MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—William Strecker and John Siamaker are putting a road through their lands from Fairview Heights to Mr. Strecker's; and they will plat the same into town lots and place them upon the market.

—Mr. J. P. Harris, of Ottawa, Kan., was a few days since chosen by the Republicans of the Second District of Kansas, to be their candidate for Congress, after a hard fought contest of 112 ballots. Mr. Harris is an own cousin of Captain William Harris, of this city, and is a prominent farmer and banker.

—Dr. S. C. Hardy has a pet in the shape of a tortoise that has taken up its abode in his office. The pet is a quiet little box of bones, and it is the Doctor's delight to show off the many accomplishments acquired by it. The thing follows the Doctor about the office, and on the Doctor's appearance it will come to him with every nerve athrill, wagging its tail and licking its master's hands with delight. The Doctor has taught the tortoise to stand on its tail, and it can almost say papa.

—In the case of the complaint against Peter Latner, growing out of the trouble which occurred Saturday near Steohr's saloon and during which Latner struck Frank Albrecht, a number of witnesses have been subpoenaed and the trial will probably be held before the Mayor today.

—J. W. Hughes has rented the Bernard Rodick house on Second street, below Wooster, and will move into the same in a day or two.

—Mrs. M. F. Fast, of Allegheny, and M. A. Parker, of Beverly, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dearth, West Side.

—Mr. P. Palmer, of Whipple, and Moses Palmer, his son, of Wheeling, were in Marietta yesterday on business.

—Attorney R. A. Underwood, of the law firm of Ludey & Underwood, was at Vincent Tuesday on business.

—The little Wildermuth child, mention of whose illness has been made, is improving. The child is sick with pneumonia.

—A handsome new flag, 10x17 feet in size, has been purchased for the city in accordance with the recommendation of Mayor Meisenhelder. A flag pole 30 feet high will be erected and it is expected that Old Glory will be flying over the Hall by Decoration Day.

—H. I. and J. M. Wendelken, who were called here by the death of their mother, will return home to Portsmouth this morning. Their wives will remain here for several days visiting friends.

—Mrs. T. J. Lockwood and daughters, Misses Lola and Jeannette, will leave this morning for Burlington, Kansas, on an extended visit.

—The employes of the City Hall have challenged the Court House fellows to a game of base ball at any date upon which the latter can screw their courage up to the point necessary for the contest. O'Neal and Hancock will constitute the battery for the City Hall and it is expected that Steen and Rood will play the same positions for the Court House.

—In Probate Court Tuesday a marriage license was issued to Joseph Blower and Mary M. Eddy, both of Grandview township.

—In Mayor's Court Tuesday Daniel Lauer was fined $5 and costs for fighting.

—Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Deyol, of Beverly, were in the city Tuesday enroute home from Cairo, W. Va., where they have been visiting friends.

—John Stackhouse, Jr., was arrested Tuesday for non-support of a minor child on complaint of his wife, Nellie Stackhouse. He will have a hearing before Squire B. E. Guyton.

—Mrs. D. Fischer, who has been in this city visiting her mother, Mrs. Bechtolt, left Monday night for her home at New Orleans.

—Supt. N. W. Musgrove, of the Utley mines, passed through the city Monday night enroute to Clarksburg, whither he was called by the death of his nephew.

—The will of Jonathan Treadaway, of Lawrence township, was filed for Probate Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wendelken left at 11:25 Tuesday night for their home at Colorado Springs, Colo.

—Bethel M. E. Social will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Torbert, Saturday afternoon and evening, May 23rd.

—The Wesleyan Methodist Church will hold sacred meetings at the Fair Grounds, as they did last year, commencing soon, Elder J. E. Artis, general manager.

—Miss Helen Chamberlain arrived from Boston Tuesday, having been called home by the illness of her mother.

—President Eaton, of the Beloit College, is one of the distinguished visitors now in our city to attend the Congressional Centennial. He is the guest of Prof. Chamberlain.

—Mr. J. D. Kingsbury, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., is the guest of friends in the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and daughter, of Butler, Pa., are guests of the family of W. G. Hayes, Second street.

—Mr. M. V. Penwell is seriously ill.

—Mrs. William Wildermuth, Washington street, is confined to her room by illness.

—Attention is called to the meeting of the Board of Trade which is called for Thursday evening for the purpose of taking action in the matter of the proposed new Court House and Jail. A large attendance is desired.

—Miss Emma Phillips is ill, threatened with a fever.

—Mr. J. M. Hasty is building a frame structure in the rear of his house.

—Thomas Ewart is at Chicago, the guest of his brother, who is quite ill.

—Edward Hardy, of Lower Salem, was in the city yesterday.

—The Sunday School of the German Lutheran Church will give a social at the home of Mr. Ed. Weis, Second Street, Thursday evening. Ice cream and cake will be served. In connection with the social an "art gallery" will be given, to which an additional fee of five cents will be charged.

