

The Probable Departure of Louis Napoleon for the Crimea.

There appears to be no longer any reason to doubt that the Emperor of the French will proceed immediately to the Crimea. In the Constitutionnel of Monday, it is stated that his camp equipage has also been sent off, and the 10th of May is confidently named in Paris as the day on which he will take his departure. The abilities of Napoleon III are about to be tried in a new field. His victories have hitherto been gained in civil contests; it remains to be seen whether he has inherited the military talents of his house. Various considerations concur to recommend the step he is about to take. His presence in the Crimea seems desirable as a means of giving unity to the operations of a campaign carried on by the armies of at least four independent nations. As victory will tend to consolidate the throne, he has every inducement to urge on the war with energy; and at the same time, from all we can learn, the Emperor is too profoundly impressed with the necessity of not over-straining the resources of France to be led astray by success.

What course the Emperor will pursue remains perhaps to be decided by the state in which he will find affairs when he lands on the Crimea. The telegraphic accounts of the progress of the bombardment of Sebastopol are necessarily curt and complete. Rumors are afloat, however, to the effect that no great progress is being made by the assailants; that the advantages they had gained have been purchased at considerable loss of life, and that the defenses still in the hands of the Russians are of the most formidable strength. If these statements are well founded, they go far to confirm the opinion we have more than once had occasion to express, that the Russians in the Crimea must be beaten in the field before Sebastopol can be taken.

Gross Outrage Offered to Mr. Wise in Washington City.

The Union, in noticing the reception recently given to Mr. Wise in Washington city, says: "Mr. W. spoke from the door of his son-in-law, Dr. Garnett, in Ninth street, and in the presence not only of a great crowd of citizens, but in the hearing of ladies and members of his family. This fact, which would have restrained even the most dissolute characters in other days, did not prevent a gang of ruffians from making a number of attempts to insult the distinguished speaker, and to break up the meeting. It was easy to see the actors in this shameless business had been sent upon the ground to disgrace themselves, and if possible, to silence Mr. Wise. They resorted to every conceivable expedient to fulfill their instructions, but to no effect. Mr. Wise rebuked them with much dignity, and after shouting and growling themselves hoarse, they fled, like guilty spirits to their midnight haunts. Such is the tactics of the party that assumes to reform the religion and morals of men." "A more graceless set of rowdies never infested the purlieus of a great city than the gang alluded to. And yet, in the midst of this unprovoked and deliberate outrage, no police officer showed his face on the ground. Nothing but the forbearance of the friends of Mr. Wise prevented a melee. There is not another city in the Union in which such a scene would have been tolerated by the authorities, or if by the authorities, submitted to by the people. But this is a part of the tactics of the Order. The officers chosen by the majority dare not silence the 'Americans who disgrace America,' and if these enterprising patriots can get up a conflict with peaceable citizens some new martyr like Poole may be offered as a fit occasion for Sabbath sorrow, and some new pretext furnished for continued warfare upon the public tranquility and peace."

In addressing a jury upon one occasion, the celebrated Mr. Jeffrey found it necessary to make very free with the character of a military officer, who was present during the whole harangue. Upon hearing himself several times spoken of as "the soldier," the son of Mars, boiling with indignation, interrupted the pleader: "Don't call me soldier, sir, I'm an officer." Mr. Jeffrey immediately went on: "Well, gentlemen this officer, who is no soldier, was the sole cause of all the mischief that has occurred."

THE FRUIT.—The late frosts have not injured the fruit to any considerable extent, as is supposed. The grapes have been touched rather severely, but are not entirely cut off. We have passed the season of frost, as is to be hoped, and trust that good time for vegetation has now indeed come.—Dayton Journal.

Don't you remember Old Towser, dear Kate, Old Towser, so shaggy and kind; how he used to lay, day and night, by the gate, and seize interlopers behind. (Here the machine broke down.

Mister, how do you sell your beef this morning?
"Fourteen cents a pound."
"Fourteen cents, eh? Have you got a beef?"
"No I just sold it."
"Well, I know'd you could'n't have a beef and ax fourteen cents for your beef."

"Ned has run away with your wife, said one friend to another. "Poor fellow, I pity him!" was the reply.
The fellow who kept a "stiff upper-lip," regretted afterwards that he didn't give it to a pretty girl. A lesson for future practice.

The man who can demand advice is often superior to him who can give it.

PROCLAMATION.

PULVERMACHER'S
Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chain
A NEW and NOVEL mode of applying a powerful remedial agent, so constructed as to be worn under the garments, next to the skin, producing a constant uninterrupted current of Electro-Magnetism, effecting
IMMEDIATE RELIEF
from the most acute pain, and also a permanent cure of all
NERVOUS DISEASES.

It seldom has failed to furnish almost instant relief, and a FINAL PERMANENT CURE by being used according to direction, to the following diseases:
Rheumatism, Uterine Pains, Gout, Sciatica, Paralysis, Painful & swelled joints, St. Vitus' Dance, Neuralgia of the Face, General Debility, Disease of the Spine, Pains of the Chest, Deafness & Blindness, Hysterics, Dyspepsia, All Diseases that are caused by a deficient amount of Nervous Fluid, are greatly relieved, if not permanently cured simply wearing the chains for a few hours each day.

