The Rebels Attacked by Gen. Linares Near Mount Chambrazo.

Rebel Loss 11 Killed and 30 Wounded—Gen. Pratz Defeats the Insurgents in Guanajuato Mountains—Garrison at Jaruco Strengthened by Weyler.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The following dispatch was received by the Spanish minister Wednesday night:

HAVANA, Feb. 20.—Gen. Linares, who has been two days following the track of the enemy, attacked the rebel forces in the Porvenir hill, near Mount Chambrazo. The insurgents were defeated, losing 11 killed and 30 wounded.

Gen. Pratz met two days ago in the Guanajuato mountains a band of 1,000 insurgents, commanded by Varona y Sotolongo, and pursued them to the Pardinas plantation. The enemy lost five men killed. Thirteen horses were captured. Gen. Pratz went afterward with his column to Union de Reyes.

The volunteers have been defeated in the Josefo plantation by the bands of Garcia and Acevedo. Fifty men of the Sanquintin regiment reconnoitering in Savannah Guanajuato defeated a band of insurgents, killing two and capturing their horses and rifles.

HAVANA, Feb. 20.—Having received advice that Maceo had passed by the Santa Amelia plantation in the direction of Faparte and the Corea cattle ranch with 3,000 men, including 80 wounded in recent engagements with Col. Segura and other columns, and that Maximo Gomez with his forces arriving at the Morales plantation with the intention of uniting his forces with those of Maceo, I have reinforced the garrison of Jaruco with companies of the Guadalupe battalion and I have given orders to the columns of Cols. Galvis and Frances to go from Gabriel Santiago de Las Vegas through Havana by rail to take positions on the railroad to Matanzas between Jaruco and Arguacal. Six troops of cavalry commanded by Gen. Ruiz have gone from Bejuical to Cuatro Caminos on the road from Havana to Guines. Col. Segura is following the enemy. Gen. Alecca goes toward Carmen to meet the column of Hernandez that comes from Catalina. The command of Gen. Echaguis is at Guines. Gen. Pratz and Col. Molina are marching toward the mountains of Madruga from Union de Reyes and San Nicholas.

The bulk of the enemy seems heading towards the province of Matanzas and I propose by these combined movements to oblige him to fight—WEYLER.

FT. THOMAS MURDER.

Cochman Jackson Still Sticks to His Story—Scott Jackson's Letter to Will Wood.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 20.—Cochman George H. Jackson still adheres to his claim that he drove the cab on the fatal night. The police officials are inclined to believe his story. Of the rewards for new information disclosing the ownership of the vehicle used, $100 has been turned over to Mayor Caldwell, subject to his decision. Another reward of $500 is yet outstanding.

Will Wood, the third person implicated in the crime, says he received letters from Jackson which he destroyed, that contained damaging admissions. In one of them, written February 5, Jackson is alleged to have said that he had made a big mistake, and that he feared trouble. He begged Wood not to forsake him.

Wood says he burned all the letters, but that they were read to persons who will testify to the fact.

Wood will use his statement about these letters to prove that he was not in the city just prior to Pearl Bryan's death.

QUIT WORK.

Chicago Garment Cutters and Trimmers Go on a Strike.

An Effort to Have Them Do Piece Work, Practically Reducing Wages.

About Eight Hundred Men Walked Out Thursday Morning—This Affects All the Makers of Garments in the City, or Nearly 25,000 People in All.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—At a meeting of Lodge 61 of the United Garment Makers of America Wednesday night the cutters and trimmers of Chicago declared a general strike excluding about ten clothiers against whom there is no grievance.

The cutters and trimmers in the city have been working on a minimum salary of $30 weekly and now an effort is being made to have them do piece work, which will, in many cases, reduce wages. It is against this that the men protest.

About eight hundred men left work Thursday morning. This will affect all the makers of garments and the families of all concerned, and it is estimated that over 25,000 people will be affected by the strike. The cutters assert that they have plenty of money to sustain the strike and that it is an opportune time for declaring their reasons, as it is nearing the end of a season and they would in any event be idle for a short time. The cutters are all ordered out at once. No committees have been appointed to wait on the manufacturers, but the cutters themselves wait to be approached for a settlement of difficulties.

THE MINE HORROR.

Number of Lives Lost is Fifty-Five—Several Bodies Taken Out.

NEW CASTLE, COL., Feb. 20.—The number of lives lost in the Vulcan mine explosion, according to the coroner's list, is 55. The officers of the company have checked up their lamp list, which shows that 51 lamps were issued that morning to miners, so that it is probable that 55 will about cover the casualties of the explosion. Four bodies were recovered up to three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the deadly gas still preventing a thorough search of the long slope and the many chambers. A temporary fan was set up and a vigorous effort made to clear the mine of its deadly fumes, but as all ventilation must be done through the slope this is a slow process. Fortunately it was fully proven Wednesday morning that the mine did not become fired by the explosion and after the debris at the first 300 feet of slope was removed all further obstructions seems to have been overcome and nothing but the black damp now prevents the rescue of the bodies of the dead men.
