The Republican Party stands for honest money and the chance to earn it by honest toil.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

The news that Secretary Herbert had named one of the new U. S. gunboats now in process of construction Marietta, in honor of this city, was received with much pleasure Thursday.

The speech of Mr. James H. Hoyt, of Cleveland, was a corker, sure, and must have been provocative of much good.

Mr. Hoyt's speech was not a long one, but it bristled well with strong argumentative points, that convinced his large audience of his correct position.

The Hoyt speech was a success, and we hope to hear again from him.

JESSE GRANT, who is quoted as saying that he believes his father, if living today, would favor the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, has evidently not read his father's State papers with care.

"I earnestly recommend such legislation as will insure a gradual return to specie payments and put an immediate stop to fluctuations in the value of currency."

"The approach to the specie basis is very gratifying, but the fact cannot be denied that the instability of the value of our currency is prejudicial to our prosperity and tends to keep up prices to the detriment of trade."

"Nothing seems to me more certain than that a full, healthy and permanent reaction cannot take place in favor of the industries and the financial welfare of the country until we return to the measure of values recognized throughout the civilized world."

PERSONS WHO CAN VOTE.

The election for 1896 occurs November 3d. A person otherwise qualified to vote who becomes twenty-one years of age on the 4th (that is whose birthday is the 4th) of November, is entitled to vote at the election held on the 3d.

A person who came into the State of Ohio with the intention of remaining and becoming a citizen, on the 4th day of November, 1895 (or prior) is entitled to vote on the 3d, provided he is otherwise qualified.

A person who came into the County NOT LATER THAN THE 4TH OF OCTOBER, 1896, is entitled to vote if otherwise qualified.

An unmarried man who came into the township, or precinct thereof, or into a municipality or a precinct thereof, if, NOT LATER THAN OCTOBER 14th, 1896, if otherwise qualified, is entitled to vote.

The "head of a family" who came into the State not later than the 4th of November, 1895, and into the County not later than October 4th, 1896, is entitled to vote in the township, ward, or precinct, in which his family resides, whether he has been in such township, ward, or precinct, one or more days.

The words "head of a family" have been held to mean "he who provides for a family;" the husband or father is ordinarily the head; but there may be a head where there is no marriage relation.

The place where a person SLEEPS is his "habitation." The place where he eats or has his washing done has nothing to do with his "habitation."

A married man (unless "where husband and wife have separated and live apart") is entitled to vote ONLY where his family permanently resides.

A married man separated from, and living apart from his wife, but who is living with and providing for his children, is the "head of a family," and is entitled to vote where his family resides.

A married man separated from, and living apart from his wife and not the "head of a family," is entitled to vote only as an unmarried man.

If a married man moves into a County not later than October 4th, and his wife, or if separated from his wife, his wife will do not come into the County until the 5th of October or thereafter, he is not entitled to vote.

If the wife of a married, or if separated from his wife, the family moves into the County in good faith, not later than the 4th of October, he is entitled to vote, no matter if he himself did not come into the County until after the 4th.

"That place shall be considered the residence of a person in which his habitation is fixed, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning."

"A person shall not be considered to have lost his residence who leaves his home and goes into another State, or County of this State, for temporary purposes merely, with the intention of returning."

Whether a person has left his usual voting place for temporary purposes only is largely to be determined by the Judges. The length of time of temporary absence is not to be considered so long as the right of franchise was not exercised by the voter somewhere else, and so long as it was his intention to return.

Then and Now.

In 1892 Bryan said that prices were too high and advocated "tariff reform" to prevent consumers from being "robbed."

In 1892 Bryan told the wage-earners that the dollar did not buy enough, and many of them believed it.

In the Fifty-third Congress Bryan championed "cheapness." We then had the gold standard, protection, plenty of business, good wages and ascribes it to the "crime of 1873."

In the Fifty-third Congress Bryan favored free wool. Protection was withdrawn. Wool has fallen from 25 cents to 12 to 14 cents.

Under protection and the gold standard in 1892, before Bryan and his associates on the Ways and Means committee had prepared a free-trade bill, prosperity in this country was universal and labor fully employed at high wages.

In 1892 it was the game of the Bryans to array the "masses" against the "classes" on account of "high prices." Now they are attempting the same thing with the shout of "low prices."

In 1892 these men proclaimed that free trade would do wonders for the people. Now they promise that free coinage will work miracles.

In 1892 they were humbugs and frauds. In 1896 they are frauds and humbugs.—Times Star.

SAME CAUSE.

The Glorious Cause for Which the Party Now Stands.

THE CAUSE OF PROTECTION.

It is a Cause, the Success of Which at the Polls Next Tuesday Will Mean Greater Demand for Labor, Better Wages and Higher Prices for the Products of the American Farm—Major McKinley to the Farmers.

