

THE BISHOP

And Father Matkowski Assaulted at Bay City, Mich.

Father Turski Faction, of the Polish Church, the Assailants.

The Bishop Kicked by an Enraged Pole, Not Seriously Hurt—Matkowski Struck on Several Times and his Cussock and Surplice Torn to Shreds.

BAY CITY, Mich., May 11.—Bishop Richter, of Grand Rapids, and Father Matkowski, pastor of St. Stanislaus Polish church of this city, were pounced upon by the Father Turski faction of the congregation and badly used Sunday morning. Matkowski was struck several times and his cussock and surplice were torn to shreds. The bishop was kicked by an enraged pole but not seriously injured. His robes were also torn.

St. Stanislaus church was closed two weeks ago when the adherents of Father Turski, Father Matkowski's assistant, drove the senior priest from the parish. It was believed that the trouble had blown over and that the exposure of Turski's attempt to blackmail Father Matkowski had brought them to their senses and caused them to desire the return of their old pastor, a man of great learning and high character. Bishop Richter and Father Matkowski opened the church Sunday morning and caused the sexton to toll the bell. The peals of the great bell brought hundreds of excited people to the church.

They set upon Bishop Richter and the priest and drove them from the building. A few of the Matkowski faction attempted to preserve the clergyman from indignity, but were overpowered. The police and sheriff's force were called out, but were unable to quiet the mob.

The church was locked and Bishop Richter and Father Matkowski were escorted to a place of safety. Bishop Richter stated Sunday night that he would open the church next Sunday. He has been assured of police protection by Mayor Weight. There was a great deal of inflammatory talking in the Polish quarters Sunday night, and it is feared that an attempt will be made to burn the church and convent before morning. Turski, the cause of all the trouble, is a young man, but was only recently ordained to the priesthood. Father Matkowski discharged a housekeeper of whom Turski was enamored. This caused Turski to blackmail the venerable priest out of $10,000. He did not get the money, but he spread stories reflecting on Father Matkowski's character, but they were disproved.

Gov. Foster's Second Inauguration.

NEW ORLEANS, May 11.—A telegram from Baton Rouge says that all the members of the legislature are on hand and that all indications are that Gov. Foster will be inaugurated for his second term with scarcely a ripple to disturb the proceedings. Many sensational stories have been sent abroad about what is going to happen at the state capital, but the armed men who it was said would be there to see Capt. Pharr, the populist-republican candidate for governor, who claims he was elected, have failed to materialize.

THE TOWBOAT

Harry Brown Blows Up a Few Miles South of Vicksburg.

Eleven Lives Were Lost, Including Norman X. Dravo, Pilot.

Five Others Were Injured, One Probably Fatally—The Wash Honshell Was in the Vicinity at the Time and Helped to Save Several Lives.

VICKSBURG, Miss., May 11.—The towboat Harry Brown, up-bound, exploded her boiler at 11 o'clock Sunday night 25 miles south of this city. The boat was blown to atoms and sunk out of sight in less than five minutes. Eleven lives were lost, including Norman X. Dravo, one of the pilots; George W. Bardsley, the steermans; Wm. Dougherty, chief engineer; Chambermaid Annie Hess, Tom Judge and William Wilson, firemen; First Mate William Fitzsimmons, George Keirn, second mate, and William Kelly, lamp trimmer.

The bodies of the last three named were recovered, and were brought to this city by the steamer Wash Honshell, as were also the wounded and others of the crew saved. The Honshell was in sight of the Brown when the accident happened. The wounded in the Marine Hospital are Capt. John Keirn, master, hip seriously injured; William Grimes, carpenter, leg broken; John Hardy, fireman, scalded badly; Dan Kane, pilot, slightly injured; Dan Delaney, second engineer, scalded, and it is feared fatally injured. Capt. Keirn was in the pilot house with the pilot, Kane, when the accident occurred, and was blown to the stern of the boat on the hurricane reef. Although seriously injured he remained on the cabin roof of the Brown and directed the work of rescue of the wounded and others of the boat's crew that were in the water.

