ICE ONE CENT

ANGRY MOB

Of 3,000 People Parade the Streets of Valencia.

They Shout "Death to the Yankees," And In Other Ways Show

Their Disapproval of the United States Attitude on the Cuban Question—Governors of Provinces Ordered to Suppress These Demonstrations.

MADRID, March 7.—The demonstrations in Valencia continued Friday. A mob numbering fully 3,000 persons paraded the streets, shouting "Death to the Yankees," and in other ways showing their disapproval of the attitude of the United States on the Cuban question. The mob would have made a further attack on the American consulate, but the government had taken steps to prevent this, and had placed a strong guard in the streets adjacent to the building, and the rioters were thus prevented from approaching. The crowd proceeded to the French consulate and cheered enthusiastically for France, this action being due to the belief that France would actively assist Spain in the event of trouble with America. The French consul appeared on a balcony and bowed his acknowledgments.

The reports of anti-Spanish manifestations in the United States has added greatly to the excitement in the large cities and towns.

Three mountain batteries embarked at Barcelona Friday for Cuba. The warships Vizcaya, Oquendo and Marie Tereza will be ready to go into commission at the end of March. The Alfonso XIII and Delayo will be ready for service at the beginning of April.

Hon. Hannis Taylor, the American minister, had a long interview with the duke of Tetuan, the minister of foreign affairs. The government has reiterated its orders to governors of various provinces to firmly suppress manifestations against the United States.

WILL BE SIMPLE.

The Funeral Services Over the Remains of Archbishop Kenrick.

St. Louis, March 7.—The funeral of Archbishop Kenrick on Wednesday will be as severely simple as the custom of the church will permit, though the full service over a dead prince of the church will be carried out. Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, who was the life-long friend of the late archbishop, will pronounce the panegyric. All the archbishops and bishops of the country are invited to attend. The remains will lie in state at the old cathedral on Walnut street for two days. Archbishop Kain will be the officiating dignitary at the funeral and will be assisted by the local clergy. The effect of the archbishop's death is still felt and already a movement is started to erect a memorial monument over the grave of the deceased.

A Peculiar Robbery.

CHICAGO, May 7.—James W. Sheridan, a retired capitalist and part owner of the Shufelt distillery, was held up Friday night by two foot-pads at Taylor street and Ashland avenue, within five minutes' walk of his residence, and robbed of a $300 gold watch, a $250 diamond stud and a small sum of cash. A peculiar feature of the affair was the fact that Sheridan was compelled to say good evening in a suave manner to some friends who chanced to pass by under penalty of death, one of the robbers holding a cocked revolver close to his victim's body.

Appropriation Bill Passes the House.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—After seven day's consideration, four of which were devoted to the fee and salary amendment, the house Friday passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

BUCKEYE NEWS.

New and Interesting Happenings Within Our Borders.

Lumber Fire at Cincinnati.
CINCINNATI, March 7.—At 11 o'clock Saturday morning fire entirely destroyed a saw mill and its machinery, valued at $12,000, and about $2,000 of lumber, the property of the Tennessee Lumber Co., on the bank of the river, at Sixth and Front streets. The building had $5,250 insurance, while the loss on lumber is fully covered. The mill is but part of the company's plant. As it was not in use there is considerable mystery as to the origin of the blaze.

McKinley Forces Successful in Akron.
CLEVELAND, O., March 7.—A special to the Press from Akron, O., says: The McKinley forces were successful in every ward in this city and township in the county. Maj. Dick, McKinley's choice for delegate to St. Louis, was successful everywhere. Col. A. L. Conger, who was opposed to Dick, will not even be a delegate to the state convention. The fight was the most bitter in years. Conger was snuffed under in his own ward.

The Primary Election in Franklin County.
COLUMBUS, O., March 7.—The returns from the republican county primary elections Friday evening came in slowly. Out of the city returns now received, Kurtz and Bliss, Foraker candidates for delegates to the national convention, have 28, and Taylor and Huggins, the McKinley candidates, have only eight delegates. It is altogether likely that the Foraker faction has carried the county by a large majority.

Saved by Her Teacher.

