GEN. LEE,

In His Report to the President
on Affairs in Cuba,

Gives a Strong Hint That Recognition of the Cubans is Necessary.

His Document, Which is of the Greatest Importance to the United States and
Spain, Will Reach Washington
Some Time During This Week.

NEW YORK, June 22.—A dispatch from Havana says that Consul General Lee forwarded to President Cleveland on Saturday dispatches of the most importance. They should reach the president and Secretary Olney early in the coming week. The dispatches contain the full reports of the consul general upon the Cuban situation and are of extremely sensational character.

In the dispatches there are two quite distinct documents, the one wholly confidential and for the personal information of President Cleveland; the other a frank exploitation of the situation in the island at this time. With the greatest candor the representative of the United States in Havana describes the existing condition of affairs in Cuba.

His document is of tremendous importance to the United States and to Spain. So strong is it, in fact, that its contents may, it is hinted, be made the basis of armed intervention in Cuban affairs on the part of the administration at Washington immediately.

The report intended as information particularly designed for the department of state, and which will be presented to Secretary Olney, is a complete and impartial review of the field.

Consul General Lee takes the ground that the only possible solution of the dreadful problem existing in the island is autonomy on Canadian lines. While the Spanish flag flies in the island of Cuba, Consul General Lee says, no other remedy can be found to stay the rebellion or end the bloodshed and devastation which are at present making a Golgotha of one of the fairest portions of the earth's surface.

"Even this remedy," the consul general informs President Cleveland and Secretary Olney, "at this late day may be ineffectual. At one time in the course of the rebellion the Cuban revolutionists might, perhaps, have welcomed such autonomy as would have won friends in a party of peculiar respectability in the island. But at present this party has lost its hold in a great degree, and as for the patriots and their friends, their watchwords are now unconditional surrender on the part of Spain and a free republic in Cuba."

Consul General Lee finds that the Spanish government has in many instances been entirely impotent in its efforts to protect either the lives of foreigners resident in the island or their property. This has been, perhaps, unavoidable, the Spanish troops having been fully occupied in the field in resisting the persistent raids and strategic maneuvers of the patriots.

"The consul general hints, finally, that unless this danger to foreign residents can be avoided the recognition of the belligerency of the Cuban revolutionists will soon become advisable."
