Martial Law Proclaimed in the City of Valencia.

Attempt Made to Hold a Meeting to Express Anti-American Sentiments.

The Crowd Dispersed by the Gendarmes—The Police of Bilbao Prevent an Attack on the American Consulate—Small Disturbances at Saragossa.

MADRID, March 9.—The action of the mob element in Valencia became so threatening Sunday that martial law was proclaimed in that city Sunday night. A crowd numbering fully ten thousand persons met for the purpose of holding a meeting to express anti-American sentiments. The authorities had issued an order forbidding the holding of such meetings, but no attention was paid to it. The gendarmes at the bull ring refused to allow the mob to enter and were told that they were traitors to Spain. Then several persons in the crowd cried "Long live the Republic," whereupon the gendarmes charged the mob. The crowd answered with several revolver shots, one of the gendarmes being seriously wounded in the chest. The situation had assumed such a menacing aspect that orders were given to the gendarmes to fire upon the mob. A volley was fired from the carbines carried by the gendarmes and the crowd scurried for shelter. It is not known positively whether anybody was shot or not, but it is believed that the volley was fired over the heads of the rioters. Later the courage of the crowd returned, and with augmented numbers the mob marched through the streets shouting: "Long live Spain," "Death to the Yankees."

The police and gendarmes repeatedly opposed the crowd, but their efforts to restore order were not of the slightest avail. The governor of the province then proclaimed martial law and any further rioting will be dealt with sternly by the military power.

The governor, acting under imperative orders from Madrid, had concentrated a strong force around the American consulate. The crowd attempted to pass these guards, but were unable to do so. Then they hurled insults at the American government and American people. Sunday night the city was quiet, the mob not having the courage to face the troops who are awaiting orders to deal with rioters.

There was several small disturbances Sunday at Saragossa but the authorities were alert and determined and the rioters were easily dispersed.

At Bilbao, a crowd of 500 persons attempted to make an attack upon the American consulate but were prevented by the police.

At Victoria, posters were put upon walls declaring that Spain must go to war with the United States and put a curb on Yankee arrogance.

THE REPUBLICANS.

State Convention at Columbus Tuesday—Candidates Establish Headquarters

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—Candidates for nomination by the republican state convention, which meets here on Tuesday, are coming in and opening headquarters. E. W. Doty, of Cleveland, and Chas. Kinney, of Portsmouth, candidates for secretary of state, and F. A. Derthick, of Chardon, and F. H. McNeal, of Troy, candidates for state food commissioner, came here Sunday. The contest for these two places is very lively. Kinney seems to have the lead for secretary of state. The grocery trade in general is taking a hand in the food commissionership, trying to defeat Dr. McNeal, the present commissioner, who, they claim, has been very arbitrary and severe in administration of the office. The stalling of the investigation he demanded in the house on Friday, however, is reacting in McNeal's favor. He will probably be nominated. M. J. Williams will probably be nominated for a third term on the supreme bench and Representative Frank Huffman, of Van Wert, for board of public works.

Foraker will be temporary president of the convention and John P.ardon, of Painesville, secretary. There will be no contest over the selection of delegates-at-large. They will be Gov. Bushnell, Senator Foraker, Mark A. Hanna and either C. H. Grosvenor or Senator Sherman. Strong McKinley resolutions will be adopted.

DESPERATE PRINTER.

He Attempts to Murder His Wife, Then Stabs Himself in the Breast.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—A desperate attempt to commit murder and suicide was made by Hurrinan Jaenichen, a printer at 1046 Jaeger street, Sunday afternoon, while under the influence of liquor. With a heavy poker he dealt his wife five blows over the head with such force that the poker was twisted like a corkscrew and the scalp was cut away in large pieces. Thinking he had killed her he stabbed himself 19 times in the breast with a dagger. He was taken to the Protestant hospital, where he now lies in a very critical condition. The woman's skull is not fractured and she will probably recover.

The burglars entered the front door and thoroughly ransacked every room in the house.

She was shot in the head, arm and back, but will probably survive. His wound is not serious though it is in the breast. The ball struck a rib. Jealousy the cause.

EDICTS ISSUED.

They Are Expected to Bring Many Out of the Rebels' Ranks.

All Those Who Desert the Cuban Cause Will Be Pardoned.

