STOLE A GOLD WATCH.

A Marietta Darkey Goes Through a Companion.

Harry L. Trimble, an employe of the dry docks, went out Saturday evening to have a little fun among the boys and it seems he found it. During his wanderings around he town he fell in with Will Scott, a colored fellow from Marietta.

From the last reports they proceeded to fill up on the "juice that jollifies" and became quite chummy. They proceeded up along the river to Riverside and after a short communication, Trimble fell asleep. Scott pretended to sleep, but he waited a while and when Trimble became dead to the world, Scott went through his pockets and took Trimble's gold watch. When Trimble woke up he found that his side partner had skipped and with him went the watch. He reported his loss to the police, but as yet they have failed to find Scott. He has probably gone to his home at Marietta and hid himself away from the watchful eyes of the Marietta sleuths. If caught he will be brought back and tried.—Sentinel.

LOCAL OPTION.

In yesterday's Leader the type made us say that the local option election was held in Muskingum township. It should have been Muskingum precinct of Marietta township. The complete vote in the township is as follows:

Mile Run—For the sale, 8; against 65. Fultonburg—For the sale, 22; against 45. Muskingum—For the sale, 13; against 12. Total—For the sale, 43; against 236.

AMPUTATED.

Mr. Arthur Burton, who boards at Mr. Frank Peters', Third street, had the misfortune Monday evening to catch his little finger of the right hand in the chain of his bicycle. He was cleaning the machine and in some unknown manner caught his finger in the chain. It was badly mashed and torn in such a manner that the finger had to be amputated at the second joint. Dr. Lambert and Dr. McKim attended him. Mr. Burton is employe at Lob... and will be compelled to stop his work for some time.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is still rising, but slowly. Capt. Jas. Sanford, for many years on the Andes, and lately from Mexico, is piloting the Cummins. It is reported that Capt. Sanford has sold his interests in the south and will not return.

The towboat Tom Brown is to receive a new hull. She will be hauled on the Brownsville docks today. The Cummins will pass up Thursday afternoon for Wheeling.

SURPRISED.

Sixteen ladies met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Sniffen last evening and in a body called at the home of Mr. Louis Goebel, where they gave a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Henry Goebel. The affair was entirely in the nature of a surprise. Dancing and music was indulged in till a late hour when after ice cream and cake, the entire party enjoyed a trolley ride. A grand good time is reported.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Monday evening the eight-year-old daughter of Calvin Wellspring, while at play with a number of other children, was cut on the left leg about half way between the ankle and the knee, with a sickle. The cut is a serious one and laid open the flesh to a considerable depth. Dr. Eddy was summoned and dressed the wound. At last reports the child was resting easy.

SUSPICIOUS.

S. C. Kilgore, of Waverly, on the War Path Again.

Parkersburg, July 26.—Z. J. Bahlman, manager of the Oil Well Supply Co.'s store at Waverly, was in the city last night for the purpose of swearing out a peace warrant against S. C. Kilgore, another citizen of that village.

Bahlman's story as told to Squire Jones, who issued the warrant, was in effect that Kilgore came into the Oil Well Supply Co.'s store last Saturday evening and inquired for Bahlman, applying to him at the same time a vile name. He was told by S. I. Smith, another employe at the store that Bahlman was not in. Kilgore then threatened to kill Bahlman when they met. He then called Smith a foul name and asked him if he "wanted to take it up." The result of this passage of words between Kilgore and Smith was that they came to blows, Smith getting somewhat the worst of the fistic argument.

Bahlman says that Kilgore accuses him of attempting to be too familiar with Mrs. Kilgore. Bahlman says such an accusation is unjust and untrue. He believes it originated from his interference with two of his friends whom he found in Mrs. Kilgore's company. The trio were having a social drink together when Bahlman put in his appearance and prevailed upon them to quit Mrs. Kilgore's company as he feared trouble would result from it.

This is Bahlman's story of the trouble about as he narrated it to Squire Jones.

They say that Kilgore, for whom the warrant was issued, is the same individual who, about two years ago, went to a church festival being held at Waverly, whipped several people, kicked over the tables of refreshments and precipitated a panic. When Squire... remonstrated with him he attacked that official. His lawlessness on that occasion cost him all the money he had and a term in jail and it was likewise caused by jealousy of his wife it is said.

I have heard many orators of large reputation, but none whom I consider Mr. Crosby's superior in the true essentials of oratory. His figure at once commands attention; his voice is full, rich and sweet; his thought clear, logical, profound and vigorous; his language well chosen, beautiful, terse; his wealth of illustration striking, while his reserved strength is so great as to make him the most wonderful speaker I have ever heard.—S. Solis-Cohen, M. D., Philadelphia.

TYPEWRITING.

If you wish to have any typewriting done, call on Miss Schrader at Squire Richards' office.

The farmer is supposed to be about as healthy as it is possible for a man to be. People smile at the idea that a farmer can ever be ill. His occupation is supposed to be an assurance of good health. The contrary is frequently the case. He is the most hard worked of men, and the hard working man above all others needs to take care of his health. Frequently the farmer is in a malarial district. The result is malarial troubles, liver complaint, rheumatism or neuralgia. The best of all medicines for hard-working men and women is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It invigorates the liver and purifies the blood, driving out the poisons that are responsible for malaria, and the acids that are responsible for rheumatism. It is the greatest of all blood-makers, flesh-builders and nerve-tonics. It strengthens the muscles and vitalizes every organ. It brings sweet slumber at night and mental and physical activity during the day. It gives zest to the appetite and makes the digestion perfect. The man or woman who resorts to this wonderful medicine whenever the body is out of sorts will be able to do almost any amount of work without danger to the constitution. Thousands have testified to its marvelous merits. Medicine dealers sell it. "Your Golden Medical Discovery" cured me of a severe case of poisoning of the blood," writes Mrs. Selia Rice, of Coast, Santa Cruz Co., Cal. "Boils one after another would break out on my arms, and were very painful. I have tried the loudest praised Sarsaparillas without any benefit whatever, and not until I took your 'Discovery' did I get well. That was two years ago, and I have not had a boil or sore of any kind since." The wise mother looks after the health of every member of the family. In this she cannot have a better aid than a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It contains 1008 pages and over 300 illustrations. It tells all about the home-treatment of ordinary diseases. It used to cost $1.50 a copy, now it is free. For a paper-covered copy send 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