In an address to Ohio farmers last Saturday Major McKinley said:

My Fellow-Citizens—It was generous on your part to come to see me, inasmuch as I am not doing this year what I formerly did in going about to see you. I am very glad to meet my old friends of Auglaize, Allen and Henry counties, before whom I have stood so many times speaking for the cause, the same glorious cause for which our party stands this year.

We are glad to have them in association with us. Patriotism is never partisan; it is above that plane. One thing has never been said and never will be said of the government of the United States, and that is that it is a government of repudiation. We

Have Always Paid Every Dollar of our public obligations whether contracted in peace or war, in the highest and best form of money known to the civilized world. We never stopped to inquire what the letter of the contract might be; we only knew that any agreement with the United States government meant that it must be paid in 100-cent dollars at the time it came due.

We do not propose to attempt to ever do business with a dollar 1 cent short of 100 cents. We do not propose to accept our financial standard from either Mexico or China. We propose to run our finances exactly as we have always run them, with fairness and absolute integrity on the part of the government and people; and we propose another thing, and if the people are with us we shall realize it. We propose to Protect Ourselves against the products of the old world; to uphold our own factories rather than build up factories for any other nation on the face of the globe. The American workshop, the American farm, the American factory and the American people, of whatever occupation or calling, are our chief concern, and we must see to it that there is no idle man in America and that none of our work is done in Europe so long as there is a man in this country who wants to work.

It is a policy of honesty, of patriotism and intense Americanism that our grand old party steadfastly maintains. I am glad to meet you and to greet you; I am glad to know that this year, as in the past, the Republicans of your counties are enrolled in the ranks and that sound money Democrats from every walk and calling in life are with you.

We welcome them as valuable allies in this great contest for good money and the supremacy of law. I am pleased that you have made this call and bid you hearty welcome; but as another delegation is waiting to see me, I must bid you good afternoon. (Great applause.)

VOTED AGAINST SHERIDAN.

The Popocratic Nominee For Secretary of State Did This.

The absolute impossibility of the Democratic state ticket being elected has caused its make-up to drop out of sight. Even politicians have to stop and scratch their heads to remember the names of the four candidates on this fusion ticket.

The vote was: Yeas, 131; Nays, 2. The two negative votes were cast by Benjamin G. Harris of Maryland and Chilton A. White of Ohio.

BECAUSE IT IS RIGHT. NEVER BEFORE COULD REPUBLICANS SAY WITH GREATER TRUTH: I SHALL VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET ON ELECTION DAY, BECAUSE IT IS RIGHT.

OPPOSED LABOR.

Mr. Bryan Called the American Workmen Beggars. In response to a query regarding the labor record of the Democratic candidate, William J. Bryan, James Campbell, chief factory inspector and an ex-president of the Window Glass Workers of Pennsylvania, writes from Harrisburg that Bryan opposed measures intended to benefit workmen.

He says: "Mr. Bryan made that statement. I have made affidavit to the same, and am willing to make affidavit in any court in this country in the presence of Mr. Bryan or anybody else. The fact of a man holding the honorable position of a congressman making such a statement made such an impression on me at that time that it would be impossible to forget the incident."

"On page 2129, Congressional Record, March 10, 1892, you will find in Mr. Bryan's speech the following statement: 'The difference between a protective tariff and a bounty is simply a difference of form. In the one case it is open and visible, and in the other it is secret and hidden. There is a difference between the bounty and the protective tariff that the Bible describes that wasteth at noonday and the pestilence that walketh in darkness. It is the difference between a man that meets you on the highway, knocks you down and takes what you have, and the man who steals in the house at night while you are asleep and robs you of your treasures, and if I had to make a choice between the two I should consider the highway robber more honorable, because he does what he does openly and before the world.'"

"There is no question as to Mr. Bryan's position in relation to a protective tariff. He is in favor of absolute free trade, pure and simple, and is in favor of internal taxes sufficient to run the affairs of the government."

GET OUT THE VOTE.

REPUBLICANS, LEND A HELPING HAND ON ELECTION DAY. IF YOU KNOW OF A VOTE THAT CAN BE SECURED FOR THE CAUSE OF GOOD TIMES, GOOD MONEY AND GOOD GOVERNMENT BY A LITTLE EXTRA EFFORT, THEN MAKE THE EFFORT. THIS IS A YEAR WHEN VOTING THE REPUBLICAN TICKET IS VOTING TO SAVE THE COUNTRY FROM NATIONAL DISHONOR, AND THE VOTERS WHOM YOU MAY HELP TO THUS CAST THEIR BALLOTS WILL IN AFTER YEARS THANK YOU FOR IT.

Obituary.

Mr. Charles Westbrook died at his home at Sand Hill on Oct. 11th. His death was caused by heart trouble. His age was 59 years, 8 months and 3 days. He was well and favorably known and will be mourned by a large number of friends.

Our brother is gone, We mourn his loss, He suffers now no pain, The Lord has said, what we have lost Shall surely be his gain.

Oh, could we but have had our way, Or asked to name a wish, It would have been to spare the blow, That took him from our midst.