Dirce Punishment Threatened Those Who Continue to Fight—Complete Military Occupation of All Parts of Two Provinces—Cruelties Possible.

NEW YORK, March 9.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: Capt. Gen. Weyler has issued two highly important edicts which are expected to bring out of the rebel ranks many persons who are willing to avail themselves of his proffered pardon on the conditions named. The insurgents are well aware that 18,000 troops have arrived as reinforcements during the last three weeks, and that fact is counted upon to influence many of them. The proposed amnesty, however, is qualified by so many limitations that Cubans generally are disposed to doubt whether many rebels will surrender under its terms. The first edict applies only to the provinces of Pinar Del Rio and Havana, where the government entertains the most sanguine hope of being able to hold the coming elections.

The primary purpose of the first five articles of the edict seems to be to perfect the complete military occupation of all parts of those provinces, including such towns and villages as have been hitherto more or less under rebel influence, thus clearing the way for the coming elections by bringing all the country districts under direct government protection. These five articles practically place under the bandit laws of Spain all insurgent bands still operating in the western provinces. The civil guards, who are to be mobilized there, are the special foes of that class of outlaws. As Solomayer, son of the commander-in-chief of the Chilian army, is now reported to be in command of the rebels operating in Pinar Del Rio, his forces are included in that category of law-breakers.

Articles six to eight provide for the confiscation of the property of all rebels who fail to avail themselves of the offered amnesty within a period of 15 days, and specify the limitations under which pardon may be granted. Persons guilty of overt acts, such as robbing, looting or burning property, are not eligible, and if they have been connected with the bands engaged in such work they must purge themselves of individual guilt.

Article nine is aimed especially at local officials who have deserted their posts in time of danger.

Article ten makes all residents along the lines of railroad or telegraph responsible for prompt information of damage done to such systems, and exacts their active co-operation in the maintenance of repairs.

As the insurgents are in the habit of hanging or shooting persons engaged in such tasks, this article, if vigorously enforced, is likely to lead to great hardships.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

A Maniac, on the Street, Shoots One Man to Death, Fatally Wounds Two and Injures Seven Others.

LOCKPORT, Ont., March 9.—One of the most terrible tragedies ever enacted here occurred shortly before noon Monday resulting in the instant death of one man, the probable fatal wounding of two or three others and the injury of seven more. About fifteen minutes to 12 o'clock a man named LaPoint made his appearance on Perth street, carrying a double-barreled breech-loading shotgun. When almost opposite the Opera House block he met an old man named Peter Moore and, raising the gun to his shoulder, took deliberate aim and shot him dead. Chief of Police Rose was coming out of his office at police headquarters at this moment and ran towards the scene of the tragedy. LaPoint shot at him, the charge taking effect in his breast and head. LaPoint then fired at an old Indian named Dickson, the charge entering his head and neck. Constable Linsley arrived on the scene and found LaPoint shooting right and left. Linsley shot at LaPoint with his revolver, but missed him, and before he could shoot a second time LaPoint shot him in the head and neck. A young man picked up the constable's revolver, and going to the upstairs window of a store opposite, fired at and struck the maniac. LaPoint fired into the window, smashing it to atoms. He then dropped and was quickly captured and placed in the cell. Chief Rose is terribly wounded, and it is doubtful whether he will live. Constable Linsley is badly wounded but will recover. The Indian Dickson will also recover. Seven bystanders were wounded, but not dangerously. LaPoint is an expert shot, and spends most of his time hunting. He has shown signs of insanity at times. Lately he has been drinking heavily.

Rear-Admiral Walker Succumbs to Heart Failure.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 9.—Rear-Admiral Walker, U. S. N., died Sunday afternoon at his home in this city. He had been suffering since Tuesday last with a severe attack of the grip, but the immediate cause of death was heart failure. He was born on a plantation on the Lynn Haven river, Virginia, 88 years ago. During the war of the rebellion he commanded the gunboats Taylor and Lexington, and protected Gen. Grant's army while it was making its retreat on the transports. He was also at the battle of Ft. Henry in charge of the gunboat Carondelet. Not one of the men aboard met with any accident. For this piece of work the commander was honorably mentioned. In 1862, for his bravery he was made a captain; in 1866 made a commodore and rear admiral in 1870. One year later he retired.
