THE "BELLE OF THE BALL."

Would not have been half so charming if she had not been wise as well as "pretty." The reason is easy to find: Rare Perfumes lend added charm to beauty and the above young lady was posted. Backed up her judgment, too, by supplying her "perfume wants" at the right place:

PUTNAM STREET DRUG STORE.

The "Belles" all know our stock of "society odors" is most complete. One thing is certain—you may forget us, but the remembrance of our DELICATE, RARE and LASTING perfumes will linger longer with you than the memory of the "last rose of summer."

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

MONDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1896
PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

The leak under the floor of the ice harbor lock has been fairly well stopped with stone and gravel and one or two lockages have been made. The new middle gates will be completed and put in place in a week or ten days and navigation may then be resumed between the two rivers.

Three plain drunks were run in by the police Saturday night and will answer to the Mayor this morning.

The Keystone State passed up with a good trip at 10 a. m. Sunday and the Virginia down at midnight.

There were two lively scraps on Front street Saturday evening, one at Donnelly's restaurant and the other near Weiser's furniture store. In the latter three or four young men were opposed to one, with the result that he got somewhat the worst of it. No arrests were made, but all parties are expected to appear before Mayor Meisenhelder today.

Firstbaseman Shires and Catcher Donahue, of the Marietta baseball nine, left Saturday for their home at Springfield.

By invitation, Judge W. H. Leeper will address the McKinley Club at Frost, Athens county, next Wednesday evening.

An intoxicated man named Peter Murray, with a scalp wound in the back of his head, was picked up on Ohio street by Officer Posey Saturday morning. He claimed to have been knocked down and robbed of $25 in the night, but the police think he fell against the curbstone while drunk.

Will Nelly, of Parkersburg, spent Sunday in the city the guest of friends.

The Washington C. H. nine and the Shamrocks, of Cincinnati, are playing ball for that baby's rattle, "the championship of Ohio." If the Shamrocks are equal to some of the Cincinnati talent tried by Marietta during the past season the games will be a great exhibition of how not to play ball.

Frank Schafer left over the C. & M. this morning, to take a ten days' outing among the hills of Fearing township.

E. W. Jones left Saturday for Cincinnati to resume his duties on the government dredgeboat Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bower, of Dexter City, were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Bower.

The Z. & O. R. is making arrangements to handle a big crowd on Oct. 22d, the occasion of the trip to Canton. Large numbers in the west end of the county are preparing to go and the T. & O. C. E. will bring them into Marietta on a special train.

The Muskingum Farmer's Club was entertained Saturday by Dr. and Mrs. Willis, Fourth street. The next meeting will be held at the home of Theo. Devol.

Mrs. F. S. Coleman and daughter, Cosie, left Saturday for Columbus.

Mrs. Jeannette Adams, wife of John Adams of Wingett Run, Ludlow township, attempted suicide on Thursday of last week, by cutting her throat with a razor. She cut a terrible gash in the throat, but fortunately cut into no arteries, hence the attempt did not terminate fatally. The cause of Mrs. Adams' act was insanity. She has been showing signs of derangement for several months past. The lady is 70 years of age and has for some time been in quite a feeble condition. It is thought that she will recover from her self-inflicted injury.

Positively the last appearance. The Junior Club will meet Oct. 12th, but supper will be late.

William Betts, a carpenter who came here from Zanesville, was locked up by Marshal Parlin Sunday evening on the charge of obtaining money by false pretense. He gave George Bule's a check on the First National Bank for $5.00. When arrested he acknowledged that he had never had any money on deposit in that bank. Betts has been guilty of the same offense before, a warrant for his arrest on a similar charge having been sent here from Zanesville, but he was not arrested as he made good the money secured in that city.

B & O. S. W. trains were delayed several hours Sunday evening by a freight wreck at Blanchester.

Messrs. Thos. Sugden, Bert Williams, John Steadman and Henry Strecker will leave this morning for Dayton, to look after arrangements for the Sir Knights of Marietta's Commandery No. 50 during the State Conclave this week.

Messrs. Walton Parker, J. W. Stiers and O. E. Morris, of Beverly, were in the city Sunday, having ridden down on their wheels.

Deputy U. S. Marshal W. E. Mason left over the B. & O. S. W. at 11:25 Sunday night for Chillicothe to serve a warrant on John Rowe, charged with sending obscene matter through the mails.

Capt. J. F. Galtree, Union Depot Restaurant, has received another consignment of fine peaches, which are for sale.

