

Second General Stocks OF SPRING GOODS AT Hutchison's Bargain Store.

Now open for your inspection.

The surprising low prices we are making on all kinds of goods this spring rather takes the conceit out of the calamity and high price prophets. Some goods we have never sold so cheap, some others at as low prices as we have ever sold the same qualities for, a few others are still lighter than last season. If you are persuaded to pay high prices for some of our goods are better than any other store and can't be sold for any less price stores, you are unfortunate, but we can hardly let you felicitate yourself on that belief, that, well, if I did pay more I got better goods and better styles. For you certainly did not examine our offerings and get our prices.

We are prepared to show you one of the largest and best assorted stocks of Dry Goods, Notions, Trimmings and Linings in the city, bought from the largest stock in the United States, where our buyers had range to select styles, qualities and prices. That are not excelled anywhere. By actual count show 600 pieces of Worsteds, Woolen and Wool and Silk Mixtures Dress Goods, besides our stocks of Silks, Satins, Velvets, Lawns, Gingham, Prints, Challies and Domestic. All new and bought this season. We sell the best makes of 100 yard spool silk, all colors, at 7c a spool.

Our ribbon stock is showing the late novelties in Shirred, Corded and Fancy Prices that will please you.

The genuine Toile Du Nord Gingham in neat and dress styles at 8c and 9c a yard. Many novelties in light weight dress goods at 4, 5, 7 and 10c, to 15c a yard. Away below regular prices. China silk at 25c a yard.

100 pieces new China and Japan Floor Matting at prices within the reach of the most economical.

We have it at last—100 piece set decorated Dinner Set of dishes for $5 and $5.50, a saving of $1.50 to $2.00 on a set. A new full stock of quensware for your inspection.

We offer the new Ralston Cook Book for 25c. Everybody has to pay 50c in other cities. You can save the price of it in your kitchen every day in cooking and in health the saving is incalculable.

Ask in grocery department.

Our Grocery Department needs very little advertising, if we took our capacity into account, but we like those who do not patronize us to know we are still in the business with a full stock of fresh, pure, reliable groceries at prices lower than elsewhere. Give us a trial and we will convince you.

Hundreds of bargains to show you when you come to see us.

Don't forget we can and will save you money on your purchases of Shoes Clothing and Hats, which departments are closing out.

SNAKE COLLECTIONS.

Washington Has One of the Very Best in the World.

Ugly Reptiles from Africa, Asia and America to be Seen in Our Famous National Museum.

[Special Washington Letter.]

WHO is afraid of snakes? Above all others of human kind, the women have greatest dread of reptiles. Whether this instinctive feeling comes of the experience in the Garden of Eden, or not, each of us must conjecture. The fact is generally conceded.

A poet once said, that "woman, though only a part of man's rib, if the story in Genesis don't tell a fit, caused Adam to sin, and serpents to crawl, and folly to follow the lives of us all."

The story in Genesis says that the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field, and that the serpent tempted the woman, who tempted the man, so that they ate of the tree of knowledge of good and evil; and they were expelled from the garden "lest they take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever."

The penalty placed upon the serpent, the original tempter, was, "Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life."

Eternal enmity was also decreed between the seed of the woman and the seed of the serpent, and from time immemorial there has been this enmity; so that instinctively wherever we see a serpent we proceed to kill it, for it is known to be deadly, subtle and cowardly. Moreover, all women shrink in terror from every species of reptile. Consequently it is the most unnatural thing on earth to see, in traveling shows, the anomaly of women coerced into handling snakes for the delectation of ecstatic crowds.

The modern men of science never give even passing thought to the story of original sin, but study snakes just as they study other phenomena of nature; just as they dissect frogs, fish, cattle and human beings. The scientific men of the national museum and Smithsonian institution have gathered practically every variety of snake on the face of the earth, including prehistoric specimens. The collection has been placed in the northeastern corner of the museum building. There are all sorts of reptiles and creeping things in the gallery nook, and the smell of alcohol and other preparations in which they are preserved is plainly noticeable. The place is dark and gloomy, a veritable chamber of horrors, and a glance at the immense bottles with their poisonous contents is not calculated to inspire confidence in the minds of the beholder, who seem to be figuratively, as well as actually, "seeing snakes."

