. How common it is to revert to things seen, heard or gone in the past, and so it is at present with us. Forty years ago we drove through Logan—"Was it muddy? I should smile." The first object that attracted our notice, was an ox team stalled on Main street Whipping, hollering and swearing was the order of things; finally the oxen pulled through. The driver was a very tall, slender, dark complexioned man, who after he had got his team under good headway just turned his head, and looking over his shoulder said, "You have a h—l of a town," we thought that the citizens coincided, for no one said a word, "Silence gives consent." By the way we have heard a pretty good joke that happened about forty years ago, in your county. Mr. Ruben Heston was a candidate before the people for Representative. An intelligent young lawyer was his opponent, and the young man proposed to meet Rube on the stump and debate the subjects at issue with him, Rube (as he was familiarly called) accepted. Some of Rube's friends talked to him and said, that it was a bad move for him, as he could not make a speech to save him, but Rube assured them that he would bring it out all right. Rube met his antagonist at the place and time designated with a three gallon jug of whiskey. He had it in his buggy near at hand. The young man made a very fine scholarly speech, went over all of the ground touching upon everything at issue, elaborately and nicely, and left the platform. Now was Rube's turn; his friends were trembling with fear, they almost held their breath when they saw Rube striding for the stand; but look! he is carrying something, yes, it is a jug, said one, when he reached the center of the platform, he sat down the jug, and straightening himself upon his toes, exclaimed "Faugh! Faugh!! what a speech!!! Come up men and drink." It elected him. But how times, manners, and customs have changed "Since forty years ago." The methods that then made Heston popular, would now insure the defeat of the best man in the party. B. Gibsonville, Ohio. Oct. 28, 1886. The melancholy days have almost come. Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Zeigler were visiting friends in our town, this week. Misses Ives Dollison and Nada Woods, were visiting in Laurelville, Sunday last. Gibsonville is improving; T. Hutchinson is having a two story house built on his lot. It seems he is going to stay. Mr. Ed Kreider, an estimable young man of this community is very sick. His recovery is doubtful. Emza Berry, Clara Hutchison, Mr. W. F. Dollison and two children, are on the sick list at present. The oyster supper at Mr. Woods' was a success. A jolly good time is reported and Miss Nada's friends wish her many happy birth-days. Judging from all reports the town school, (as it is familiarly called) is in a flourishing condition under the skilled management of Miss Schooley. Rev. Sparks of South Perry, will deliver a regular Democrat Temperance lecture, Friday night, Oct. 29. Somehow Will Brashares prefers staying near the "Woods" to taking his usual dessert of "herries." Why is it Will? A faint, low murmur whispers—can't tell. Mrs. Johnston of Licking county, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. Rouse. Rev. Harrison preached his first sermon, on his new circuit, last Sunday a week. Lost, strayed, or stolen from Isaac Quillen, about the middle of August—a small cream picher. The owner offers a large reward to finder. Such were the advertisements appearing in the public places of Gibsonville, not long since.

We take pleasure to inform the public that it has been found. After searching for many long and wearisome days, it was discovered among some hazel-brush with a cat's head gracefully suspended. The finder hung the pitcher and cat on a tree close by the road-side, and when the passer-by views the mangled body of the cat, he thinks—"Such is life." For the truth of this story ask R. M. Gordon. JAKE. Council Proceedings. Oct. 23, 1886. The Council met in regular session with the following members present: A. Steinman, President; G. G. Gage, Clerk, and Messrs. Krieg, Price, Wright, Cresap, Schlagetter, Rochester, and Braddock. Minutes of last regular and special meeting read and approved. The estimate of the work being done on the Myers and Pryor property, corner of Hunter and Mulberry streets, was put at $50.00. The same amount was named for the Curtis lot on west Main street, and belonging to the heirs of Mrs. Catherine Rippey. Andy Hall, City Treasurer, reported $1017.71 in the Street Improvement Fund. The ordinance to regulate ale and porter houses, and etc., was read second time and referred back to committee. The ordinance to regulate billiard halls was read second time. Referred back to committee. The ordinance granting C. E. Bowen & Co. the right to use the streets and alleys for laying pipes for lighting and heating purpose was brought up for third reading. The Gallager heirs asked that the order requiring them to pave be suspended till some suitable system of drainage is adopted. The matter was referred to the Drainage Committee. A number of bills were approved and ordered paid. The matter of purchase of a road scraper that has been on exhibition here some days was referred to Street Committee. The Public Property Committee was instructed to put in a floor and fue at the work house. DIVORCE NOTICE. John Crupper } In the Common Pleas } vs } Court of Hocking County. } Mary E.
