Attack Gen. Antonio Maceo Near Paso Real.

From Houses and Roofs a Galling Fire Poured Into Their Ranks.

Rebels Driven Outside the Town Where They Made a Stand—Rebel Cavalry Charged the Troops With Great Valor—Several Officers Wounded.

(From a Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)

HAVANA, Feb. 5.—The details of a fight Monday between the troops under Gen. Luque and the rebels under Antonio Maceo have been received here. Gen. Luque reports that the battle occurred in and near the town of Paso Real, province of Pinar del Rio. Maceo was in chief command of the insurgents, his subordinate commanders being Miro, Sayas, Chileno and Meyer. The Spanish force include two companies of the Saboya regiment, one company of the Galicia regiment, three companies of the San Quentin regiment, one company of the Sorla regiment and two companies of the Alfonso XIII regiment. When it was learned that the rebels were in Paso Real, Gen. Luque gave orders for the troops to advance and attack the place. The soldiers entered the town by the main street and found the rebels occupying the side streets and the houses. A galling fire was directed against the troops from the street, houses and roofs, but the rebels were finally driven to the eastern part of the town, where they attempted to make a stand. In this they were unsuccessful and they then retreated outside of the town. The troops advanced upon them and found over a thousand rebels forming a line of battle in an open space. As the Spaniards moved forward they delivered volley fires as they moved from position to position. The rebel cavalry charged the troops with great valor, and despite the heavy fire directed against them even reached the bayonets of the troops. The latter received the first charge while formed in line, but the second charge was received by the troops in circular groups.

Gen. Luque says the troops sustained no machete wounds, while a number of rebels were wounded by bayonets. The troops finally dispersed the rebels, pursuing them until darkness set in. The insurgents lost 63 killed, while 200 of them are believed to have been wounded. Gen. Luque was shot through the right leg.

Jose Ruiz Perez, of the regular army, and Maj. Louis Lopre Majored, of the civil guards, were also wounded. Maj. Perez has since died. In addition to these, one captain, one lieutenant and 30 soldiers were wounded. One of the wounded privates died shortly after the battle.

Dingley, chairman of the committee on ways and means, and Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, had an informal conference Tuesday upon the date at which the resolution condemning Ambassador Bayard for his Edinburgh and Boston, England, speeches shall be considered in the house. It was decided that it would be best not to call it up until the calendar was clear of appropriation bills, unless in the event that for some unforeseen reason, it was deemed inadvisable to go on with the consideration of the appropriation measures.

The resolution will be reported to the house and placed on the calendar within a day or two, but the debate upon it, which is expected to last two or three days, may not begin for some time.

BUCKEYE LEGISLATURE.

The Harris Bill Before the House—Bill Raising the Tax on the Senate.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 5.—SENATE.—The Dow law amendment bill, by Senator Dana, which is the same as the house bill of Mr. Goodale of Hamilton, came up for passage on a report of the finance committee. The bill raises the tax on the Dow law to $50. Mr. Ely, of Lorain, moved to raise it to $500. This evoked a violent discussion. Senator Garfield charged that the bill was simply an attempt to out the Harris bill, if it came over. Mr. Williams stood with Mr. Ely for $500, and was joined by Senator Clark. Senator Shattuck declared in favor of $50. Senator Lansing said it was well known that threats had come to every senator on the floor for them to toss the mark, or suffer for it. When put to a vote the $500 amendment carried by a vote of 20 yeas and 16 nays.

HOUSE.—The first intimation that the Harris bill was before the house Wednesday was suggested by a flood of telegrams that poured in upon members in obedience. It is said to instructions sent out by Rep. Howard Russell, of the Anti-Saloon League, to his collaborators in all parts of the state. Nearly every member was in receipt of a "brace" from his constituents. A call of the roll disclosed the following members absent: Aldrich (dem.), Ashford (rep.), Broderick (dem.), Buschling (rep.), Hart (rep.), Kimmel (rep.), Kilbourne (dem.), Richardson (ham. co. rep.), Smith (Adams, rep.) and Smith (Cuyahoga, rep.). ### The Different Associations Advised to Join the Anneke Jans International Union—An Attorney to Be Selected to Look After Their Claims in New York.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 5.—The Anneke Jans heirs, as the claimants to the millionaire's property in the possession of Trinity Church corporation of New York are called, held their first general meeting in this city Tuesday afternoon. About 250 representatives of the heirs were present, including delegates from nearly every state in the union and also from Canadian provinces. The meeting was presided over by L. A. Guerinneau, of Terre Haute, Ind. The first business was the appointing of a committee of 13 to permanently organize for the holding of the present meeting and the meetings to be held in the future.

The committee passed resolutions that all the different associations of the heirs be advised to join the Anneke Jans international union. A sub-committee of 12 was appointed to select an attorney who will go to New York and look up the title of the estate and also will give an opinion as to whether the heirs have sufficient grounds on which to contest the church's right to ownership of the property.

It was stated by the secretary of the meeting that the heirs not only claim 193 acres and 75 square rods in the heart of New York city, valued at between $700,000,000 and $800,000,000, but also $80,000,000 worth of land in Holland. It was also stated that the number of claimants to this vast property, so far as discovered, number 1,310. These all claim to be descendants of Anneke Jans, the daughter of Wolfred Weler, a king of Holland. Anneke Jans came to America in the Mayflower and purchased land in New York known as "King's Garden," now possessed by the Trinity church corporation. The claimants assert that Jans never lost title to the property. The corporation claims that the title was given them by Queen Anne of England. Another meeting of the heirs will be held Wednesday.

WANTS $100,000.

The Pullman Palace Car Co. and the Rio Grande Railway Co. Sued for Damages.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Mrs. Lydia Spalding, who is a hotel keeper in San Francisco, brought suit Tuesday in the superior court against the Pullman Palace Car Co. and the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad Co., claiming $100,000 damages and alleging false arrest and imprisonment. The bill states that in June last Mrs. Spalding was traveling from San Francisco to Europe and that when the Rio Grande train stopped at Leadville she was taken from the Pullman sleeper by a deputy sheriff and locked in the jail. She declares she was only told that she was under arrest and that no charge was even made against her, nor was she taken into court. After being 48 hours in a filthy room with ten male prisoners she says she was released. The plaintiff also claims to have lost $8,000 in money, jewelry, steamship and railroad tickets, being obliged to buy new tickets in order to proceed to Europe. It is charged that the arrest was instigated by the Pullman company employes for the purpose of robbery. When she returned to San Francisco Mrs. Spalding says her friends regarded her with suspicion and her character has been placed under a cloud.
