Christmas Greeting
to You
One and All.

We take it for granted that your hearts are in the right place this year, just as they always have been in the past, and that you feel the same generous desire to remember those you love with appropriate and desirable Christmas gifts this season, as heretofore. We know that in nearly every individual instance there is one obstacle that seems to bar the way to gift making, and that is the scarcity of money. The times of late have been undeniably hard, and few, if any, have escaped the ill effects of this unfortunate condition, therefore, the situation with you is like this: You feel the same old desire to make your relatives and friends appropriate gifts; the feeling is just as strong as ever, but the means at your command seem to fall short of the needs of the occasion. That is why we wish to make our Holiday Announcement this year, particularly a talk to your pocket books.

We are going to be the people's Santa Claus, this season, just as far as the inexorable laws of business will permit, by selling you Christmas gifts of all kinds at the lowest scale of prices known to the trade. We are going to make your money far-reaching and profitable in the exchange for Christmas gifts. What though your dollars are few—we will make them go farther than ever before. We want you to come in and see how little it takes to secure suitable and appropriate gifts for those you desire to remember.

For weeks past we have labored industriously to prepare for the Holiday Trade, and our store is now fairly shining with a beautiful array of Christmas Gifts. We are strong in the belief that every Holiday shopper who visits our store will be sure to find irresistible attractions among our great variety of pretty and appropriate gifts. Special pains and much careful consideration was expended to make the collection of Christmas Goods one which should include something really desirable for every individual, from the youngest to the oldest. We have made it a point to have great variety in goods of all prices, ranging from the merest trifle upwards, in order that you may make good selections at any price you may feel able to pay. Having thus smoothed the way for all classes of buyers by grading and assorting our stock in such a way as to meet the needs of those who have little as well as those who have much to spend, and having marked all our goods at the lowest possible figures, we feel that we deserve your patronage.

Hoping to see every reader at our store at an early day, we remain,

Very truly yours,
HUTCHISON'S BARGAIN STORE,

THE MEASURES

Left Over From Last Session for Congress to Consider.

Congratulations and Condolences Over Result of the Late Election.

The President's Message Read.—The House Immigration Bill in the Senate—Effort to Secure New Dates for Consideration of Special Orders Left Over.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Both houses of congress met promptly at noon and appointed committees to wait upon the president and inform him that congress was ready to receive any communication he might be pleased to make. The senate thereupon took a recess till 2:30 o'clock.

The house adjourned until 2 p. m., when the president's message was received and read.

The message was delivered to the senate by Mr. Pruden, one of the president's secretaries, and the secretary of the senate, Mr. Cox, began its reading, but that duty was very soon turned over to the reading clerks.

The house presented a bright and cheerful appearance Monday morning when the galleries were thrown open to visitors. The galleries were crowded to overflowing long before Speaker Reed called the house to order.

The members of the house, like the occupants of the galleries, commenced to put in an appearance as early as 10 o'clock, although the hour of meeting was 12. The republicans from the west and middle west who secured a renomination and were not engulfed in the wave of free silverism which swept over the commonwealth, congratulated themselves and each other upon their good fortune. Mr. Crisp's desk was draped in mourning.

After the reading of the president's message the message was laid on the table and the senate at 3:35 adjourned until one o'clock Tuesday.

When the reading of the message was finished in the house, the death of Ex-Speaker Crisp was announced by Mr. Turner (dem.), of Georgia. Suitable resolutions were passed and the house adjourned until Tuesday noon.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—It is not likely that anything will be done in either house of congress Monday, except to exchange congratulations or condolence, as the case may be, over the election and to listen to the president's message. When the last session closed the house immigration bill had, and now has, the right of way in the senate. It is the unfinished business; this will be called up pro forma at the expiration of the morning hour, 2 o'clock. Although known as the house bill on the calendar as reported to the senate by Mr. Lodge, it is a materially different measure, all of the house provisions having been stricken out except the enacting clause and a new bill substituted. This bill will be called up on Tuesday by Senators Lodge and Chandler, who desire to push it to a vote as quickly as possible.

An effort will be made to secure new dates for the consideration of special orders that were not reached during last session. These measures are: Senate bill to prevent the desertion of the American flag; house bill to amend the act to prevent the extermination of fur-bearing animals of Alaska; house bill to reduce the cases in which the penalty of death may be inflicted and senate joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of senators by popular vote.

An important bill, over which there has developed a bitter fight, is the Detroit bridge bill, for a bridge across the Detroit river. It was postponed last session until the first Monday in December.

In addition to the appropriation bills there are several measures that will contend with others for the right of way. Prominent among these are the bills to refund the Pacific railroad debt, to admit the territories of New Mexico and Arizona, and Mr. Davis' resolution relative to the assertion and enforcement of the Monroe doctrine.

IN URUGUAY.

A Revolutionary Movement Alarms the Government.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—A special cable dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says:

The Herald's correspondent in Montevideo, Uruguay, telegraphs that the government is now thoroughly alarmed at the momentum which the revolutionary movement has obtained. It has been learned that the departments in the northwestern part of Uruguay Salto, Paysandu and Artigas, will soon declare in favor of the rebellion, and that the leaders delegated by the people of those departments will rendezvous with their forces at Concordia, in Entre Rio, Argentina, just across the river Uruguay.

At this point there are many persons, including not only Uruguayans, but citizens of Argentina, who are in sympathy with the revolt.

