MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

THURSDAY, DEC. 31, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—A dispatch from Parkersburg, dated Tuesday, has to say as follows: Isaac Prager & Sons, retail dry goods firm, assigned tonight to Henry Keller. Liabilities are not as yet given, but probably exceed $100,000. The assets, aside from the individual property of the members of the firm, equal the liabilities. The cause of the failure is said to have been strong pressure brought upon the firm by wholesalers who were forced to have money. Cincinnati is said to be heavily interested.

—Mr. J. J. Pultz, of Mount Vernon, Ohio, who has so successfully made numerous and substantial additions to the membership of the local order of A. O. U. W., will leave today for Pomeroy, his old home.

—The H. L. Theis Club concert at Gilman avenue M. E. church, tonight promises to be a very pretty entertainment. The small admission fee, 15 cents should insure a full house.

—The choir of St. Luke's Episcopal church will hold a social Friday evening in the church parlors.

—Mr. W. P. Robinson, of Beverly, was in the city yesterday.

—Miss Willia Cotton entertained a number of her young lady friends Wednesday afternoon at a "thimble party."

—The "Sixteen Club," so called, it is said, because no member is allowed to act older than he or she had spent but sixteen sunny summers, will speed the parting year and welcome the coming one tonight at Dr. Curtis's, Second street.

—An organization has been effected among some of the young ladies and gentlemen of the city, to the number of about a score, which will have for its exalted object, good times. The charter meeting will be held New Year's night with Mrs. C. W. Loomis.

—The First Congregational church Sabbath School will hold its Christmas festival for the scholars this evening in the Chapel at 5:30 o'clock. An entertainment to which all, old and young, are invited will be held in the church at 7 o'clock.

—Mr. and Mrs. Barton Preston and their little son, Burton, of Mansfield, are the guests of Mrs. Preston's brother Mr. L. C. Robinson, Beverly. They will remain until the 2d prox.

—We understand that Miss Mary Stanley, who has many friends here, will at an early day be the guest of her uncle, Mr. John W. Stanley. It will be remembered that several months ago Miss Stanley met with a very severe accident on a cable car on State street in Chicago.

—Miss Julia Dyar is visiting friends at Beverly.

—The Business Men's Carnival at Beverly Tuesday night, gotten up in the interest of the Beverly Fair, was a grand success. It was mainly the work of the young married ladies of Beverly and some fifty or sixty took part. Some of the characters were unique, notably that of Miss Lillie Nickel, representing the Electric Light Plant. The hall was darkened and she was covered with a blaze of lights and the effect was magical and brought out a round of applause. The Fair board was also well represented by four ladies decorated with all sorts of fair bills.

—While a lady was about to alight from the B. & O. S. W. train at Gravey Bank Wednesday evening a crowd of young fellows threw a number of bunches of fire crackers under the car steps. The fire crackers began exploding immediately and for several minutes the space about the platform was a mass of fire. Conductor Campbell assisted the lady back into the car or her clothing would have been ignited beyond doubt. The train was delayed five minutes by the occurrence, which has been reported to headquarters. Prosecution will probably follow.

—A company composed of M. Hadcox, J. G. Gillespie, Ed. Reynolds and others drilled in a small well on the McGary farm at Macksburg.

—The Amos farm well of Latschaw, Earnest and others on Long Run is in and starts off at something over 100 barrels per day.

—Harmar Lodge No. 300, F. & A. M., held their annual public installation of officers and banquet at their lodge rooms on Putnam street Wednesday evening.

—Hon. J. P. Wood, of Athens, and Attorney F. A. Durbin, of Zanesville, are in the city on business, registered at the Balleyue.

—Buell Post will meet at 6:30, standard time, this evening for muster and inspection. All members are requested to be present.

—A terrific explosion of natural gas occurred in the Cambridge postoffice Tuesday and the plate glass in the building was shattered to atoms. No one was hurt.

—For fresh meats, groceries and produce call on J. W. Wells & Co., Greene street.

—The case of Ohio vs. Lawrence and Marcus Winn, who are charged with shooting at Daniel Schafer with intent to wound, will be heard by Squire Guyton on Saturday.

—Homer Mack, a brakeman on the C. & M., got his hand between the bumpers while coupling cars Tuesday night. The hand was so badly mashed that it had to be amputated at the wrist.

—Mr. P. E. Raymond, agent of the Actor's Holiday Co., which appears at the Auditorium Friday night, is in the city.

—Agents George Chanat and J. F. Small, of Blaney's Baggage Check Co., which will be here Jan. 5th, were in the city Wednesday.

—Prof. W. A. Cooper, of the College, is spending the holidays with his parents at Caldwell.

—The members of the Marietta Orchestra are working diligently to make the first sacred concert next Sunday a perfect success.