BE IT UNDERSTOOD that it is not claimed that it cures all diseases, but only those for which it is recommended, and moreover, we boldly claim and defy, that no medical agent of any kind has performed so many cures during the last year, of those diseases just named as

PULVERMACHER'S ELECTRIC CHAINS.
And to prove this assertion we defy any person to produce so many well authenticated certificates of Scientific Physicians and intelligent patients as may be found in a pamphlet of 36 pages, to be had gratis of the agent in this Town.

The Electric Chains were first introduced in France in 1850, and after being subjected to the most thorough and rigid trial, by the first medical men in Paris, they were found to possess strong and marvelous powers in relieving pain, whenever applied, and by their influence were introduced into the hospitals of that city, and also secured by letters patent by the French Government.

They are now introduced in almost every Hospital in England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and patented in those countries, where they have become the MOST POPULAR CURATIVE AGENT IN THE WORLD!

They were first introduced in the United States about one year since, and went through the same trial as in Europe, and were at once introduced into every Hospital in New York, where they are now in daily use, effecting even more wonderful cures than had ever before been awarded them. They are highly recommended by Prof. Valentine Mott Van Buren, Post, and others, who have published their views of their power and value in several of the medical journals in that city, and are also in the daily practice of recommending their use to patients. A full account of their opinion may also be found in every pamphlet, and sent to the address of any person in the State, applying (post paid) to the agents. The Chains can be sent by mail, with full description for use.

Price of Chains, $3 and $5.
Physicians are politely invited to call and examine their construction, and pronounce upon their merit.

ONE WORD MORE TO INVALIDS.
No person need fear that they will not accomplish just what it is claimed they can do, and all persons who have become disgusted with a constant pouring down of patent nostrums (bottled up) are kindly and politely invited to give them a trial.

CARD TO LADIES. Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them for a great length of time, for by so doing, miscarriage is frequently produced.

N. B.—One Chain will last for years and lose none of its electric power by use, can be applied to either adult or child. For sale in all the principal cities in the U. S.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS,
BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH,
CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

WE invite the attention of the Public to the certificates appended below, and bespeak for them that candid consideration which their honest frankness deserves.

Men in such stations as many who voluntarily bear witness to the efficacy and value of Cherry Pectoral, do not wantonly trifle with, or distort facts, nor overstate their convictions. Judge then, whether this is not the medicine to trust when you must have relief for the throat or lungs; judge too, whether every family ought not to have it by them as a safeguard against the everywhere prevailing enemy, which steals with fatal frequency upon almost every flock and carries off the lamb from many a home!

Dr. J. C. AYER,
Sir—The Cherry Pectoral is much inquired after. Several of our best Physicians have used it, three of them in their own case and always with the happiest effects. The numerous patent medicines always before them, lead to incredulity in regard to every new remedy; and it is only after undoubted evidence of value in any article, that anything like a general confidence can be excited. The unrivaled excellence of this combination of agents, (in the Cherry Pectoral) proved beyond cavil by repeated trial under their own observation, has compelled medical men to proclaim abroad its usefulness. It is beyond all doubt the best general remedy we have for the Pulmonary Affections of this climate, at the same time sedative and expectorant—a rare combination of properties.

In hope that it will prove its own reward, I subscribe myself,
Respectfully your obt. servt.,
JAS. H. C. MILLEB, M. D.
Allegan, Mich., 10th Jan., 1853.

Dear Sir—No one, no not one—man, woman, or child—can be found to deny that the Cherry Pectoral is all that it claims to be.—There is much used in this vicinity although not known until recently. The community should know its virtues.
Yours truly,
JOHN R. KELLOGG, M. D.
Let gentlemen of the Legal Profession mark this case.
Williamsburg, L. I., Sept. 3, 1852.

Dr. J. C. AYER,
Dear Sir—Over application for the past three years to my duties as an advocate brought on some eight months ago a severe irritation of the bronchial tubes, which was a constant annoyance to me, and fast becoming a source of great apprehension. Every remedy tried, failed to even relieve me, till I used your Cherry Pectoral. This has not only relieved me, but as I trust, wholly cured me. I care nothing for the reputation of advocating Patent Medicines, and this is at your service. I shall recommend it to members of the bar, and others whom I may meet, laboring under similar indispositions.
Yours truly,
R. F. JONES.
South Paris, Me., Aug. 18, 1850.

I have no hesitation in saying, that I regard Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as decidedly the best remedy within my knowledge for the cure of chronic bronchitis, coughs, and all diseases of the lungs.
M. A. ROSE, M. D.
Montgomery, Ala., October 4, 1849.

Dr. J. C. AYER.—Sir: I have used your admirable compound extensively in my practice, and find it to surpass, by far, any other remedy I have for curing diseases upon the lungs. Your obedient servt., R. B. JONES, M. D.

What yet remains to convince the most incredulous, that the Cherry Pectoral is all that it purports to be, viz: an unequalled remedial agent for all diseases of the throat and lungs. The experience of years, has proven it to be such, and we submit it to the people, believing that its virtues will fully maintain its reputation.
Prepared by J. C. AYER, Chemist, Lowell, Massachusetts.

Beware of worthless preparations attempted to be palmed off under a similar name.
SOLD BY