No further encounters have occurred in Uruguay, and it is believed that the insurgents are awaiting the new invasion from the Argentine frontier before again risking a battle.

The Brazilian minister of foreign affairs has telegraphed assurances that strict neutrality will be observed by Brazil in her sister republic's present trouble.

EX-CONGRESSMAN HURT SERIOUSLY. PLAINFIELD, N. J., Dec. 7.—The condition of ex-Congressman Roswell G. Horr, who has been seriously ill with tonsillitis for the last few days, was somewhat worse Sunday morning, but Sunday night he was feeling much better. His physicians still consider his condition precarious.

An Enormous Fine. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 7.—Batoum naphtha manufacturers have been fined 1,000,000 roubles for smuggling in tin for tanks.

BUCKEYE NEWS.

New and Interesting Happenings Within Our Borders.

JOHN SHERMAN

Will Be a Candidate for Re-election to the United States Senate.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 7.—John Sherman will be a candidate for re-election to the United States senate. This is stated by a gentleman who had a conversation with him on the subject a few days ago and to whom the senator frankly stated his intention and gave leave to make his determination public. "I am going to meet those who would oppose me on any ground that they may select," said Mr. Sherman. "If they are willing to keep their hands off until after the members of the general assembly have been elected and then make the contest before them wholly, I shall be perfectly willing to do that, too. But if it is proposed to go into the counties and set up delegations for any senatorial candidates and have the state convention select the candidate of the republican party of Ohio, I shall meet them on that ground, too. I am ready for anything. No Sherman ever sought to escape from any kind of fight."

CHURCH HELPED.

The Election of McKinley Proves the Removal of a Debt.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Dec. 7.—The First M. E. church, this city, had $5,600 laid on the collection plates Sunday morning, which makes this church, one of the finest and largest in the East Ohio conference, entirely free from debt. After the election of McKinley, two of the members said they would give $1,000 each if the pastor, Rev. J. M. Huston, would secure the rest in spot cash on Sunday morning, December 6. This has been done. The church recently put in a gallery and a $3,000 pipe organ, costing nearly $9,000, part of which was paid at time. This church has cost fully $70,000, and has a seating capacity of 1,200.

Big Fire at Cold Water.

CELINA, O., Dec. 7.—Cold Water, a town of 600, five miles west of here, was visited Sunday morning by one of the most destructive fires in her history. Losses and insurance as follows: Gus Westler, flour mill, loss on building and contents $3,000, insurance $1,500; S. L. Johnson's dwelling and store room, used by John Schultz, as a cigar factory and residence, insurance on buildings, $1,500; Schultz's loss on stock and household goods, $2,500, insurance, $500; John Martz, business room, dwelling, wagon and blacksmith shop, loss $6,000, insurance $2,000; Dr. A. E. Rice, Commercial hotel, loss $2,500, fully insured. The other buildings burned were a bakery, five dwellings and four barns, making a total loss in the burned district of $25,000.

Will There Be a Strike?

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 5.—Mine operators here are waiting the result of the meeting of operators and miners at Pittsburgh next Monday with little hope that it will restore permanent relations between the miners and operators all over the country. H. L. Chapman said Monday that he had no idea that an agreement would be reached. The logical result of such an ending would be a general strike. The national organization is becoming demoralized and the officials would like a general fight to restore the esprit de corps.

Pleaded Guilty to Manslaughter.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—Thomas Davis, who killed Agnes Davis, his wife, at Front and Plum streets, pleaded guilty to manslaughter before Judge Evans Monday. Sentence was deferred. Attorneys J. D. Earnston and Hiram M. Bullison will introduce evidence from Davis' old army friends to prove his good character.

New Gusher Near Woodsfield.

WOODSFIELD, O., Dec. 7.—The oil well on the Hamilton farm, two miles south of this place, was drilled in and flowed over the derrick. It is estimated as good for 500 to 500 barrels per day and opens a new pool in this part of the county. The town is all excitement over the find and local oil speculators are jubilant.

Two Boys Drowned.

DELAWARE, O., Dec. 7.—James, son of Mary Nelson, a widow, and Robert, son of Michael Barnwell, employed on the Big Four, both aged 13, broke through the ice on Greenwood lake and were drowned. The bodies were not recovered Sunday night.

Impaled on a Picket.

WOOSTER, O., Dec. 7.—While going home Mr. Church Evans, aged 84 years, slipped on the sidewalk and was impaled on a picket fence. One of the pickets caught him under the chin near the throat. His condition is dangerous.

Tired of Life at the Age of 80.

WOODSFIELD, O., Dec. 7.—Jacob Bott committed suicide by hanging himself. He was about 80 years of age. He was at one time well off, but died almost penniless, having given his property to relatives several years ago.

Burglars Got $600.

NAPOLIEN, O., Dec. 7.—Burglars gained entrance at the post office at Archbold and blew up the safe. Over $600 in money and about $10 in stamps were taken.

Potter's Failure.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Dec. 7.—A. J. Boyce, manufacturer of potters' machinery, assigned to W. L. Smith. Assets are estimated at $21,000, liabilities $24,000.

Henry Watterson at Home.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 7.—Henry Watterson returned to the city Sunday night after an absence of eight months in Europe. Sunday night a dinner was given in his honor at the Fennell club.

Col. Fellows Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Col. J. R. Fellows died at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon.