—Mr. Fred Thompson, of Eaton, O., has accepted a position in the barber shop of Conrad Baum.

—The first of the series of sacred concerts will be given at the Auditorium next Sunday afternoon. Seats are on sale at the Marietta Bookstore at the low price of 10 cents.

—Rev. John Boyd left Wednesday for Beverly to perform the marriage ceremony of Dr. E. T. Hayward and Miss Jeanette Applegate.

—Mrs. Cora Wilson left Wednesday for Baltimore, after an extended visit with relatives in this city.

—Misses Kirby and Leeper will receive on New Year's Day at the home of the latter on Second street.

—Mr. Daniel Hannan, who was arrested on a fugitive warrant sworn out by a Pittsburg firm, appeared before Squire Palmer Wednesday and his hearing was continued to 2 p. m. Thursday to await the action of Governor Bushnell, who is considering the matter of honoring the requisition for Hannan's return to Pennsylvania.

—A reception will be tendered on the new towboat James Y. Lockwood Friday night to Capt. and Mrs. Leyhe, of Pittsburg. Capt. Leyhe is here from Pittsburg to take charge of the boat when completed, which will be some time next week. The reception will be given by a number of Marietta business men who have assisted in the work of creating the Lockwood into one of the finest towboats on inland waters.

—Mrs. Dr. Savage, of Columbus, is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Jacob East, Second street.

—Clean, fresh meats and groceries at J. W. Wells & Co.'s, Greene street.

—Mr. Bernard Lauderbeck, of Newport township, was adjudged insane in Probate Court Wednesday and application made for his admission to the Athens State Hospital. The unfortunate man is a steamboat pilot, 29 years of age and married.

—The wedding of Mr. William Clause and Miss Anna Augustenine occurred at eight o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. F. Kraft. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about fifty invited guests and was one of the prettiest of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Clause have a host of friends who will join the Leader in extending best wishes.

—Wednesday morning City Commissioner C. J. Best, with Mr. Chas. Wagner, knocked down the fence of Mr. Gustav Kaiser across the alley in Square No. 7, as ordered by Council Tuesday evening. Attorney W. G. Way, representing Mr. Kaiser, immediately procured warrants for the arrest of Messrs. Best and Wagner on the charge of tearing down fences, and the case will be heard before Squire Palmer. We are informed that Mr. Kaiser will also bring suit against the city for damages. The outcome of the case will be awaited with interest.

—The dead body of an unknown man was found Wednesday on the pier of the B. & O. S. W. train going into Cincinnati.

—Mr. R. E. Driggs, of McDowell, Ills., is visiting relatives in Marietta and vicinity.

—American Union Chapter No. 1 will hold their annual banquet and installation of officers this evening.

—Mr. W. P. Robinson, of Beverly, was in the city Wednesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoppman, Jr., of Columbus, are guests of relatives in the city.

—Mrs. Hannah Hazelrigg, of Williamstown, who died of consumption Sunday, was buried Wednesday afternoon.

—The war on poker players appears to be on in earnest. Three persons who have been meddling with the pasteboards were before the Mayor Wednesday, pleaded guilty and were fined $50 and costs each.

—The name of the firm which is plaintiff in the case against Dan Hannan is Hayne, Wilson & Kraft and not the National Supply Company.

A Household Necessity.
Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, act gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispel colds, cure headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. to-day; 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

When buying canned corn, demand "superior" brand, and you will enjoy best!

It is hard to tell sometimes whether the shopper or the saleswoman feels the effect of shopping the most. Even the pleasant part of it involves standing, waiting, weariness for both of them and more or less hurry and neglect of regular meals and regular habits. This leads to dyspepsia or constipation or both; they are two links in the chain of indigestion; another link is biliousness; headache is another; then follows backache, drowsiness, dizziness, an irritable temper and the "blues," all links of one chain binding down your energies and making life a burden. The way to throw off the whole trouble at once is to put the bowels and stomach into condition again. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do this quicker, more comfortably and more naturally than any other remedy in the world. They actually cure constipation so it stays cured; you don't become a slave to their use; they strengthen the intestines to do their own work, tone the stomach and gently stimulate the liver. They are mild but sure, like Nature itself. Don't let any druggist give you a griping pill. Insist on having Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser gives more plain useful information about the human-body and all the ailments to which it is subject than any other single book in the English language. It is really a medical encyclopedia in one volume, a large heavy book of 1000 pages, with over 500 illustrations. The outlay of money, time and effort in producing this great book was paid for by the sale of the first edition of 650,000 copies at $1.50 each; and the profit has been used in publishing the present edition of half-a-million copies to be sent absolutely without price to all who will remit the small charge of 2 cents in one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. Address with stamps, World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
