Punishing Polygamy.

Angus M. Cannon did wisely in pleading guilty to the charge of having more wives than the law allowed, although his action in doing so was somewhat of a surprise. The evidence of his offense would probably have been forthcoming, but he might have made a protracted legal fight against conviction. To have done so, however would have stirred up the whole question of polygamy at a time when the Mormons have their hands already more than full with the case of Congressman-elect Roberts. Probably it was as much to prevent adding to the fuel of anti-Roberts agitation as to anything else that President Cannon pleaded guilty.

From his remarks he would seem to have the idea also that he will be let off with a small fine and perhaps a very short term of imprisonment. Should he be fined only he will simply will doubtless come out of the Mormon treasury. An insignificant term of imprisonment will also have but little effect. If polygamy is to be stamped out in Utah those who practice it must have the fear of certain and severe punishment before their eyes, and the higher and more prominent the individual offending the heavier should be his punishment. The one contingency in which President Cannon should be entitled to mercy should be his making of a solemn covenant with the court that he would hereafter obey the law in spirit and in letter.—Pittsburg Times.

NEW YORK RIOTS.

The Trolley Men Join the Brooklyn Trolley Men in Their B'g Strike.

RIOTING WAS OF A SERIOUS NATURE.

Second Avenue Wednesday Night Was Crowded With a Jeering, Howling Mob Almost Its Entire Length.

They Barricaded the Streets With Paving Stones, Tore Up the Street Irons, Choked the Slots With Wire and Spikes and Stoned the Cars.

New York, July 21.—New York trolley men joined the Brooklyn trolley men Wednesday in their big strike. The center of operations in New York city was on Second avenue. The excitement in Brooklyn centered in the vicinity of Thirty-sixth street and Fifth avenue, where early Wednesday morning dynamite was used in an attempt to blow down the elevated structure.

The rioting that took place in New York Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday night was of a serious nature, infinitely fiercer than any that has taken place yet in the borough across the river. Scores of people were severely injured in the Second Avenue district. Wednesday night that thoroughfare was crowded with a jeering, howling mob almost its entire length. The great tenements gave forth their workmen and residents, who backed up the strikers in many a fierce struggle with the police and with the men were many women and still greater numbers of children. They stoned every car that passed over the tracks, hurled rocks and chunks of iron and vegetables of a various nature from the roofs of houses and from the windows; they barricaded the streets with paving stones, tore up the street irons, choked up the slots with wire and spikes and blockaded the thoroughfare. They had many a hand to hand conflict with the 600 patrolmen that had been placed along the line. Of the injured the exact number can not be known. Several policemen were removed to hospitals with broken bones and torn scalps.

At least one striker, or sympathizer, had his skull fractured and a boy had his skull fractured. Innumerable passengers on the cars received bad wounds and it was impossible for passengers on Second avenue to go much above Fourteenth street.

It was the hope of the strikers to make a deep impression by their success in Second avenue, and so far as rioting was concerned, they and their sympathizers made it. On the other lines throughout New York the strike was not at any time prominent during the day. Wednesday night, however, the motormen on the Eighth avenue line to the number of 100 or more organized and declared a strike. They thereupon set about to persuade their fellow-workmen to leave their cars and with sufficient success to have cars running on only an hourly schedule before midnight. Thursday they declared, Eighth avenue will also be tied up. The officials of the Sixth avenue line made the statement Wednesday night that cars on this avenue were moving about the same as ever.

An attempt was made at 1 o'clock Thursday morning to wreck a Park avenue car near Sands street on its way to Manhattan. A cable similar to those used to stretch electric light and telephone wires was tied across the street from post to post a foot above the pavement. The car was coming at full speed and was a short distance from Sands street when it crashed into the cable.

The fender was bent under the car, throwing the front trucks off the rails, and the motorman, James Woodward, who says he is from Philadelphia, was thrown over the dashboard, and the pavement and bruised about the shoulders and head.

There were no passengers in the car. Six policemen were aboard, but they escaped with a shaking up. The work is attributed to strikers.

A Demonstration at Barcelona.

BARCELONA, July 21.—There was a serious demonstration here Thursday. A mob of about 800 persons seized the opportunity afforded by the presence of the French Adm. Fourrier at an official lunch, to parade the streets, carrying the French tri-color and shouting seditions. The crowd was dispersed by the police after some trouble, and a number of arrests were made.