LIMA, O., March 7.—Pearl Wells, a little girl in the primary room at the High street school, while trying to keep some boys from taking her jumping rope, caught hold of a tree and the rope was wound about her so tight that she could not move or breathe. CINCINNATI, March 7.—Judge Buchwalter Saturday afternoon found all the papers regular and legal in the Jackson-Walling cases, and at the same time dismissed the suits in habeas corpus, which had been filed on behalf of the prisoners and remanded them to Sheriff Archibald and granted a stay of execution until next Saturday, when the matter will be heard on error in the circuit court.

Preparations had been made to railroad the suspected murderers of Pearl Bryan to Kentucky. While Judge Buchwalter was rendering his decision a carriage on the north side of Court street was waiting. A patrol wagon was also held in readiness. The judge's decision made all these preparations useless.

Bourbon Bonnel, 2:22, five years old, a son of Bourbon Wilkes, was bought by F. P. Hawkins, of New Harmony, Ind., for $1,450. Tip O'Tip, 3:12 1/2, the once famous pacer of the double string was struck off to C. M. McConnell, of Terre Haute, for $425. Col. Watson, 2:27 1/2, was sold to Paul Kuhn, of Terre Haute, for $360. DEAD LOCK CONTINUES.

Two Fruitless Ballots Taken in the Kentucky Legislature Saturday.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 7.—Speaker Blanford (rep.) Saturday voted for Carlisle for senator. An attempt was made to elect him with the aid of republican votes. The scheme failed, however, the first ballot resulting: Boyle, 59; Blackburn, 69; Carlisle, 5.

The second ballot started off as harmlessly as the first. The republicans declined to vote and the original Carlisle democrats went back to him.

Enough republicans refrained from voting to break a quorum.

The second ballot resulted: Blackburn, 49; Carlisle, 15. This not being a quorum, a motion to adjourn carried.

The casket fell on the mother of the dead girl, breaking her foot. All those injured were women except the undertaker. Broken bones were the most serious of their injuries.

EXTRAVAGANCE.

A Pay Roll That is Growing Alarmingly.

Senator Chandler Calls Attention to the Senate's Expenditures,

And Asks for an Investigation—An Army of Men to Wait on Senators—The Pay Roll Increased From $317,931 in 1897, to $421,250 in 1895.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—In support of his resolution looking to the retrenchment of expenditures in the senate, Senator Chandler has sent a letter to Chairman Pritchard, of the committee on civil service and retrenchment, and Senator Jones, chairman of the committee on contingent expenses of the senate, in which he calls attention to the many extravagant expenditures of the body he now seeks to have investigated.

Senator Chandler accompanies his letter with a table of facts by which he draws some very interesting conclusions.

According to the figures submitted the senate employes receive about $482,000 annually. The annual pay roll has increased from $317,931 in 1887, to $481,280 in 1895, and was higher than this by $13,000 in 1894. It was increased $20,742 in 1888 and $94,454 in 1889; decreased $45,793 in 1890, and increased again $81,725 in 1891. A wave of economy reduced the expenses of the senate again in 1892 by $14,100, but the following year they were again increased $61,394. A further increase of $7,897 was made in 1894 and last year occurred a reduction again of $12,881.

The net increase since 1888 has been $163,348. The total increase in all expenditures has been $418,092, and the total decrease $317,124, leaving a net increase of $200,968.

"It will be seen by these figures," Mr. Chandler says, "that there are about four employes to each of the 99 senators. Deduct the policemen and there still remain 338 persons engaged in attendance upon senators."

He then proceeds to compare the pay roll of the senate employes with the expenses of the military academy at West point, and says:

"It is impossible that the public service requires such outlays. For the comfort within the senate wing of 90 senators, and to enable them to perform their functions, it can not be possible that 338 officers and employes, at an annual salary of $450,000, are necessary. There is fault in some one, I do not know whom, there is extravagance somewhere."

Zinc Production in the United States.
WASHINGTON, March 7.—The United States geological survey has just completed, through Mr. Charles Kirchoff, special agent, the collection of the statistics of the production of zinc in the United States during the year 1895; as follows:

Zinc productions—short tons:
Eastern.....	1895 1894
Southern.....	2,984 7,409
Illinois and Indiana.....	3,677 1,373
Kansas.....	25,732 28,972
Missouri.....	25,775 25,588
Missouri.....	14,628 11,092
Total.....	80,653 tons
As against.....	76,328

From this it appears that the year 1895 breaks the record for great product, the maximum in any previous year having been 87,260 short tons in 1892. The increase is particularly evident in the Illinois-Indiana region.