—To a party of railroad officials Monday Vice President Peabody made the unqualified statement that Marietta according to its size, is the best town on the line of the B. & O. S. W. Railway, and that it is growing faster in business and population than any other city of whatever size. Coming from such a source, these words are indeed highly gratifying.

—The Corning baseball team will meet the Marietta College nine in this city next Friday at two o'clock P. M. on the College Athletic field. The Corning team is a good one, having defeated Nelsonville, and the game is certain to be interesting.

—Prof. John F. Berry and family, of Oberlin, Ohio, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Berry, Front street.

Congregationalism.
The meeting of the State Association opened Monday evening. The late trains Monday evening brought in large delegations of distinguished personages to attend the 4th annual meeting of the State Association of Congregational churches and the Centennial of Congregationalism in church government.

The services at the First church, Front street, were opened by the singing of the Centennial Hymn, followed by prayer by Rev. Dr. William Kineaid.

The address of welcome by President John W. Simpson was remarkable for its wit and eloquence, as welcomed the visitors to our homes, our churches and all we have, and on behalf of Marietta, on behalf of her Congregational churches and on behalf of Marietta College.

Rev. Wm. G. Ballentine, D. D., President of Oberlin College, responded in a feeling manner. He felt as though he had no need of a welcome here, but rather had a right to welcome others, as he was educated here and considered himself a Marietta boy. He proceeded with his sermon, taking his text from Matthew xxviii, 8-10. His address was an explanation and defense of the Congregational form of church government. Dwelling upon the character of the Pilgrim Fathers and their freedom of religious belief, he asserted that they laid the foundation of religious and political liberty throughout the world. He believed in freedom of spiritual thought; every man must determine his belief according to his own light.

He praised the Salvation Army for the good it has done, but declared there is no more need of a Protestant Pope than a Roman one.

Dr. Wm. Kineaid of New York and Dr. S. P. Fay of Boston conducted the solemn communion services assisted by the following deacons: Browning, of Mt. Vernon; Gaylord Thompson, Medina; Mr. Mellin, Cleveland; Justin Snow, Cleveland; H. E. Conner, Akron; Mr. Sturges, Mansfield; T. D. Biscoe, Marietta; R. B. Hart, Marietta.

It is intended that the Wednesday evening session shall close promptly at 8:30 after which the Ladies invite the guests from abroad and friends in the city to a social reception in Andrews Hall.

Killed in the Mine.
CALDWELL, O., May 11.—Yesterday afternoon at the Glenwood coal mines, north of this place, Jas. McMillen, the mine boss, went down in the mine to see that everything was right. By an explosion of gas he was so fearfully burned that he died this morning.

Your Boy Went Live a Month.
So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 84 Mill St., South Gardner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had Lung trouble, following Typhoid Malaria, and he spent three hundred and seventy-five dollars with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy went live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for Lung trouble. Trial Bottles Free at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

SHOT IN THE LEG.

John Cherry Gets a Nail From a Weapon in the Hands of Squire Ruckman.

Tuesday night John Cherry went into the LaBelle saloon, Ohio street, and demanded some drink. The bar-tender, S. C. Ruckman, refused to sell Cherry the drinks, telling him that he had had enough liquor. Cherry, mad with anger, left the room, and went outside and returned with a brick in each hand. With a threat and an oath, Cherry went at Ruckman, and that worthy saw him coming and grabbed up a revolver and without aim fired.

The ball struck Cherry in the thigh, and he turned and left the saloon. He walked up Second and turned down Greene, to Dixon's tailor shop, where he fell in a faint. He was taken into the shop and later home where Dr. Frank Hart attended him. The shot is not thought to be a serious one.

Ruckman called for the police, and delivered himself over to the law. He was held for $1,000, which he failed to find Tuesday night, and the Mayor was forced to lock him up.

Do You Want a Good Lamp?

If so, see Charles Holtz on Front Street near Putnam. He also will show you by far the Best Selected stock of Queensware in Marietta.

Charles Holtz, THE QUEENSWARE MAN.

That's the Way It Goes.

With a carload of Doors and Sash at the Z. & O. to be unloaded at once, and the B. & O. kicking about a carload of Nails and the C. & M. with a car of Lime. Then to top it all in comes a car loaded with Screen Doors and Windows and a dozen or more local shipments of Bicycles and Bicycle Sundries, Hose, Poultry Wire and other goods. Half a dozen contractors hollowing about the Roofs and Spouting they must have done to-day, and as many women that want their sink repaired or lawn mower sharpened. Then come all the boys and girls with their wheels to be repaired, cleaned or enameled and the store full of customers. Although we have five men in the tin shop, one expert bicycle repair man in our new repair shop, three men in the store, a drayman and a book-keeper, still we are rushed.

Knowing we have all this to do the Editor wants to know if we can write something for an ad., all we can do this week Mr. Editor is to say "we are too busy." Call and see us.
