THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1900.

Death of Rev. D. F. Harris.

From Columbus came the word yesterday that the Rev. D. F. Harris, formerly pastor of the Harmar Congregational church, had that day died in Columbus. At the time of his death Mr. Harris was pastor of the St. Clair Avenue Congregational church.

Mr. Harris's many friends in Marietta will greatly regret to hear of his death. The Ohio State Journal says of his death: Rev. D. F. Harris, pastor of St. Clair Avenue Congregational church, died at his home at 479 Lexington avenue, shortly before 1 o'clock Wednesday morning of pneumonia. He had only been ill for a few days and his death was, therefore, a great shock to his relatives and many friends.

The deceased first complained of not feeling well on last Saturday and on Sunday was confined to his bed. Since then he did not appear to be growing worse until on Tuesday evening, when it was seen that he was in a dangerous condition.

Rev. Mr. Harris was born in 1851 and had been pastor of the St. Clair Avenue church for over a year. Some time ago he resigned on account of salary matters, but the members of the congregation refused to permit him to leave and the matter was adjusted satisfactorily. During the time he had charge of the pastorate of the church he made a most excellent record, having made a large increase in the membership besides reducing the church debt in great measure. His death will be sincerely regretted by all who knew him.

In Mayor's Court.

The case against Jack Robinson for malicious destruction of property was dismissed by Mayor Sykes yesterday and the costs paid.

The case against B. F. Smith was dismissed upon motion of the prosecution, who were not ready for trial. Smith was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses from certain parties at St. Marys. The attachment suit against Smith will be heard today.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of a boy who loosed the brakes on a Pennsylvania passenger coach near Front street about a week ago, allowing it to run down the grade into a freight car which was damaged. The boys name is withheld for the present. Seven gamblers were up before Mayor Sykes last evening and were treated to a fine of $25 and costs each.

A Serious Runaway.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berg, who reside near Eight Mile, met with a very narrow escape while in this city yesterday afternoon. They were driving and when near the corner of Fourth and Hart streets the horse became scared by a street car and ran up Fourth street. The frightened animal continued its flight until it came to Washington street, where it turned the corner and ran against a tree. The rig was upset, throwing Mr. Berg violently to the pavement. He was picked up unconscious and Drs. Smith and Willis called. Mr. Berg was considered in a very serious condition for some time, having suffered a concussion of the brain.

He was removed to the home of his brother on Sixth street and is now considered somewhat better.

A Faulty Ordinance.

An interesting state of affairs is developing at Mackeburg. The village Council not long ago passed an ordinance against liquor selling, but two dealers, Messrs. Dillon and Wharf, continued to sell in defiance of the ordinance. Prosecution was talked of, but it was found that the ordinance was of no force. Tuesday the men were arrested for operating slot machines and now it seems that the ordinance against gambling is rather weak. Attorney B. E. Guyton is handling the case for the dealers.

Not Guilty.

In Common Pleas Court Wednesday William Smith was tried on the charge of removing coupling pins from a railroad train. The jury was not out long and returned a verdict of not guilty. Attorney J. W. Trautman defended Mr. Smith and won the case.

BROKEN LEG.

Result of a Fight at the Union Depot Wednesday.

Willie Johnson, better known as "Eph," is in the lockup, and Arville Curtis is lying at his home in Bucktown with a broken leg, all as a result of a fight yesterday.

According to Eph's own story there has been bad blood between the two for several days over some trivial matter. Eph was indulging rather freely in intoxicants yesterday forenoon and it seems that he was ready for trouble when he met Curtis near the Union Depot about noon. They began scuffling and soon came to blows. Then they wrestled and fell, and Curtis's leg was caught in such a position that the bone was broken about midway between knee and ankle.

Eph was arrested soon afterward and taken to the lockup, where he created a sensation about 1 o'clock by attempting to hang himself to the bars of the prison door with his suspenders. He didn't have to be cut down, as his attempted suicide was a failure. He will be given a hearing this morning.