The steamer Harry Brown arrived in New Orleans Thursday night from Louisville with coal barges and was returning up the river with a tow of empty barges. The Harry Brown is owned by St. Louis parties and valued at about $20,000. The boat carried a crew of 30 roustabouts.

The towboat Harry Brown was built at Pittsburgh in 1879. She was classed as one of the largest and most powerful boats on the Ohio or Mississippi rivers. Her dimensions are registered as follows: 210 feet long, 40½ feet beam and 6 feet hold. She was commanded by Capt. John Kern, of Pittsburgh.

UNFORESEEN NECESSITY

Will Compel the Building of a Hall for the Republican National Convention. ST. LOUIS, May 11.—The unforeseen necessity of building a hall suitable for the republican national convention has entailed an extra expense of $20,000 upon the Business Men's league, which body secured the convention and assumed financial responsibility. To meet this extra outlay the league yesterday issued an announcement that they had secured a number of admission tickets from the Republican national committee, and would sell them at $40 per set. This action receives scanty indorsement from the public. Opinion among leading citizens not members of the league is that that body is peddling the credit of the city.

The Execution Postponed.

DURANGO Mexico, May 11.—The state department gave out the following Monday morning: "In the Competitor case it can be authoritatively stated that at the request of the United States the Spanish government will postpone execution of the death sentences upon American citizens until the views of the United States respecting the application to their cases of the treaty of 1795 and the protocol of 1877 can be presented and considered."

ARGUMENTS BEGIN.

Judge Helm Charges the Scott Jackson Jury and Col. Nelson Makes the Opening Speech.

NEWPORT, Ky., May 11.—Judge Helm's court opened at the usual hour Monday morning. After the routine business was disposed of by the judge the fourth week of the murder trial began by Judge Helm ordering the jury brought into the courtroom. Judge Helm read the instructions to the jury, who were seated in their chairs and faced the court.

If the jury finds that Scott Jackson cut the throat of Pearl Bryan and she died from the result, they will bring in a verdict of murder. They believe that Alonzo Walling did the killing and the defendant was present and abetted in the crime, they will find Scott Jackson guilty of murder.

If the jury believe from the evidence that the defendant attempted, or aided, or abetted, or counseled, or procured another to attempt the murder, but that she was not thereby killed, but believing her dead, for whatsoever purpose cut her throat, the jury shall find him guilty of murder; or if he attempted to kill Alonzo Walling and the throat-cutting, they should find him guilty of murder. If Jackson conspired to produce an abortion, and believing the girl was thereby killed and her throat afterward cut, it was murder; or if the girl was killed by Jackson in sudden heat or passion, or sudden anger, it was murder; or Walling did the killing and Jackson abetted, it was murder.

If the jury believes that Scott Jackson willfully, but not with malice, administered, or aided or abetted, or counseled, or procured another to administer a drug to produce an abortion, but were not necessarily dangerous to her life, and there was no intent on the part of Jackson to seriously injure the girl, but that she died from the result, the jury shall find him guilty of murder; or if the girl was killed by Jackson in sudden heat or passion, or sudden anger, it was murder; or Walling did the killing and Jackson abetted, it was murder.

If the jury believes that Scott Jackson willfully, but not with malice, administered, or aided or abetted, or counseled, or procured another to administer a drug to produce an abortion, but were not necessarily dangerous to her life, and there was no intent on the part of Jackson to seriously injure the girl, but that she died from the result, the jury shall find him guilty of murder; or if the girl was killed by Jackson in sudden heat or passion, or sudden anger, it was murder; or Walling did the killing and Jackson abetted, it was murder.

If the jury entertain a reasonable doubt of the defendant having been proven guilty, they will acquit him.

