MARIETTA DAILY LEADER
THURSDAY, DEC. 24, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Speaking of the death of Capt. O. H. Smith, chief postal clerk killed at the Hamden wreck, the Chillicothe Gazette says: "A sad incident connected with the death of Capt. Smith was the fact that, within the next three weeks, he was to have been wedded to Mrs. Schnell, an estimable and cultured lady residing in Cincinnati. Upon learning how seriously Capt. Smith had been injured, Mrs. Schnell hastened to his bedside, and was present to comfort him in his dying hour. She accompanied his remains to this city, and was met by the deceased's son, Mr. Charles M. Smith, of Cincinnati."

—Mrs. C. W. Holz has just received an elegant and well selected stock of cut glass for Christmas trade. See it.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heidrick, of Marietta, will spend Christmas with the latter's parents Col. and Mrs. Geo. W. Taggart, of this city.—Parkersburg Journal.

—At the German St. Luke's Church the Christmas services will be as follows: Christmas holy day services with confession and holy sacrament at 10 o'clock a. m., standard time. At 7 o'clock p. m. customary celebration of the children. Everybody welcome.

—Mr. F. S. Shurick and family will leave this morning for Pittsburg where they will visit relatives for about ten days.

—The "sunrise" union meeting of the Christian Endeavor societies of the city will be held in the chapel of the First Congregational church at 6:30 o'clock, a. m.

—At the meeting of the members of the Harmar Congregational church Wednesday evening, the resignation of Rev. Jonathan G. Smith, tendered several weeks ago, was acted upon and accepted. The vote was very close, there being only one majority in favor of accepting the resignation. It was voted to request the Deacons to retain Mr. Smith as supply until April 1st, should he desire to remain. A number of applications from ministers who would like the position are already on file.

—J. W. Wells & Co., Greene street, have always on hand a fresh, clean stock of groceries.

—The fire department was called by a still alarm Wednesday evening to the Mills Building, corner of Second and Putnam streets, where a fire in Rodick's hardware store was found burning. This is the second alarm from the same place in a few months and the Chief of the department states that he will cause the fire to be inspected today.

—Superintendent Boyd was the pleased recipient yesterday of several scores of handkerchiefs, the thoughtful Christmas remembrances of the school teachers of the city.

—The Enquirer has this: E. R. Shiners, manager of last season's Paris, Ky., team, will have charge of one of the best teams in the Ohio and West Virginia League next year. It will be an Ohio club.

—Auditorium Christmas afternoon and night, Hennesay Leroy in "Other People's Money."

—The many friends of hard-hitting Tommy Williams will be glad to know that he will be a member of the Marietta team next season, probably playing in the outfield. An agreement to that effect has been reached between Mr. Williams and the management, Shiers, Donahue and Hutchins, of Springfield, and our own Dick McCammon will also be in their customary positions and perhaps one or two others of the old team also.

—Mr. George Blake is again able to be at business after being housed up several days.

—This office will put out a paper tomorrow morning, but none on Saturday, as we want to enjoy Christmas Day.

—In Common Pleas Court Wednesday Nicholas Winans, who was indicted for attempting a criminal assault upon Mrs. Sarah Potter, of Belpre, pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and battery and was fined $25 and costs. The indictment for assault with intent to rape was nolleed.

—For fresh meats, groceries and produce call on J. W. Wells & Co., Greene street.

—College closed Wednesday for the holiday vacation.

—The following students have been named by the College literary societies to represent them at the next Junior exhibition: Alpha Kappa—C. B. McClure, H. L. Judd, A. T. Williamson, Psi Gamma—T. J. Jones, H. Maury, Verne Bowie.

—Mrs. John W. Simpson and daughter Maupia left Wednesday for Cincinnati, after a visit with friends in this city.

—A marvel of choice goods for Christmas at Mrs. C. W. Holz's, 286 Front St.

—A party was given last evening at Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Turner's, Fifth street, in honor of their daughter, Mary. The young people were disguised in sheet and pillow case costumes.

—Dick Padden and Brook Brown, of Martins Ferry, were in the city Wednesday visiting friends.

—Miss Florence Hedges, who has been visiting Mrs. G. A. Wood, returned home Wednesday.

—There will be no rehearsal by the Choral Society this week.

—The Marietta Hardware Company, West Side, has sold a one-third interest in the business to Mr. B. C. Robinson.

—In Squire Palmer's court the Washington County Fair Association secured a verdict against Lee Williams for $130.

—Don't miss the best attraction of the season. It will be here on Christmas afternoon and night.

—A divorce was granted by Judge Sibley Wednesday in the case of Jacob Schlarp vs. Jennie Schlarp. The ground of the divorce was unfaithfulness.

—Lost—a lady's gold watch, between the wharfboat and Craig's Gallery. Finder will be rewarded upon returning the watch to the Bellevue Hotel.

—The jury in the case of the State vs. Weisand, brought in a verdict of guilty. Weisand was indicted for indecent behavior.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Vanvalley leave today for Broadwell to attend the wedding of the former's brother, Mr. George R. Vanvalley, to Miss Grace Ogg.

—The holiday business of the express companies is much heavier than ever before.

—The Marietta Hose Company will give a dance at the City Hall this evening. Music by Mason Brothers' orchestra.

—China for decorating. All sorts of pretty things. See them at Mrs. C. W. Holz's, 286 Front St.

—Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride at Fourth and Washington streets, Mr. Joseph Gibson, of the West Side firm of D. H. Gibson & Sons, was united in marriage to Miss Lulu Cutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cutter. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the near friends and relatives only and was a quiet, pretty affair. The young couple are both well known and popular and the Leader joins heartily in the congratulations being extended by their friends.

—The old talk of a rival telephone exchange at lower rates is again being revived. Parties interested are in the city and the Marietta city council has just granted the franchise asked for that city. The rates are not to exceed $25.00 for business houses and $15.00 for residences per year. The telephone is no longer a luxury but a necessity. We are sure our townspeople would hail cheaper telephone service with satisfaction. After the agitation of two or three years ago for a rival exchange (we do not say because of it) rates here were materially reduced. If good service can be had for less money, and we presume it can, Parkersburg wants it.—Parkersburg Journal.

—Today will find the Marietta merchants too busy to turn around, and many of them will go dinnerless if not without supper also.

—Clean, fresh meats and groceries at J. W. Wells & Co.'s, Greene street.

CHILDREN ought to brighten a mother's daily cares and help her to be strong, capable and cheerful. It is at right for mothers to feel the burden of life growing heavier and heavier year by year because of child-bearing and child-rearing. That shows something is wrong in the mother's physical condition. There is some unnatural weakness in her delicate organism which disqualifies her for motherhood. When this is wrong everything is wrong. A woman's physical life is wrapped up in the special organs of her sex. When these are restored to health and strength the whole woman becomes healthy and strong. Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., has made a life study of this problem of restoring health and strength to women. His "Favorite Prescription" is the most successful remedy that has ever been known for women's peculiar ailments. Its sale exceeds the combined sales of all other medicines for women. It cures the most obstinate uterine diseases. It goes directly to the internal organism which is the real seat of all the troubles. It imparts vigor and health where they are most needed; heals ulceration; stops the weakening drains; promotes regularity; restores muscular power to the ligaments; thus correcting displacements of special organs in the most natural way.

Complete information regarding the "Favorite Prescription" and testimonials from hundreds who have used it, are embodied in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a standard medical work of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated, which will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. This work is a complete family doctor book and should be read by both young and old. The profits on the sale of 50,000 copies at $1.00 per copy, possible through this free edition, Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