Curtis was taken to his home in Bucktown, where his injuries received attention.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Personal and Local.

The doctor looked wise and said it was "nervous indigestion." But he didn't cure it.
So Mr. Thos. G. Lever, of Lever, S. C., wrote to Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. And now Mr. Lever is well.

Dr. R. V. Pierce is and for thirty years has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, during this time he has probably treated more cases of chronic, or lingering, diseases than any other physician in the world.

Invalids from all over the world write to him and receive advice free of charge. During the early years of his practice Dr. Pierce compounded his "Golden Medical Discovery" which he has used ever since in treating all affections of the lungs and bronchial tubes; for purifying the blood; for toning up the nerves and whenever an honest reliable non-alcoholic tonic was needed. In connection with it he prescribes what other special medicine may be required in exceptional cases and gives directions as to diet and hygiene.

The result is health.
Mr. Lever writes:

"I was afflicted with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. Took medicine from my family physician to no avail. I thought myself incurable as I suffered so much with pain under my ribs and an empty feeling in my stomach. I was getting very nervous and suffered a great deal mentally, thinking that death would soon claim me. I was irritable and impatient and greatly reduced in flesh. I could scarcely eat anything that would not produce a bad feeling in my stomach. I wrote Dr. Pierce. He prescribed his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pelle's' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pelle's' will cure any case of indigestion, torpid liver or chronic cold."

"Insist upon having 'Golden Medical Discovery' for nothing else is 'just as good.'"

Governor Roosevelt on the American Boy.

In St. Nicholas for May Governor Roosevelt of New York tells "What We Can Expect of the American Boy." Of course, he says, what we have a right to expect from the American boy is that he shall turn out to be a good American man. Now, the chances are strong that he won't be much of a man unless he is a good deal of a boy. He must not be a coward, or a weakling, a bully, shirk, or a prig. He must work hard and play hard. He must be clean-minded and clean-lived, and able to hold his own under all circumstances and against all comers. It is only on these conditions that he will grow into the kind of American man of whom America can really be proud.

There are always in life countless tendencies for good and for evil, and each succeeding generation sees some of these tendencies strengthened and some weakened; nor is it by any means always, alas! that the tendencies for evil are weakened, and those for good strengthened. But during the last few decades there certainly have been some notable changes for good in boy life. The great growth in the love of athletic sports, for instance, while fraught with danger if it becomes one-sided and unhealthy, has beyond all question had an excellent effect in reared manliness. Forty or fifty years ago the writer on American morals was sure to deplore the effeminacy and luxury of young Americans who were born of rich parents. The boy who was well off then, especially in the big Eastern cities, lived too luxuriously, took to billiards as his chief innocent recreation, and felt small shame in his inability to take part in rough pastimes and field sports. Nowadays, whatever other faults the sons of rich parents may tend to develop, he is at least forced by the opinion of all his associates of his own age to bear himself well in manly exercise, and to develop his body—and therefore, to a certain extent, his character—in the rough sports which call for pluck, endurance and physical address.

Wanamaker Glad.

New York, April 24.—John Wanamaker expressed satisfaction with the vote in the United States senate to keep Matthew S. Quay out of a seat in that house. He said:

"The fact that Quay is to be kept out of the senate is sufficient for congratulation, but I take no satisfaction in the personal humiliation of a man who has been so prominent in public life." Asked if he intended to be a candidate for senator, Mr. Wanamaker replied:

"I'll have to change my mind first." Mr. Wanamaker said that Quay could not be elected by the next legislature by fair means. He admitted having dined with General Harrison, and in response to a query as to whether they had discussed the Quay case, said that everybody was talking about the Quay matter. He said he had suggested in times past a number of men for Mr. Quay's place in the senate. He doubted, he said, whether there had been a fair election in the state, except in spots, in 15 years, but he had hopes for the future.
