BISHOP WATTERSON

Dedicates the New Parochial School With Interesting Ceremonies.

Sunday was an auspicious day indeed for the dedication of the new parochial school on Fourth street built by St. Mary's Catholic church. A large number of persons were out to witness the exercises, which were most appropriate and interesting.

Bishop Watterson, of Columbus, was present and preached at 10 a. m. to a large audience in St. Mary's church. In the afternoon the dedication proper began by the formation at Muskingum Park of a parade consisting of the Mayor and city officials in carriages, the police force, Marietta band, members of the G. A. R. and the orders of the Knights of St. George of Parkersburg and Marietta. After marching over the lower part of the city the parade halted at the school building, where the formal words of dedication were pronounced by Bishop Watterson.

Buell Post, through Capt. W. C. Grafton, presented the school with a handsome American flag, which was accepted by Rev. Father Woessman in a patriotic speech of impassioned eloquence.

Mrs. Potter's Charge.

The citizens of Belpre and vicinity were thrown into great excitement this morning over the report of an attempted criminal assault upon Mrs. Sarah Potter, an aged lady, and one of the best known and most highly respected in that vicinity, living a few miles in the country below Belpre.

Mrs. Potter, with her two sons, live on a farm and have working for them a young man named Nick Winans.

Last night the Potter boys went to a political meeting, at Rockland, leaving their mother and Winans at home together. Mrs. Potter retired at her usual hour. After she had been asleep for some time, she says she was awakened by some one leaning over her bed. She was very badly frightened and leaping from the bed, found Winans in her room. She ordered him out of the room, and, supposing that he had gone, again retired. In a short time she was again awakened by Winans making a second attempt to get into her room. This time Mrs. Potter drove him from the room and from the house. After a time her sons returned home and she informed them of Winans' actions.

They at once went in search of him and, about daylight this morning, he was found hiding at the home of Wm. Weaver, who lived in a small tenant's house, on the Potter farm. A warrant for the arrest of Winans was sent for, but before the officer, with the writ, arrived, Winans was brought in to Belpre and taken before Squire Rathbone for a hearing. The evidence produced against the prisoner was so damaging that he was at once bound over to the grand jury and sent to Marietta, to await the action of the jury.

The affair has caused the greatest excitement, owing to the prominence of the Potter family. Winans, while he has never been in any serious trouble before, has always borne an unsavory reputation.—Journal.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Callouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We want keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

Lubeck Well Shot.

The Lubeck Oil Co.'s well at Cairo was shot yesterday afternoon, says the Journal of Saturday, at 3:30 o'clock. Fifty quarts of nitro were used and the operation was conducted by Jim Hines the well known nitro-tamer.

The shot was fairly successful, the oil being thrown to a height of 50 feet above the top of the derrick.

The well has been flowing ever since the shooting, a saver being employed to save the oil. The well cannot be cleaned out and tubed until the strong gas pressure diminishes which will probably not be for several days. A member of the company estimates its yield after being tubed, at 100 barrels, or better perhaps, but outside oil men of experience place upon it the more conservative estimate of 50 barrels.

Cure For Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tonic to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

A DETECTIVE'S STORY.

A Two Years' Conflict With a Mortal Enemy—Sleepless Nights and Weary Days—Relief at Last.

From Buffalo News.

Mr. Chas. W. Marsh, ex-Deputy Sheriff, and now following the profession of private detective, resides at 25 Eriemen street, Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Marsh has had many wonderful experiences, but none have caused him so much trouble and never was relief more welcome than in the case he relates here. He says:

"For about two years I suffered at times most intensely with kidney complaint; the pain across the small of my back was almost unendurable. I have thought my only relief would be at the hospital. At night I always seemed to be worse and unable to get my natural sleep. I have much walking to do, and often came home feeling so sick and wearied that I could not eat my meals. My head ached incessantly. I have despaired time and again of getting relief. Happening to see an advertisement in the Buffalo papers of Doan's Kidney Pills, I thought they might help me, although I sometimes believed my trouble to be of rheumatic origin. I got some of the kidney pills, and after the first box I noticed a decided change. I continued their use, and I am happy to say that to-day I am a well man, the headache has entirely disappeared, my back is stronger and the pain has left it. At the present time I am engaged in detective work, involving a great deal of walking; still I am able to lie down to rest at night, feeling free from the aches and pains that formerly made my life miserable, rising in the morning refreshed from natural sleep. I would like to tell the many sufferers, such as I have been, what a valuable remedy they will find in Doan's Kidney Pills. I write to you, the proprietors of Doan's Kidney Pills, to acknowledge their merit, and feel that I cannot say enough in praise of them. You are at liberty to use this letter in any way you choose. Even then it will be a small way indeed of showing my gratitude and my wish that others should benefit likewise."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sent by mail on receipt of price. Foster-Milburn Co., sole agents for the U. S., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Privy Council.

The Law Times, of London, calls attention to the fact that the privy council, of which the cabinet is merely a committee unknown to the law, has entirely ceased to hold meetings for purposes of deliberation and has become a body of a merely ceremonial nature. So completely, however, have the functions of the two bodies been dissociated that whereas the privy council cannot meet except under the presidency of the sovereign, the sovereign cannot constitutionally preside at a meeting of the cabinet.

A Baby Carriage.

Mr. Frederick Locker-Stampson mentions in his autobiographical sketch, "My Confidences," that walking in Greenwich park one day, the only mortal he met was a simpering lass, reading a comic paper, and pushing her charge in a baby-carriage. He thus comments on the meeting: "There is nothing more beautiful in nature than a woman with a child in her arms. An experienced nurse dandling a baby is a pretty sight. Conceive if Raphael had had to deal with the perambulator!"