Frank Barth, the infant son of Louis Barth, was buried Sunday.

Our fellow citizen, J. B. Hovey was the honored recipient last week at Sandusky, of a most elaborate and beautiful jewel given him by the Grand Chapter of Ohio. The jewel is just about the prettiest we have ever seen. It bears this inscription: "Presented to M. E. Comp. James B. Hovey, for faithful services rendered the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Ohio, as the Most Excellent Grand High Priest."

Two of the enterprising Republican clubs outside of Marietta, in Washington County, are those of Grandview and of Rockland. At Grandview they have 100 members, and hope to have 25 or 30 more before the canvass closes. At Rockland only a few evenings ago a club of seventy-one was organized, and among those who signed were several men who had been counted as democrats and who had been prominent in local affairs on the Democratic side early in this campaign.

Died, in this city, Saturday evening, the 10th inst., at 5 o'clock, Mr. Jacob Weaver, aged 69 years. The deceased had been ill with dropsy for quite a long time. He leaves a wife and family, all grown. The funeral will be held this Monday, afternoon at 2 o'clock, sun time, at the "Lower" German church, on Fourth street.

A single order received last week by the Marietta Boiler Works was for 25 boilers, and added to others already ahead of the plant makes about 90 boilers of various kinds to be turned out without delay.

Mr. John W. Lindsay, of Pittsburg, who is to marry Miss Jessie Davis this week, is in the city, having arrived Saturday. With Mr. Lindsay are his friends Mr. Will Gill and Mr. Bert Hotchkiss, of Cleveland.

The Canton Pilgrimage train on the 22d inst., will leave the Union Depot, this city, at 6:45 o'clock, twenty-five minutes after the regular train, whose time is 6.20. At a convenient place the special will make one stop between this city and Zanesville, to take on Washington county pilgrims who will be picked up along the way by the regular train. The party arriving at Canton will be met by an escort committee, and will proceed at once to Major McKinley's home. After supper, which has been arranged for, the party will leave Canton at 5:30 o'clock, arriving home about 10:30. Fare for round trip $1.00.

Misses Maud and Mabel Bailey and Miss Nellie Martin, of Parkersburg, came up on their wheels Saturday and spent the day in the city.

Chas. L. Devol, of Beverly, was in the city Sunday.

The grand jury for the October term completed its work Saturday after a session lasting five days. After making its report the jury was polled politically out of curiosity and it was discovered to be composed of eight McKinley men and seven Bryan supporters. Treasurer Lund paid the jurymen their fees in gold.

Marietta Commandery No. 50, K. T. will meet at the asylum on Putnam street this evening for the last practice drill, preparatory to leaving for Dayton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Whittig arrived home Saturday from the East, where they had been visiting friends since returning from Europe.

Charles Westbrook, a young man aged about 17 years, dropped dead of heart disease Sunday morning and was found lying in a pasture field on Coal Run, back of Sand Hill. He had been working as a farm hand. Funeral at Sand Hill.

Ohio vs. Geo. W. Price, assault and battery.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters, 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Styer's Drug Store.

'SQUIRE HART'S VIEWS.

Some Opinions and Advice from a Competent Authority.

Like every city and town in our Republic, Marietta furnishes its share of veterans who fought for Old Glory during the late unpleasantness, and who, despite their valor when facing a foe on the field found themselves waging war on a concealed enemy ever since, and perfectly powerless and unable to dislodge it from its position. How to effect a dislodgement is clearly given in the statement that follows, made by 'Squire M. H. Hart, whose office, we need scarcely remind our readers, is just opposite the depot. Our citizens have now the unavoidable question to answer, whose opinion can depend upon the more, a representative resident of Marietta or some newspaper statement made by some one living hundreds of miles away who say remedy so-and-so cured him? Read this and then quietly and coolly answer the question mentally. The 'Squire says: "Since I was in the army, a member of Reg. 148, Co. K., Ohio, I never had the health I had before I enlisted. My kidneys were effected and at times I had been anything but a well man, some of the symptoms showing plainly that my kidneys were not right, such as dull pains in the loins; the back tiring out, and irregularity at times in the secretions of the kidneys; aggravated pain when I caught cold. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at W. H. Styer's place on Front St. and I appreciate the results received. The remedy acts direct on the kidneys and has no bad effect on the system while using it and it does not take long to make a noticeable improvement. I endorse the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills." Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, or 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent by mail on receipt of price.