If the jury find that the defendant, Scott Jackson, guilty of murder they will fix his punishment at death or confinement in the penitentiary for life, in their discretion, governed by the proof.

If the jury find the defendant, Scott Jackson, guilty of involuntary manslaughter, they will fix his punishment by a fine in any amount or imprisonment in the county jail for any length of time, either or both, in their discretion, governed by the proof.

Col. Nelson then arose and addressed the jury for the commonwealth. He gave the defendant a terrible scolding. There were no words too bitter for the gifted attorney to utter in court. "The dead girl looked upon him as a God but he proved to be a demon." We want punishment for a brute who not only murdered an unsuspecting girl, but butchered her and threw her body like a dog's on the public highway. I tell you I will not be satisfied, the commonwealth will not be satisfied, the civilized world that has watched this case will not be satisfied. If you do not find this brute guilty of murder and sentence him to be hanged by the neck until dead, dead, dead!

MISSOURI'S SOURCE.

Col. J. V. Brower, State Geographer of Minnesota, Makes a Discovery.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 11.—Col. J. V. Brower, state geographer of Minnesota, has discovered that the source of the Missouri river is 4,221 miles from the gulf of Mexico. He finds that the largest upper branch of the Missouri does not flow through the lower Red Rock lake, in Montana, but comes from a hole in the mountains, volcanic in its true character, at the summit of the Rocky mountains, west of Henry's lake, Idaho, and at a point bordering the state boundary between that state and Montana. The miniature rivulet, at its commencement, striving to secure existence from the inner walls of the surrounding volcanic vents, near perpetual snow banks, has, by its capacity, cut its way out from the rugged and precipitous mountain uplifts of enormous size, until a solid mountain of rock has been severed in twain, a canyon formed, and assuming the proportions of a river, flowing into and through upper Red Rock lake, 20 miles, its source in the mountains, then westwardly, northerly and northeastwardly past Red Butte and Beaver Head Rock to the forks, thence to the Mississippi, and thence to the Gulf of Mexico, through and past thirteen states.

Peculiar Fatal Accident.

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—The wife and children of Michael Peters, a butcher, went to the cemetery Sunday, Peters took his razor and commenced cutting his corns. The blade slipped and cut an artery in his left leg. Peters tried to stop the flow by tying a cord above the cut, but failed. He then raised a window to call for help, but was too weak to hold up the sash and the sash pinioned his neck where he bled to death. His wife found him dead in the position indicated.

Bloody Sunday in St. Louis.

BUFFALO WOMAN

Follows Her Faithless Lover to Cleveland and Shoots Him.

CLEVELAND, O., May 11.—Martha Mataren, a member of the L X H Shirt Co., of Buffalo, came here Sunday in pursuit of her lover, Dave H. Lane, a shirt manufacturer of this city who left her six months ago. She brought a pistol with her, but was all smiles and went riding with him. Sunday night she managed to get him alone with her in the rooms over his shirt factory. She at once drew the gun and shot him in the right groin, inflicting a wound which will probably prove fatal. She then turned the gun on herself, but her corset stopped the bullet, so that only a bruise resulted. She was locked up by the police. One of the things she brought with her from Buffalo was a novel entitled "Two Bad Blue Eyes." In the book she had marked the passage where a woman shot her faithless lover in very much the manner she pursued.

She was placed under arrest, charged with murder. The woman was pardoned from the penitentiary four weeks ago. She was serving a term for bigamy. She came here four weeks ago and was living with McKenzie, leading the neighbors to suppose they were man and wife. The reason for the crime is thought to be an insurance policy made in her favor.

Here it is said that tugs put aboard the steamship early Sunday morning 500 tons of arms and 1,500 tons of ammunition. Besides these munitions of war, 60 men went aboard the Laurada. These men are under the leadership of Gen. S. Ruiz, a leader of the former Cuban war. After taking the cargo aboard the Laurada bore away in an easterly direction. Capt. Hughes commands the Laurada, having replaced Capt. Dickman.
