MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Mr. Adam Gedle and Miss Carrie Sudor, two well known young people of the East End, were united in marriage Monday night.

—Read Jones' Special Bargain Ad.

—Parkersburg is bound to have a base ball team this season and a number of public spirited citizens have subscribed several hundred dollars to get it on its feet. It is an example that Marietta might well emulate.

—Miss Kate Van Bergen of Marietta who has been the guest of her sister Mrs. W. A. Calder for the past two weeks, returned home today.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

—Will Foreman returned home Tuesday morning from Nashville, Tenn.

—Mrs. J. C. McDonald, of Chicago, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hutchins.

—Second millinery opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Bee Hive Store.

—A. L. Gracey is in Cairo, W. Va., looking after his extensive oil interests in that field.

—Mrs. Henry Bohl of Columbus, is in city, the guest of her son Henry G. Bohl.

—On Tuesday, through the Ward & Stone real estate agency, Mrs. Sarah C. Dornan sold four lots in Warner's subdivision to the following persons: Mrs. Ann Harris, Charles Crickard, A. W. Pierce and W. H. H. Jett.

—In "Squire Guyton's" court Tuesday a warrant was issued for the arrest of Valentine Mercer, of Tunnel, on the charge of embezzlement. He was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Constable J. H. Dye. The charge is made by Reneker, Linkhorn & Co., cattle dealers, who claim that Mr. Mercer appropriated to his own use $100 of money belonging to them and with which he should have bought cattle.

—The Twilight Fishing Club dance at the West Side I. O. O. F. Hall Tuesday night was largely attended and a great social success.

—Prof. M. R. Andrews returned Tuesday night from Muskingum county.

—The very latest styles in wash goods at Chas. Jones', 173 Front St.

—Jacob Gedel, who is employed in the Sand Hill oil field, met with a serious accident Tuesday. He stepped on a nail which punctured his shoe and penetrated his foot to the depth of several inches. He immediately came to the city and the wound was dressed by Drs. Hart and McClure.

—The prospects for a large attendance at the Board of Trade banquet are good. Music by the orchestra, after dinner speeches and a fine menu are promised.

—One hundred pairs lace curtains at reduced prices at Bee Hive.

—The American Express Company has opened a branch office in Styer's Putnam street Drug Store, where packages will be received for and money orders sold. This will be a great convenience to up-town people, and no doubt will be largely patronized. The creation of this branch is quite an enterprise on the part of Mr. Audibert.

—Mr. John C. Freund, editor of "Music Trades" was in Marietta Tuesday, looking about the city. He is a man well posted in musical matters, and he paid high tribute of praise to the Steyens Organ, made here.

—George P. Slocumb is in the market with the finest lot of tomato plants in the city. They are of several varieties, including the "Acme, Mammoth and Matchless."

—Dr. and Mrs. John W. Simpson left Tuesday for Cincinnati to attend the Commencement exercises of Lane Theological seminary.

—W. E. Mason, deputy United States marshal for the Southern district of Ohio, passed through the city, Monday, on his way to High Hill to arrest John and Hattie A. Careins for sending obscene letters through the mails. The letters were sent last January to Mrs. Martha Barnhouse, of the High Hill neighborhood, and were vulgar in the extreme.—Zanesville Times Recorder.

—Several cases of scarlet fever are reported at Bartlett.

—Thomas Gent has returned from a business visit at Bartlett.

—The Criminal Court grand jury at Wheeling reported 410 indictments, most of them against saloon keepers.

—The Cow Run M. E. Church will give a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lane, Saturday evening, May 9. All are invited.

—Mrs. Martin Wendelken, Sr., is very sick at her home on Washington street, and there are fears that she may not recover.

—The date of the Choral Society concert is fixed for the 23d of May. The concert promises to be one of the highest artistic order. The principal parts will be taken by Marietta's finest soloists.

—Grand millinery opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week at Bee Hive.

—Squire E. E. Guyton was at Belpre Tuesday on business.

—Beginning next Sunday the every-other-week services at the County Infirmary will be resumed. Rev. Dr. Gear will conduct the first service.

—Extensive preparations are being made in this city for the entertainment of the Ohio Association of Congregational churches, which meets here May 13th, 14th, 15th. The occasion is the 100th anniversary of the founding of the church in the Northwest territory and it is especially fitting that the centennial meeting should be held in Marietta. From 150 to 200 delegates are expected to be present and they will be furnished entertainment in private houses. The program prepared is extensive and interesting and will be published later.

—Friday night of this week the Aeolian Club, composed of young ladies and gentlemen of the West Side will give a concert in Gilman Avenue M. E. Church. The concert promises to be a very fine event, as the members have for some time been preparing themselves for the occasion. The numbers will have considerable variety, and will be both instrumental and vocal.

—You should see those beautiful Dress Goods at Jones'.

—Mr. H. M. Dyer left yesterday afternoon for Baltimore, to attend a convention for the improvement of municipal affairs. He will probably remain a week in Baltimore.

—The dog, "Jerry", belonging to Miss Rowena Buell, died last night from strychnine poisoning. Jerry was a common favorite with the children the town over, and he will be missed.

—A horse belonging to the Marietta Transfer Co. made things lively near the Court House, by running away with a wagon tongue attached to him. He couldn't escape the thing, and it threw him twice, though without injury.

—For lace curtains, shirt waists, handkerchiefs, hosiery, silk mits, towels, toweling, table cloth goods and napkins go to the Bee Hive.

—At St. Luke's Episcopal Church Friday evening will be held a musicale of a most attractive nature, to which the public generally is invited. The admission will be 25 cents.

—Tomorrow evening annual meeting and election of officers of the Epworth League of the German M. E. Church. A large attendance of the membership is requested.

—Philander Westbrook, of the Sand Hill neighborhood, was arraigned before Squire Palmer Tuesday on the charge of assault and battery, complaint having been made by Philemon Young and wife. Charles Westbrook, his brother, was also arraigned on the same charge on complaint of Mrs. Young alone. Both defendants pleaded not guilty and their hearing was set for May 7th. The trouble grew out of a dispute over a line between two pieces of real estate.

—Mr. Charles Hildebrand, the well known and popular driver for the Adams Express Company, was married Tuesday evening to Miss Mabel Petrie, daughter of Charles Petrie, Eighth street. Their numerous friends are extending congratulations.

—George Hannold has resigned his position with A. W. Hutchison to enter the service of City Engineer Mason as assistant.

—Special sale of lace curtains at Bee Hive.

—A meeting of unusual importance to the Masonic fraternity of this city and vicinity is called for this evening at the Commandery rooms on Putnam street at 7 o'clock. The meeting will be an open one, for business, to which every Mason, whether a member of a local organization or a sojourner, is cordially invited. Take due notice and don't forget the hour, 7 p. m. sharp.

—Pipeman Bisantz, of the Fire Department, is laid up with a felon on his hand.

—The funeral of George Harrison, Jr., will take place at the Congregational church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.