SPECIAL MEDAL OF HONOR.

The President Will Recommend to Congress That the Services of the Eighth Army Corps Be Recognized.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The war department Thursday made public a telegram from the president to Gen. Otis, thanking the men in the Philippines for their patriotism in remaining in service after the ratification of the treaty of peace. The message, which was forwarded through the war department, is dated July 1, and is as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, July 1, 1899.

"Otis, Manila.—The president desires to express in the most public manner his appreciation of the lofty patriotism shown by volunteers and regulars of the 8th army corps in performing willing service through severe campaign and battles against the insurgents in Luzon, when under the terms of their enlistment they would have been entitled to their discharge upon the ratification of the treaty of peace with Spain.

This action on their part was noble and heroic. It will stand forth as an example of the self-sacrifice and public consecration which have ever characterized the American soldiers.

In recognition thereof I shall recommend to congress that a special medal of honor be given to the officers and soldiers of the 8th army corps who performed this great duty voluntarily and enthusiastically for their country.

BAD FIRE IN BROOKLYN.

An Elevator and Two Stores Destroyed, Entailing a Loss of More Than a Quarter of a Million Dollars.

New York, July 21.—A fire whose origin is unknown destroyed more than a quarter of a million dollars' worth of property on the Brooklyn water front Wednesday night. It started in the large eight-story grain elevator of the Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., facing and abutting the Excelsior stores on Atlantic basin.

The elevator was soon totally destroyed. The fire extended to buildings Nos. 375 and 376, which are six stories high and cover an area of 150 by 125 feet. Those two buildings were completely gutted and their contents, 300,000 bushels of grain and valuable machinery, destroyed.

The stores and elevator were the property of the Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., and the grain belonged to various consignees. The loss is estimated at from $250,000 to $300,000. Well insured.

FISHING SCHOONER WRECKED.

The Crew of Sixteen Men Left the Vessel in the Darkness—Fourteen of Them Have Not Been Heard From.

CANNO, N. S., July 21.—The fishing schooner Hattie R. Worcester, of Gloucester, Mass., was wrecked on Sable Island on Monday night last. She carried a crew of 16 men, mostly Nova Scotians, commanded by Capt. Crowell.

Two of the crew, James L. McDonald, of Montague, P. E. I., and Henry Jodery, of Digby, arrived here in a dory Wednesday. They report that the vessel struck the northeast bar of Sable Island. The crew of 16 men hurriedly put some food and water in five dories and left the vessel in the darkness. No tidings of the other 14 men have been received. The Worcester had been driven down on the fishing grounds on July 5.

Newboys on a Strike.

New York, July 21.—The newboys decided in a body Thursday morning to refuse to handle either the Evening Journal or the Evening World unless furnished them at two for one cent. The offices retail them at ten for six cents. Crowds of angry boys, armed with sticks, filled the street in Printing house square Thursday morning.

A Drop in the Price of Flour.

CHICAGO, July 21.—The price of flour dropped 20 cents a barrel Wednesday and is now cheaper than for some time. The price to jobbers fell from $4.30 to $4.00, and according to the statements of dealers there is little likelihood of an upturn. The drop is said to be due to the steady decrease in the price of wheat.

His Her Fatally.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 21.—The young daughter of Justice of the Peace C. S. Greer was bitten by a "kissing bug" Monday night, and she may not recover.

THE DEADLY FEUD

The Trouble Between the Philpots and Morrises Began Eight Years Ago.

SEVERAL ENGAGEMENTS TOOK PLACE.

Both Factions Have Quit Work to Prepare for the Tremendous Struggle About to Take Place.

Arms Said to Have Been Received From London—Victims of the Fight the Other Day Escorted to Their Graves by a Heavily Armed Guard.

LONDON, Ky., July 21.—Clay county appears to be alive with armed men; both sides to the feud have suspended all labor and are assembled in their respective neighborhoods. Preparations for war go on. Arms are said to have been received from this point and taken to Clay county. It is believed they were for both sides.

Judge W. L. Brown, London, who has tried many mountain feud fighters, says that he regards this as the most serious trouble Clay county has ever had, and he expects to hear of a desperate fight.

Hugh Griffin and Aaron Morris were laid in the same grave. Harry Griffin was placed beside them. The funeral procession escorted the corpses to the burial grounds under a heavy guard, armed with Winchesters.

