Christmas Greeting to You One and All.

We take it for granted that your hearts are in the right place this year, just as they always have been in the past, and that you feel the same generous desire to remember those you love with appropriate and desirable Christmas gifts this season, as heretofore. We know that in nearly every individual instance there is one obstacle that seems to bar the way to gift making, and that is the scarcity of money. The times of late have been undeniably hard, and few, if any, have escaped the ill effects of this unfortunate condition, therefore, the situation with you is like this: You feel the same old desire to make your relatives and friends appropriate gifts; the feeling is just as strong as ever, but the means at your command seem to fall short of the needs of the occasion. That is why we wish to make our Holiday Announcement, this year, particularly a talk to your pocket books.

We are going to be the people's Santa Claus, this season, just as far as the inexorable laws of business will permit, by selling you Christmas gifts of all kinds at the lowest scale of prices known to the trade. We are going to make your money far-reaching and profitable in the exchange for Christmas gifts. What though your dollars are few—we will make them go farther than ever before. We want you to come in and see how little it takes to secure suitable and appropriate gifts for those you desire to remember. For weeks past we have labored industriously to prepare for the Holiday Trade, and our store is now fairly shining with a beautiful array of Christmas Gifts. We are strong in the belief that every Holiday shopper who visits our store will be sure to find irresistible attractions among our great variety of pretty and appropriate gifts. Special pains and much careful consideration was expended to make the collection of Christmas Goods one which should include something really desirable for every individual, from the youngest to the oldest. We have made it a point to have great variety in goods of all prices, ranging from the merest trifle upwards, in order that you may make good selections at any price you may feel able to pay. Having thus smoothed the way for all classes of buyers by grading and assorting our stock in such a way as to meet the needs of those who have little as well as those who have much to spend, and having marked all our goods at the lowest possible figures, we feel that we deserve your patronage.

Hoping to see every reader at our store at an early day, we remain,
Very truly yours,

NEW NAME
Promtently Mentioned for a Place in the Cabinet.

CANTON, O., Dec. 11.—A new name swung into prominence here Thursday as a cabinet possibility from California and for the moment was more eagerly discussed than were the names of Judges De Haven and Waymire in their turn. The man of the hour with the unofficial makers of cabinets is Judge Joseph McKenna, of California, who was appointed to the United States circuit bench by President Harrison. Judge McKenna was an industrious and able member of congress, and served during a portion of Maj. McKinley's term in the house. He is well known by the president-elect and is an uncommonly available man of the highest character and standing.

Mrs. McKinley left Thursday night for Chicago for a few days' visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette McWilliams, of that city, who have been guests at the McKinley residence for a few days past. Mrs. McKinley will probably be away for a week, and while she goes to rest and get a change of scene, the first time for several months, it is also understood that the matter of an inaugural wardrobe will receive some attention.

TEST CASE.
The Torrens Land Law Will Also Have a United States Supreme Court Ruling.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 11.—The supreme court of Ohio some time ago decided that national bank stock was not a credit against indebtedness in tax appraisalment. This conflict, it is believed, with a decision of the United States court. It has been decided to carry the case in which the Ohio decision was given to the United States supreme court for a more direct final ruling on the subject.

The United States supreme court will also be asked to decide as to the constitutionality of the Torrens or Australian law, now in force in Ohio. It is claimed that it is objected to by nearly all the state and county officers, and the secretary of state will start the ball rolling with a friendly law suit.

Civil Service Reforms.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—The annual meeting of the National Civil Service Reform league began here Thursday in the Hotel Walton and will conclude Saturday night when a banquet will be tendered the visiting delegates by the Pennsylvania association. Prominent representatives from various parts of the country are in attendance.

ST. NICHOLAS
FOR YOUNG FOLKS
Conducted by MARY MAPES DODGE

"The best of all children's magazines" is the universal verdict on ST. NICHOLAS. It began existence in 1874, and has merged in itself all the leading children's magazines in America. The greatest writers of the world are its regular contributors. The supreme quality of ST. NICHOLAS is its bright, healthful, and invigorating atmosphere.

THE COMING YEAR
will be a great one in its history. It will have a more varied table of contents and more spirited illustrations than ever before. The leading serial, beginning in November, will be A Story of Shakspeare's Time.

"MASTER SKYLARK,"
By JOHN BENNETT.
Illustrated by Birch.

THIS is a live story, full of action, color, excitement, and human nature. The world's greatest poet figures as one of the principal characters, although the hero and heroine are a boy and girl. It is poetic in treatment, but full of the romance of the Elizabethan age, and very dramatic in plot. Another serial, beginning in November, is

A Great War Story for North and South.
"The Last Three Soldiers."
By WILLIAM H. SHELTON. A strong story with a unique plot. Three Union soldiers, three exiles of a signal corps, stationed on a mountain-top, cut a bridge that connects them with the rest of the world and become veritable castaways in the midst of the Confederacy. Will be read with delight by children North and South.

A Serial for Girls,
"JUNE'S GARDEN," by Marion Hill, is addressed especially to girls, and is by a favorite writer. It is full of fun, the character-drawing is strong and the whole influence of the story is inspiring and uplifting.

Short Stories.
THERE will be many tales of brave effort and adventure. George Kennan has written three exciting stories of his experiences in Russia; Walter Camp will have a stirring account of a bicycle race, and J. T. Trowbridge will contribute a story of the sea. Every month will have articles representing
