

You Know

Our work is always good.

We Know

Our work is better than ever before.

H. O. Craig,

The Marietta Picture Man.

February 1st

We begin invoicing and as we can invoice cash easier than goods we propose to convert our goods into cash, no matter what it costs. Overcoats, boys' and men's suits, shirts, underwear, hats, caps, neckwear and all kinds of men's furnishing, in fact everything we have in stock will be sold at a figure that will make them go. They are truly BARGAINS. Take advantage of them while they last.

Yours to please.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Hear the Tinker Quartette in their beautiful Irish songs Thursday night.

William Pinkerton, aged about 33 years, died at his home on the West Side Saturday afternoon of liver and lung troubles. He leaves a wife and three children. The deceased was a member of Harmar Lodge, No. 115, I. O. O. F., and will be buried Tuesday with the honors of that order. The remains will leave the residence at 1 p. m. and interment will be made at Bethel.

The pocket Liberty arrived down from Wheeling Sunday.

A "still alarm" turned in about nine o'clock Saturday evening called the fire department to the Greene street school house, where an incipient blaze was doing its best to develop into a first-class conflagration. The fire was in the corner of one of the lower rooms and was extinguished by the chemical apparatus without trouble. It is supposed to have been a case of spontaneous combustion, caused by a lot of oily rags being thrown in a pile with some loose boards. The damage was slight.

Cyrannus Cooke, formerly of Wood county, W. Va., but lately of California, died in that State, Thursday the 18th. The deceased was a single man, and a son of E. N. Cooke, of St. Marys, W. Va.

News reached this city Saturday of the death at his home at Loveland, O., Saturday morning, of Postal Clerk J. C. Edgerton who was injured in the B. & O. S. W. wreck at Schooley's station. Mr. Edgerton was the sixth victim of that disaster. He was injured internally, but up to Friday preceding his death was believed to be in a fair way to recover. He was one of the best clerks in the employ of the railway mail service and the possessor of three medals awarded by the department for meritorious work. He was about 37 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

The oil market took another slump Saturday, dropping from $1.47 to $1.45.

John A. Floyd, of Meigs county, Morgan county, is in the city. Mr. Floyd has a big block of territory in his county under lease and is looking up a company to develop it.

After an illness of but a few days of congestion of the lungs, Mrs. Charles E. Beck died Saturday evening at her home on Washington street between Sixth and Seventh. She was about 30 years of age, the daughter of Jacob Weber, and leaves a husband and three small children to mourn her death. The funeral will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock, sun time, from the residence.

On Tuesday of last week in the Court of Common Pleas, a receiver was appointed for the Marietta Run Coal and Coke Co., of Utley, Athens Co. Mr. Clarence Stephens, of Brooklyns, the President of the company, was appointed to the office. We understand the affairs are placed in a receiver's hands in a purely friendly manner, and for the purpose of finding where the company "is at," also to look to bringing about a larger capitalization of the company.

Death of Mrs. Neuberger.

Mrs. Anna Neuberger, a German lady, well known to most of the older Mariettians, died at her home, 424 Second street, early Sunday morning, the 19th instant. Death was caused by old age, Mrs. Neuberger having been about 85 years of age at the time of her demise. The deceased was a native of Germany, but for 40 years or more she lived in this city. Her husband, who died about 20 years ago, was a physician, an accomplished man, and highly respected citizen. Mrs. Neuberger for many years of her later life was in the grocery business and she drove a thriving trade. Her heart was big—too big for her own financial good, as page after page of her old store books could doubtless testify. But the good old lady is gone, and the writer, who has known her all his life, and who many a time has been made happier by her bounty, says, amen, and may she rest in peace.

Three children remain—Mrs. Womner, Mrs. Baehmeier and Mr. Fred Neuberger.

Mrs. Neuberger's funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon, Tuesday, at 2 o'clock, sun time, at the lower German church.

As Seen by a Stranger.

An amusing incident occurred a few days since, one which came under the eye of a prominent oil friend of ours. He was a visitor within the classic precincts of our city, and thought he would see the town from a street-car window. He boarded a car and was borne away, to the jingle of a bell which was pendant to the neck of a heavy hooped horse. On the car went, stopping ever and anon to take on a good-natured fat lady, for a pound of coffee, to be accommodatingly delivered to a good housewife on the hill. The visitor enjoyed the ease and comfort which he was getting from the trip and thought it about as soothing a journey as he had ever taken, but the climax was capped, and the car-driver's indifference to time and space was demonstrated when that worthy at a crossing fastened his lines to the front rail, stepped off the car and went over to see what could be a certain notice tacked upon a tree.

It proved to be a funeral notice!

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

AFTER THE BEREA.

An Attempt to be Made at Sistersville to Keep Up the Production.

SISTERSVILLE, W. Va., January 17.—There is a possibility that the old Sistersville field will be drilled over again for oil. The reason of this is that some of the oil companies are now making arrangements to drill some of their old wells, which have been producing from the Big Injun sand, down to the Berea Grit. Ever since the discovery in the Mannington field, a few years ago, that there were good wells to be found in the Berea after the Big Injun wells had played out, the oil producers here were determined to drill enough wells here on down to the Berea sand in sufficient numbers to give that sand a thorough test in this field.

A well on the Ohio side, on the Cain farm, was drilled down to this sand during the early developments in this field, but that well was dry in both the Big Injun and Berea, and was not considered a test on account of the well being dry in the Big Injun sand. Some time later another well, drilled by R. G. Caldwell & Co., on the Urah Ice farm, east of town some four miles, was also drilled to the Berea sand. This well was dry in the Big Injun sand, but the Berea Grit sand had some oil in it and was pronounced as good sand. Ludwig & Mooney drilled a well to the Berea Grit on Eveline Russell's farm, south of the big gasser, and found oil in paying quantities in what they believe was the Berea Grit.

These are the only wells that have reached the Berea in the old Sistersville field, and the producers think the indications in these wells were sufficient to justify further drilling.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

Mr. William Best Dies at the Age of Ninety-four.

Saturday morning intelligence reached the city of the death of Mr. William Best, who died Friday night at his home in Salem township. A few weeks ago Mr. Best met with an accident by which he received a broken leg, mention of which was made in the Leader at the time. Owing to his extreme age, ninety-four years, he was unable to withstand the shock and his death is ascribed to that injury.

Mr. Best was born in Germany, immigrated to this country and settled in Washington county in 1840. He leaves six children, one of whom is Mr. Chris. Best, of this city. The funeral will occur Monday at 10 a. m. from his late residence in Salem township.

To the Members of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons:

DEAR FRIENDS:—Our State Convention is to be held in Columbus, March 27, 28, 29, 30, beginning Friday P. M. and closing Monday noon. Mrs. Mary Lowe Dickinson, General Secretary, and Mrs. Isabella C. Davis, Corresponding Secretary of the Central Council of the Order from Headquarters, New York City, are expected to be in attendance. We urge as many as possible to be present.

Will the leaders of circles in this County please send me their names and addresses at once so that circulars and programs may be sent them? Also any information regarding the circles and their work. Yours "I. H. N." ADELAIDE F. STACY, Sec. for Wash. Co.