The Philpot-Morris feud can be traced back over eight years. It began in the Pigeon Roost fight, in which the Philpots and Fishers were engaged with a number of alleged followers of Morris. On election day L. B. Philpot was killed, and a young man named Nicholson, a clerk in the pension department at Washington, who had come home to vote, had a leg shot off. George Cole, who last year killed Marshal Roach at Barboursville, and is now a fugitive from justice, was riddled with bullets. Several others were wounded. Sam Philpot, who figured prominently in that fight, was wounded at the battle of San Juan hill.

The next fight was about six years ago. One of the Stuarts and Maj. Jack Downey, of the Chadwell-Stuart forces, were killed. The Stuarts are alleged allies of the Chadwells and Griffins in the present feud. Joe Nance and John Bowling were sent to the penitentiary on account of their participation in this battle, but were afterward pardoned.

The next engagement was four or five years ago, when Tim Philpot, Ed Fisher and others on one side were engaged by the Chadwells and George Thompson on the other. Thompson was killed, and both Tim Philpot and Ed Fisher were indicted and tried, but they were acquitted.

One other fierce but short battle occurred at Dripping Springs, Clay county, in which Dave, Hugh and Joe Bowling lost their lives at the hands of the Hamptons, who are now in the Morris-Griffin ranks. Others were wounded.

The next battle was fought on Horse Creek, at a saloon, a year ago. In this fight James Crow Philpot shot and killed William Bundy, and was in turn killed by Aaron Morris, Bundy's son-in-law. Morris was sentenced for 21 years, but on a new trial he was acquitted.

It is charged that the Whites, of the Howard-White-Baker feud, assisted him.

As a result of last Monday's battle four men, Hugh Griffin, Aaron Morris, Harry Griffin, of the Morris side, and Ed Fisher of the Philpot faction, have been buried. Two others will probably die.

Another Flood in Texas.

DALLAS, Tex., July 21.—A bulletin from Childress, 200 miles northwest, states that a cloudburst occurred in that region Wednesday night with disastrous results. The Little Red and Pease rivers are roaring torrents. It is known that the property loss is very heavy, but nothing has been learned as to the fate of the people in the inundated region, which embraces portions of Childress, Cottle, Hardeman, Wilbarger, Hall, Motley, Donley and Collingsworth counties in the northern western part of the state.

Hot Spell in England.

LONDON, July 21.—A prolonged spell of unprecedented heat which has prevailed over the entire country reached a climax Wednesday and Thursday, the thermometer registering 138 degrees in the sun and 87 degrees in the shade. There have been numerous cases of sunstroke, many ending fatally. Horses have suffered from the heat almost as much as human beings.

Two Women Burned to Death in Savannah.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 21.—While she was pouring kerosene on a fire an explosion took place which resulted in the fatal burning of Mrs. Annie McGuire. She died Thursday morning. In another section of the city an old woman, Anna Cook, endeavored to help along a fire with kerosene. The can exploded. The woman died some hours later.

Molineses Indicted.

New York, July 21.—The grand jury has indicted Roland B. Molineses for the murder of Mrs. Kate Adams.

BOWLING CONTEST.

Eureka-Buckeye Vs. Marietta Bowling Team.

The bowling contest at the big picnic yesterday resulted in favor of the Marietta team.

Capt. Colt, the all-round genial and popular exponent of the science of bowling, chose two crack bowlers from the pipe line fraternity, Messrs. R. C. McIntyre and E. C. Chamberlain, and further strengthened his team by adding Scott, the well known Parkersburg, and Decker, from Marietta. The team lined up as follows: Colt, Scott, Decker, McIntyre and Chamberlain for the Pipe Liners, and Mellyer, Roesser, Schneider, Selpel and Ketter for Marietta.

The first game resulted in an easy victory for Marietta, with the score standing 775 to 697.

The second game was won by Colt's team, the score being 681 to 690 in their favor.

The third and last game was desperately fought from start to finish, the Pipe Liners leading for the first half of the game, and the Mariettas winning by hard work and the close margin of two pins.

The victory for Marietta was well earned and the result was greeted by a terrific yell. Captains Colt and Schneider geyed each other during the game and laid several interesting wagers, which will be paid later.