The scientist in charge of these curiosities recently showed to some visitors a number of species lately received from all over the world, two or three of them being far more than ordinary interest. One of the reptiles shown, which was secured by the expedition to Liberia, of which Prof.

REASONS BOILED DOWN

Why Judge Nash Should Be Nominated For Governor.

BACKED BY HIS OWN COUNTY

Franklin's Delegates Ask Ohio Republicans to Join Them.

HIS BRILLIANT PARTY RECORD.

Throughout his Public Career George K. Nash Has Been Faithful and Upright and His Eminent Ability For Chief Executive Conceded by All.

Columbus, O., April 11, 1899.

To the Republicans of Ohio:

At a meeting of the delegates and their alternates, from Franklin county to the Republican state convention, it was unanimously resolved to issue an address to the Republicans of Ohio.

The object of this address is to set forth why we, who are the friends and neighbors of Judge George K. Nash, are earnestly and unitedly in favor of his nomination for governor, and to ask the Republicans of the state to unite with us in bringing about that very desirable result.

While Judge Nash, by reason of his active work for the party, on the stump and in the committee rooms, for more than 25 years, is well and favorably known personally, or by reputation, to all the Republicans of Ohio, it is fitting that we, who have known him intimately during these years, should call attention at this time, not only to these services, but also to his qualifications for the office, of which, by reason of our acquaintance with him, we may have fuller knowledge than others who have not been so favorably situated.

George K. Nash has been a resident of Columbus since 1855, and has all ways since that time been a prominent leader in the Republican party in Franklin county. His election to the office of prosecuting attorney of Franklin county in 1870, and his re-election in 1872, both due to his ability and popularity, were the beginning of the downfall of the Democratic party in this county.

From January, 1880, to April, 1883, he filed with signal ability the office of attorney general, and resigned that office upon being appointed by Governor Foster a member of the supreme court commission. This office he filled with great credit to himself and the state, until the expiration of the commission, in 1885. He has always been active in political work in municipal, county, state and national affairs. He was chairman of the state executive committee in the presidential campaign of 1880; and again in 1881, 1882 and 1887. When not acting as chairman, he has always been in close touch with the committees, his experience and ability rendering his services invaluable. Such have been his political services; always ready, always able to serve the Republican party; prepared to conduct a campaign or to assist in its prosecution, with ability to command, and loyalty to serve.

In all these campaigns he has ever shown himself a vigorous antagonist and a brilliant fighter. The blows he gave were given fairly, squarely and with great effect, and his opponents have ever found it impossible to swerve him from what he believed to be right.

He has been honest, faithful and upright in all his dealings, commanding respect and the affection of his friends and the respect of his enemies. His executive ability has been tested and proved.

His experience as the law officer of the state has made him familiar, not only with all its various departments, but with their needs and methods, and peculiarly fits him to administer them so that their purposes shall be faithfully carried out.

His acquaintance with public men in Ohio and elsewhere is very large, and his association with them has so familiarized him with public affairs as eminently to qualify him for the office of governor.

We know he will fill the office with honor and dignity, with credit to himself and to the state, and we present him to the Republican voters of Ohio, for their deliberate judgment and favorable consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Delegates,

Jacob Sherman, H. McCallister, Harry R. Jones, E. M. Buggins, Isaiah Smith, S. O. Gibbs, John J. Pugh, Willis G. Rowland, Albert Hickenbacher, William Trautman, George Mounatt, Henry A. H. Dyer, A. SMITH D. FRY.

