Your Own Home Doctor First, Last and All the Time.

Of implicit faith we oft' hear tell, But confidence makes no one well. With nurses' care and doctors' skill A life is saved when faith might kill. A peddled book, an almanac, Cheap advice from a traveling quack, By accident a cure may make Or kill by some tom-fool mistake. Your own physician first call in And pin your faith smack-dab to him. Pin it there with the spike of hope, Drive it home with a ten spot note. If your home physician's skill is spent, You might as well put up your tent, Vamoose, skeddadle, take a sneak, And call upon dear old St. Pete. How can a book, an almanac, A corner fakir, fiddling quack, Make a cure, when a graduate Must how to the inevitable fate? Be wise in the choice of your physician; he is your greatest benefactor; and be not otherwise in the selection of your druggist. Yours for business, Phone 53, 127 Greene street. WILL S. RICHARDSON, The Cut-Rate Druggist, Open Sunday.

ESCAPED

Did Three River Thieves Who Were Locked Up in the City Prison.

Marshal J. H. Dye captured James Kindle and Edward Wilson, of Beverly, and Archie Perkins, of West Virginia, three badly wanted junk thieves near the Bellevue yesterday morning and placed them in the city prison.

During the absence of officer Wright who was sent on an errand by the Mayor, and scarcely two hours after being shut up, they were missed from the cell. Upon examination it was found that they had broken a hole about a foot square through the floor and to have dropped into the dungeon below. Then by prying a board off a door, they were able to make good their escape.

Marshal Dye was notified and started in pursuit, but failed to recapture them. They were seen going through Oak Grove cemetery and toward Duck Creek bridge, and it is supposed they crossed the river at Waverly.

Dear Sirs—Some days since a package of your GRAIN-O preparation was left at my office. I took it home and gave it a trial, and I have to say I was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the GRAIN-O as well as the best coffee I ever drank.

Respectfully yours,

THE MCKINLEY MEN

Who are suffering from a severe attack of over confidence in the elect of McKinley, will find instant relief by using the following:

We will sell you any piano or organ in our large stock at regular price, to be paid for immediately after election. If McKinley is elected, you pay us regular net price either in gold or silver. If Bryan is elected, we will take 60 per cent. of the price, dollar for dollar, if paid in gold; or two dollars for one if paid in silver.

This formula has been tried by one good Republican and he bears witness that he is relieved by a growing desire for McKinley's defeat.
