Up at B. E. Stoehr's, on Fifth street, there is to be seen a most remarkable dog—one which is two years and a-half old, and has never known the convenience of having four legs on which to get about. The dog is a big pug, and is the property of Hibbard Stoehr, of Wheeling. Where the dog's fore legs should drop out he is almost perfectly smooth. He seems to get about as much comfort out of life as the average dog—possibly more, for he is a great pet with his owner. When the animal wants to get about he springs up by means of his neck, and gets upon his hind legs, upon which he walks very well. The owner of the dog has an idea of putting a wheel under the animal's breast, so that it may be on more even terms with others of the dog creation. The dog was the only one to live out of a litter of nine.

The Ideal Panacea.

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." #### RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

The towboat J. C. Risher, owned by S. S. Crump & Co., sunk two coal-boats and struck two barges against the bank at an early hour at Merriman, the scene of so many recent river disasters. The Risher was on her way to Louisville with a tow of five pieces and was being assisted by the towboat Acorn. The accident is said to have been caused by the breaking of a tiller rope. Only one barge was saved, but it is possible that those that are stuck may be floated off. The sunken boats contained 50,000 bushels of coal. By reason of their frail construction it is hardly probable that they can be raised. The position of the wreck is such that the channel is not blocked, and the Acorn proceeded toward Louisville with her tow.

The stage of water in the Ohio last night was 10.6-10 feet and falling. The Allegheny ice which started past this point about 12 o'clock Tuesday night, had thinned out somewhat before this morning and now offers little impediment to navigation.

AFTER DINNER

when you have eaten heartily, you should take one only of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Your stomach and liver need the gentle stimulating as well as invigorating effect of these tiny, sugar-coated granules. If you feel drowsy, inert, languid, indigestibly tired or debilitated; if you've no appetite and frequent headaches or dizziness, a furred or coated tongue—it proves that you're bilious. In that case you should use the "Pellets." They are anti-bilious granules, which act in a prompt and natural way, without griping.

BEST PILLS FOR THE LIVER.
ROBERT MANSON, of West Eye, Washington, Co., N. H., writes: "Three years ago I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; I weighed 140 pounds, and now I weigh 175 pounds, so you see how I have gained in health and weight. Doctor Pierce's Pellets are the best pills I ever took for the liver. All my friends say they do them the most good."

LIVER PILLS.
MR. SAMUEL BAKER, Sr., of No. 167 Summit Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "There is nothing that can compare with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, as Liver Pills. They have done more good than any other medicine I have ever taken." MR. S. BAKER, Sr.