HE THOUGHT HE HAD THEM.

specimens show that they are properly classified in this collection. Notably are the gigantic white ants which have been found in Liberia and sent to the scientists of the institution. They are of different sizes, comprising "soldiers," "workers" and "queens." One of the latter shown was about an inch long. The jaws of the workers are powerfully developed. Some varieties of the ants build mounds as high or higher than a man, in which they live. A member of the expedition told the writer that he threw a rat in among a lot of them on the march, and in a few minutes only the bones were left, the flesh having been removed by the creatures. If a person gets in their way in the forest they make things lively for him.

One of the greatest curiosities in the reptile line comprised in that collection is a Florida rattlesnake of the "diamond" variety, about 6 1/2 feet in length and nine inches in circumference. The scales of the "rattler" are like those on a large fish, and its head is as large as a man's fist.

It must have been in life, as it is now in alcohol, a terribly repulsive object, and a most formidable one to meet in combat. The specimen was the largest of the rattlesnake variety ever seen by any of the persons connected with the department. The poison fangs, which are located in the upper jaw, are nearly half an inch in length, and are hooked, being as sharp as needles. There are two of them, sometimes three, and there are always what are known as "supernumerary" ones, ready to take the place of any that are broken or raveled.

The fangs of the Liberian viper, or "bitis gabonica," though the snake is at least one-third smaller, are about as large as those of the giant rattlesnake. Even if there were no poison glands the simple bite would tear a man's hand terribly.

Another specimen which was sent to the museum by Dr. Abbott, the famous Philadelphia explorer, from India, is that of a snake nearly 14 feet in length. Its head is nearly as large as that of a baby. The reptile is regarded as a most curious specimen and one of great interest in the reptile collection.

These snakes constitute a very small portion of the collection; but they are given special mention because they are so specially hideous and dangerous, as well as repulsive. Besides, it would not be interesting to describe the kinds of snake which we have been accustomed to see since childhood, and the rattlers who have lain coiled up under a blackberry bush, warning us in time to get out of harm's way; a warning which we have often rewarded with a club or a barrel of shot from our shotgun.

When you come to Washington by all means look over the snake collection; but come sober and be in your right mind, or else you will be likely to have some one play upon you as some congressman did a few years ago upon one of their colleagues from Tennessee. He had been drinking to excess, and some of his colleagues put him in a cab and drove to the museum. The victim was sleeping when he arrived there, was carried to an easy chair, and permitted to sleep for an hour. When he awakened there was a box constrictor coiled up before him. He howled for help, but nobody came. Casting his eyes to either side, he saw pythons and rattlesnakes coiled ready to strike. He looked in terror about him, not daring to move, but calling for help. Finally, thoroughly convinced that he was suffering with mania a pota, he shouted: "I've got 'em," and rushed past the snakes, heading for the door, when he met his congressional colleagues, who assured him that he was in the national museum, and that he was sobering up.

Fortunately the practical joke worked so well that he never has since taken a drop of strong liquor.

HE PASSES.

FROM SEVENTH STREET.

The Little Conqueror Arrives in Marietta and People are Talking.

Surprise, wonder and admiration follow in the track of "The Little Conqueror." People are talking about it everywhere, and such cases as that of Mrs. J. J. Goldsmith, a resident of Marietta, are getting to be every day occurrences. Our representative called on Mrs. Goldsmith at her residence and she gave the following brief account of her case. It is true in every particular and such testimony must carry conviction. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as Mrs. Goldsmith gives. She says:—

"I am convinced that Doan's Kidney Pills are an excellent remedy, not that I have had occasion to use them, but from the fact that my mother has, and I take pleasure in recommending them for her. It was at her home in Pittsburgh that she first learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, and while visiting here she had me get a box at the drug store of Mr. Sizer on Front street. She was taken with an attack of backache, a complaint she is subject to. She had all the symptoms of kidney trouble and suffering greatly. Doan's Kidney Pills brought her relief. Anyone in a liberty to write her in regard to the results and she will be only too pleased to give minute particulars to any lady."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.
