EXPLOSION AND FIRE

In a Factory at St. Louis—Several Persons Injured, Some Fatally.
St. Louis, Jan. 2.—An explosion in the boiler room of the Anchor Fireworks Co., at 312 North Third street, at 1 p. m. set fire to the wrecked building. Three boys, names unknown, employed in a peanut warehouse in the rear of the building, are in the ruins. The first stores were lifted bodily into the air, and the fire at once communicated to the adjoining warehouses. Firemen answered to three alarms, and fought to prevent a spread of the flames. The explosion was heard all over the eastern end of the city, and every window for three blocks around was shattered.

Following is a partial list of the injured: Wm. Brandyweider, clerk, badly cut on head; Richard Cowleshaw, foreman Frey Printing Co., internally; John Carter, press boy, eyes blinded; Ben Taylor, press feeder, cut by flying glass; Wm. Braubury, printer, face cut; Wm. Herner, printer, blinded by glass; Joseph D. Borack, No. 3700 Indiana avenue, Lewis Ink Co., ankles and feet hurt; Chris Kraft, aged 17, No. 1717 South Seventh street, head cut; John Becker, head cut; Michael Stack, both legs broken; W. R. Cowieshaw, printer, cut in face; Joseph Barker, printer, shoulder displaced; Charles Amos, letter carrier, blown out second-story window, slightly injured; Frank Niehaus and Joe Kazarick, still in building; boy named Aal taken out badly wounded internally.

At 2 p. m. the fire was under control and the rescuers found the corpse of Frank Niehaus. Joe D. Borack died at 1:30 p. m. Miss Morman, a typewriter for the Anchor Co., was taken out fatally injured. The Levison & Blythe printing house, adjoining the wrecked building, is in a tottering condition. Most of the injured were at work there. For blocks around every pane of glass was broken.

lives. Mr. Poats has announced that he will settle a portion of his for-

London Press on the Commission.
LONDON, Jan. 2.—The Westminster Ga-should treat the Venezuelan commission with perfect politeness and get them all possible informal assistance, though not admitting their jurisdiction, but should not allow British officials to give evidence in their public capacity." The St. James Gazette recognizes the absence of ex-United States man.

A HISTORY LESSON.

It is said that the first Hebrew to be made an English peer was Sir Sampson Gideon, who was created Lord Eardley in 1789 by Mr. Pitt.
Rocking cradles for babies were used by the Egyptians many centuries before Christ. Among the pictures copied by Belzoni is one of an Egyptian mother at work with her foot on the cradle.

Tumblers of nearly the came shape and dimensions as those employed today have been found in great numbers in Pompeii. They were of gold, silver, glass, agate, marble and other semi-precious stones.

Stoves are thought to have been used by the Romans. They were of brick, closely resembling the Dutch earthenware stoves, which give forth heat, but conceal the fire. Antiquarians say that Roman stoves were sometimes heated by building a fire in a large iron or earthenware tube in the middle of a room. Modern stoves were patented in 1821.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

The late Mrs. Alexander wrote nearly 400 hymns.
Pope Leo, having appointed a vicar general for Wales, a Welsh Protestant journal calls it "the attack of the anti-christ on Wales."

Three women preachers hold ministerial charges in Belfast, Me. Miss Kingsbury is pastor of the Universalist church, Miss King of the Church of the Advent and Mrs. McIntyre of the Church of God.

Dunazulu, son and heir of Cetewayo, the Zulu king, who, after the Zulu war, was transported to St.
Helena, now writes the bishop of Zululand that he has accepted the gospel.
He expresses an earnest desire to have teachers sent to his people.