The highest individual scores were made by Ketter, first; Scott, second; and Selpel, third. Highest averages—Ketter, first; Selpel, second; Scott, third; Mellyer, fourth. Referee, Heister, of Parkersburg. Scorer and rooter, Kurtz, from same place.

The Marietta team are shaking hands with each other, as the victory from a combination of the best bowlers from the Pipe Line, Parkersburg and their own town is certainly deserving of congratulations.

Will Ride Across the Continent on a Bicycle Without Handle Bars.

Messenger No. 574 of the Postal Telegraph Company, who has only one arm, and who attracts attention by the ease with which he rides a bicycle without handle bars, is about to attempt to ride from New York to San Francisco in record breaking time. He purposes to start from the City Hall next Sunday morning at 8 o'clock and hopes to maintain runs of from 60 to 75 miles a day for the entire distance.

No. 574 in private life is Albert V. Roe. He is 19 years old and usually lives at Mills Hotel No. 1, in Bleeker street. His left arm was cut off at the shoulder while switching cars at Los Angeles, Cal., two years ago. A brother and three sisters, his nearest living relatives, live in Grinnell, Iowa, and he means to call on them in passing.

He rides a wheel geared to 91 inches and steers it by a crotch 4 inches long on the head of the machine. A skeleton rack built over the rear wheel will carry his baggage. He has ridden 100 miles every Sunday for 10 weeks to put him in condition for the journey.—Chicago Times-Herald.

PICNIC

Of the Employees of the Eureka and Buckeye Pipe Lines a Very Enjoyable Affair.

The employees of the Eureka and Buckeye pipe lines held their annual picnic at the beautiful Eureka-Buckeye Park Thursday. While the attendance did not come up to that of last year, it was large enough to fill the park comfortably.

The park, although not large, is an ideal place, situated as it is at the head of the island, three miles above the wharf. It was never more beautiful than it was yesterday with its lovely carpet of green grass and its abundant shade.

Yesterday was a perfect day so far as picnic weather is concerned. There were no storms to mar the pleasure of the event or render travel on the river dangerous.

Everything—park, weather, accommodations and people—seemed to be in perfect unison toward making an enjoyable occasion.

At 8:30 in the morning the Marietta band marched to the wharf and started for the island. They were soon followed by large crowds which were comfortably carried to the park by the steamers Eloise and Sonoma. The boats made regular trips every hour during the day and evening.

At the park all was merriment and enjoyment. The amusements were all of the harmless character—the striking machine, the merry-go-round, the kiddy-came-back, cane race and bowling alleys being among the number. Those who wished (and they were many) spent the time in "tripping the light fantastic" to the strains of music furnished by the Marietta orchestra.

A ticket included a pleasant boat ride to and from the park and free access to all amusements and refreshments, outside of the substantial furnished by the restaurant.

It was a very good crowd so far as behavior was concerned. Everyone was "on his good behavior" and there was not a drunk nor a fight on the grounds. The attendance is estimated at from 2500 to 3000 people, most of them coming from the oil fields of West Virginia and Ohio, although there was quite a number there from Pennsylvania oil fields. Trains over the O. R. Z. & O., T. & O. C. E. C. & M. and B. & O. S. W. were well loaded with passengers, who enjoyed the picnic.

The management are to be congratulated on the success of their picnic, and especially upon the elimination of disagreeable features.

BONDS SOLD.

The German National Bank of Cincinnati Gets Them at a Big Premium.

The $70,000 worth of Putnam Street Bridge Bonds and the $5000 worth of sewer bonds have been sold to the German National Bank, of Cincinnati, O. The bridge bonds were sold at a premium of $9,975, and the sewer bonds at a premium of $541.

It became evident Tuesday that the bidders had formed a combine to get the bonds at the lowest possible price, with the exception of the German National Bank, of Cincinnati, and another firm of the same city, whose higher bids were received Tuesday, too late for consideration. That was the reason that the Council rejected all bids.

As soon as the bids were rejected by the Council the Mayor and Clerk wired the Cincinnati bank that they could have the bonds at their figures. The bank agreed to take them and thus the sale was made.

The matter was kept quiet, however, until yesterday. Representatives of the former bidders were in the city last evening, presumably to present bids to the Council at their meeting last night and learned, too late, that the sale was made.

By the little play the city treasury will be the gainer of more than $4000, the amount the Cincinnati bank will pay more than the highest responsible bid considered at the meeting of the Council Tuesday evening.
