A SMASH-UP

During the Start of the Big Yacht Race at South Sea. Emperor William's Yacht in Collision With the American Isolda.

Baron Von Sedwitz Hit by a Falling Mast and Dies of His Injuries—Several Others Thrown Into the Water—Dead Baron a Great German Statesman.

SOUTH SEA, Aug. 18.—Considerable excitement was occasioned here Tuesday by the disabling of Emperor William's yacht Meteor, and the fact that several of her crew were knocked overboard by the accident. It was the second day's racing under the auspices of the Royal Albert Yacht club, and Britannia, Santanita and Meteor started in the contest for the vice commodore's cup and £25. Not long after the start the Meteor collided with a yacht, supposed to be Isolda or Samphire. The mainmast of the Meteor was carried away and several of her crew were thrown into the water, causing much confusion and exciting all those on shore and aloft who witnessed the disaster.

Allis, Britannia, Santanita and Meteor had started in a race for the Vice Commodore's cup and £25. Not long after the start the Meteor collided with Baron Von Sedwitz's American yacht Isolda. The latter was dismasted, several of her crew were knocked overboard and Baron Sedwitz was seriously injured by falling masts.

Baron Von Sedwitz died shortly after having been removed to the hospital.

Baron Von Sedwitz was a German privy councillor and a member of both the reichstag and the Prussian diet. He has been in parliament for about 25 years, was a leading authority on finance in politics and was leader of the free conservative party. Although comparatively a young man, he was unanimously recommended in 1890 by the state cabinet for the then vacant post of minister of finance, but was not appointed.

SHOT HIS WIFE,

Attempted to Kill His Son, and Then Committed Suicide.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 18.—A shocking murder and suicide was enacted at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday at 826 Floyd street, a drunken husband killing his wife and then himself after he had made a further attempt to end the life of his 16-year-old boy. Henry Wild, a peddler, lived with his wife and son at Twenty-sixth and Grayson streets. He was addicted to drink, and Tuesday morning he went to 326 Floyd street, where his wife, who is the support of the family, conducts a vegetable stand. He had been drinking most of the night and was in an ugly mood.

His wife placed her hand upon his shoulder and was admonishing him to do better, when the drunken husband pulled a pistol and, without a word of warning, placed it to the woman's abdomen and pulled the trigger. His son, Willie, who was in the place, ran to his mother's assistance and grappled with one hand, the father and son fought until they had moved across the street, when the son, releasing himself, shoved his father against the wall and then ran. The father then placed the pistol to his head and fired. The husband and wife died within ten minutes of each other.

Two Drowned at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 18.—Wm. Hinton, Thomas Shaughnessy and Patrick Rush, mill worker, started to cross the Monongahela river from the south side, in a small yawl at midnight. In midstream the boat was capsized by the swell from the steamer Cyclone which was passing. Hinton and Shaughnessy were drowned. Rush swam to the Pittsburgh shore nearly exhausted. All were under the influence of liquor. The bodies have not been recovered.

Bodies Recovered From the Ruins at Eau Claire.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Aug. 18.—The bodies of Wm. Dean, vice president of the Phoenix Manufacturing Co., and Nicholas Roach, an employe, were recovered from the ruins of the Music hall block, about 12 o'clock Monday night. Both were dead when found. Dean leaves a widow and children. Roach leaves a daughter. There are no more bodies in the ruins. Of the injured men it is said that all will recover except John Horson, whose back is broken, and it is said he can not live.

May Resist the Cigarette License.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 18.—The Wabash city council has followed the example of numerous other Indiana municipal legislatures, and passed an ordinance which virtually prohibits the sale of cigarettes. The license fee is fixed at $100. It is reported that representatives of the manufacturers of cigarettes are now making a tour of northern Indiana, examining critically ordinances of this kind, with a view to organized resistance to the enforcement.

Gov. Chase Bled Poor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 18.—The administrator of the estate of the late Gov. Chase has made his final report. After the debts were paid the widow received $919. Gov. Chase had invested heavily in mining stocks that are considered worthless.

Bargain Store Safe Robbed.

BLUFFTON, Ind., Aug. 18.—J. S. Marsh, manager of the Bargain store, robbed the safe of $150 and left for parts unknown. Mr. Blakesley, the proprietor, has entered suit against an estate Marsh has an interest in to recover his losses.

Destructive Fire at Lancaster.

LANCASTER, Ky., Aug. 18.—Fire early Tuesday morning destroyed all the buildings on the east side of the public square, including the post office. Loss $30,000, two-thirds of which is covered by insurance.

"Cut Down Expenses."

Battle AX PLUG

A woman knows what a bargain really is. She knows better than a man. "BATTLE AX" is selected every time by wives who buy tobacco for their husbands. They select it because it is an honest bargain. It is the biggest in size, the smallest in price, and the best in quality. The 5 cent piece is almost as large as the 10 cent piece of other high grade brands.
